

ON THE GRIDIRON.

University and Freshman Teams Win Two Games Each.

The University Eleven met a team from Brown University at the Yale Field on Wednesday, Oct 7 and won the game by the score of 18 to 0. The outcome of the game was somewhat of a surprise, as Brown was reported to have a very good team and it was thought that Yale would surely be scored against, if not defeated. The work of the home team both collectively and individually was vastly improved over the showing of the previous week and Yale had no difficulty in opening up Brown's line for successive gains of five yards or more. Yale's defensive work was also very strong and Brown was forced to kick on many occasions and often lost ground on their plays. Brown's only gains of importance were obtained by kicks, which by the way were not always successful, while Yale forced her way behind the goal posts by means of steady hard rushes.

The greatest improvement in Yale's playing during the past week was shown in their team work, their strong and well formed interference and the general snap with which all plays were executed. As soon as the ball was put into play every one of the eleven Yale men started immediately and they worked together like machines. There was no mistaking of signals and very little fumbling. The line up of the two teams was as follows:

YALE 18.	POSITION.	BROWN 0.
Hazen, r.e.,		r.e., Chase
Conner, r.e.,		r.e., Smith

YALE 12; ORANGE 0.

Yale defeated the Orange Athletic Club at Orange Oval last Saturday by the score of 12 to 0, three touchdowns being made. A crowd of over two thousand spectators were present, including a large number of Yale graduates.

The work of the team on the whole was not of the highest order, fumbling being quite frequent and the interference often weak. Although three touchdowns were scored, no goals were kicked from them, this being partially excused by the wind, which was very strong. The rush line showed unexpected strength all through the game. Van Every and Rodgers did especially good work for Yale, and Maynard and Kyle for Orange.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

YALE.	POSITION.	ORANGE,
Bass, l.e.,	l.e.,	Collamore
Rodgers, l.t.,	l.t.,	Sutphen
Chadwick, l.g.,	l.g.,	Lancon
Chamberlain, c.,	c.,	Moher

FRESHMAN GAMES.

The Freshman eleven defeated the Hartford High School on Wednesday, Oct. 7, by the score of 26 to 0. In the first half three touchdowns and one goal were made and in the second half two touchdowns and two goals. The best playing was done by Francis and Bell. The line-up was as follows:

1900 6, WORCESTER A. C., 0.

The Freshman eleven played its first game in New Haven last Saturday against the team of the Worcester Athletic club. Not until the last part of the second half was either side able to score, when the Freshmen made the only touchdown of the game. Brinley carried the ball across the line and Scheppe kicked goal. Luce and Brinley played the best game for Yale, while the work of Becton of Worcester was a feature of the game.

The Yale Freshmen lined up as follows:

The Yale Sound Money Club.

The committees in charge of the Sound Money movement have met with a good deal of discouragement in their attempts both to perfect a marching organization so as to participate in any of the prominent parades at either New Haven or New York and also in securing prominent speakers. It has been the unanimous wish of the students to hear either Mr. Reed, Mr. Depew or Mr. Bourke Cochran on the money question, but they have all been assigned to speak in the West and cannot arrange to visit New Haven. Arrangements had been completed with the New York Republican county committee for the participation of the battalion in the big business men's parade on Oct. 31st., but owing to the Faculty's objection this has been given up. The rallies here at New Haven have also had to be postponed from fear that student participation would do more harm than good, owing to the Bryan incident on the Green. It seems at present as if the committees in charge would have to make a still college campaign. They are doing everything in their power, however, to see that students residing within a day's ride of New Haven, go home to vote for sound money. The committees in charge of the Sound Money movement are composed of the following:

Academic Department—L. M. Bass '97, G. C. Brook '97, E. Hill '97, L. Hinkey '97.

Scientific Department—J. D. P. Francis '97, R. J. Grant '97, T. M. Laughlin '97.

Law School—R. S. Baldwin '95 and H. T. Halbert '95.

Resolutions of Yale Bryan Club.

A meeting was held last Saturday evening of those interested in forming a Bryan and Sewell Club at Yale. Officers were elected as follows: Gerald Hughes, '97, of Denver, Col., President; C. H. Studinski, '97, of Pueblo, Col., Secretary and Treasurer. An Executive Committee, consisting of the President, J. W. Bryan, '97, and A. E. Jones, Jr., '99, was selected to take charge of the plans of the club. The treatment of the Hon. William Jennings Bryan at his recent visit to New Haven was discussed and the following resolutions were passed and unanimously adopted by the club.

Whereas, At the recent visit of Mr. Bryan to New Haven, certain members of Yale University did thoughtlessly and unfortunately interfere with the proceedings, and

Whereas, Such action has unjustly been imputed by the press to the Yale students as a whole,

Be it Resolved, That we, the members of the Bryan and Sewell Club of Yale University, do hereby condemn this action as untrue to the sentiments of our University, and hostile to the spirit of broad-mindedness which has always characterized Yale men, and that we tender to Mr. Bryan our sincerest apology for this action of some of our fellow students and

Be it further resolved, That a set of these resolutions be sent to Mr. Bryan and to the press of the country.

