

A YALE MAN PROTESTS.

Results of the Bryan Meeting as Represented by the Outside Press.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 25.

To the Editor of Yale Alumni Weekly:

Sir:—The writer has always taken a great pride in Yale, and since graduation has never missed a chance of trying to influence young men fitting for college, to favorably consider the advantages of Yale.

My great respect for Yale has been, more than for any other reason, on account of the Democratic spirit of fair play I always found there, catering to no class or clique, but allowing every man a fair chance to prove and profit by his abilities, without prejudice as to family position, religious or political beliefs. Consequently I have been much pained and chagrined to learn through the press of the country of the very unmanly treatment given by Yale men to Mr. Bryan, the nominee of one of the great political parties, for the highest office in the gift of the people.

This outrage, while it must be condemned by all fair minded people, in all sections of the country, in my opinion will especially hurt Yale in the West, as it cannot help being taken as a direct insult and breach of hospitality by this section of our country, on which Yale is as much dependent as any other, for her support. And as an alumnus, always heretofore proud of Yale, I take this means of urging that immediate action be taken by the University to make suitable apologies to Mr. Bryan and to show to the world that the unworthy treatment shown by this gathering does not well represent the sentiment of Yale, and that the offenders are believed by their fellow students to have sinned as much against the fair name of Yale, as against Mr. Bryan.

Respectfully,

F. N. SEWALL, Yale '86.

THE INDIANS INDIGNANT.
(New York World.)

Muskogee, I. T., Sept. 29.—At a mass meeting of the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws and Seminoles, held here yesterday, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we contemplate with regret the recent insulting treatment of William J. Bryan by students of a college in the land of the boasted white man's civilization, and we admonish all Indians, who think of sending their sons to Yale, that association with such students could but prove hurtful alike to their morals and their progress towards the higher standard of civilization.

WE "GO TO SCHOOL."

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 2.—The Democratic students of Purdue University, at a meeting last night, unanimously adopted this resolution:

"Whereas, The students of Yale University last week grossly insulted the Hon. William J. Bryan, candidate for the highest office in the gift of the freest and best country on earth; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the Democratic students of Purdue University, an institution whose students go to school and are not sent, condemn the action of those who took part in that ungentlemanly, uneducational and un-American proceeding as unworthy the institution whose students they are."

University Whist Club Organized.

A large number were present at the meeting of the Yale University Whist Club held last Thursday. It was decided to obtain a room in which to hold regular Monday evening matches and to send a challenge to Princeton for a tournament to be played during February. A tournament open to all University students will be held in the near future in order to decide upon University representatives, and prizes will be awarded to the winners. The Executive Committee appointed, consists of A. Sherwood, '97; Lamphier, '97S.; N. Beecher, '98; Cameron, '99. and W. Cooke, '97.

Two new dormitories—Prescott and Dunster Halls—have been opened this fall at Harvard.

University Course for Connecticut Teachers.

The courses of study offered this year by the University to those teachers in the State of Connecticut who are either graduates of colleges, or are qualified by means of their previous studies, have been joined by over one hundred Connecticut teachers. These courses have been offered "with the desire of being serviceable to the teachers of public and private schools in the State of Connecticut." Those who take the courses will have their names enrolled under "Courses for Teachers" in the University catalogue and will have access to the University Library, the Peabody Museum and the collections of the Art School. Outside work in reading, relative to the subjects of study will be given and whatever help may be necessary in the way of suggestions and hints as to the methods of teaching.

A course consists of twenty-four exercises, to be given on Saturdays, eight in the fall, eight in the winter and eight in the spring term. The professors who will conduct the course the first term are Professor Henry Farnam, Economics; Professor A. M. Wheeler, History; Professor T. D. Seymour, Greek; Professor W. H. Brewer, Physical Geography; Professor W. G. Sumner, Social Science, and Professors Irving Fisher and Sidney Smith, Literature.