The newly formed Bryan and Sewell Club will hold frequent meetings and endeavor to promote the cause of the Popocrats in the University. The members present numbered about 30.

INTERCOLLEGIATE TENNIS.

Harvard Wins the Cup—Her Double Victory.

The fifteenth annual Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament, which was held October 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10th, on the grounds of the New Haven Lawn club, resulted in victories for Harvard in both singles and doubles, thus giving her permanent possession of the $600 Intercollegiate cup. This trophy was first contested for in 1889. Its value is greatly enhanced by the prominent names engraved among the list of winners. Three men who have had the national championship in singles, O. S. Campbell, Fred Hovey and R. D. Wrenn, as well as such noted players as Larned, Malcom, Chace, I. A. Shaw, Foote and Budlong, have at one time or another won the trophy for a year. The cup was given on the condition that it should go to the college which first won seven points, first place in doubles, or singles each counting one point. Before the tournament this year, Harvard and Yale were tied with five points each. This fact gave the tournament an especial interest.

Yale's representatives, C. P. Dodge '99, H. H. Hackett 1900, and R. Hooker '99, were all players of comparatively little experience, while Ware and Whitman of Harvard were men of national reputation. Consequently Yale's chief hope was that some other college would prevent Harvard from winning more than one of the two greatly contested points. Budlong of Brown was counted as the man most likely to fulfill these hopes.

The tournament opened with a surprise. Driscoll from Georgetown university, a player little known in the East, but well known on the California coast defeated Budlong with ease in the first round. He thus became the unknown element in the tournament, and Yale had great hopes of his final success. The rest of the play was uneventful.

All of Yale's representatives were successful in their first round. Hooker succumbed to Whitman of Harvard after he had won two matches. Dodge after beating Perry of Williams, Foster of Harvard, and Thompson of Princeton, in hard fought matches, met Whitman of Harvard in the semi-finals and was easily defeated. It was in this round that Driscoll of Georgetown surprised everybody again by beating Ware of Harvard in a beautifully fought match. Yale's hopes rose higher with this victory, and many thought that Whitman too would fall before the Westerner.

The doubles had already been practically won for Harvard, for her two teams were to meet in the finals. Driscoll was the only man who stood between Harvard and the cup, his opponent being Whitman. Both men realized that the situation was critical, and the audience was prepared for a hard fight. But Driscoll had been weakened by his six days' trip across the continent, and a week of hard playing. The night before the final he was so ill as to require a physician's attendance. This in part accounted for the fact that Whitman beat him with ease in three straight sets; though it was the unanimous verdict that Whitman would have outplayed him, even had Driscoll been at his best.

In the doubles Ware and Scudder of Harvard met Whitman and Forbes also of Harvard, and succeeded in beating them only after a prolonged five set match. The second prize in singles was won by Neely of Cornell, and the second in doubles went to Hooker and Noyes of Yale by default.

A meeting of the Intercollegiate Tennis Association was held during the tournament. Thompson of Princeton was elected President for the coming year; Ware of Harvard, vice president, and Dodge of Yale, secretary and treasurer. Steps have been taken towards raising funds for the purchase of a new cup by a joint subscription of the colleges.

Freshman Football Captain.

George Ludington Young, of Chicago, Ill., has been elected temporary captain of the Freshman eleven. He prepared for Yale at Phillips Academy, Andover, where he was captain of the football team last year. His position is end rush.

Getting Square with Yale.

[Mr. Bromley in New York Tribune.]

Professor Sumner, of Yale, being, as we shall presently show, at his last gasp, and presumably in a mood of humility and contrition, has made public through "The Yale Alumni Weekly" a letter written to him by Mr. George P. Dier, of Bozeman, Mont., in reply to, or rather in consequence of, the Professor's recent article in "The Chautauquan." We confess that we do not know Mr. Dier, thereby doubtless arguing ourselves unknown, but he is obviously an extremely resolute and confident defender of the faith delivered to the American people by the Chicago Convention. Mr. Dier wastes no time in embroidering his epistle, but gets right down to business with a volley of resounding Don't-you-knows, of which the following is a sample: "Don't you know that if the Government, under unlimited free coinage of silver, 16 to 1, bought silver bullion at $1.29 per ounce, that the price could not go below the mint price?" Now, if Mr. Dier had merely discharged this fusillade and stopped, leaving its hideous effect upon the Professor to the imagination, he would, perhaps, have done all that could reasonably be demanded in the interest of Mr. Bryan. But Mr. Dier is not that sort of warrior. He realized that the Professor, though terribly disfigured, might possibly succeed in crawling away. And so he followed up his broadside and put the wretched man beyond human help with this deadly thrust: "I am astonished that such an arrogant lackass as your article would indicate you are can occupy a chair in a college like Yale."

If Mr. Dier were not as modest as he is valiant, he would not have made the pretence of thus addressing a living man in the present tense. For Professor Sumner is to all intents and purposes a goner. Mr. Dier has finished him. The only place he is now qualified to occupy is a grave in the New Haven Cemetery, and the Yale students' devilish protest against Mr. Bryan's announcement that they were being educated on the ill-gotten gains of their fathers has been triumphantly avenged.
