Mr. Osborn married for his first wife Harriet N., youngest daughter of the late Joseph Moss of New Berlin, N. Y. She died March 27, 1861. Four daughters were born to them, Rosanna, who died in early childhood; Rosalie, wife of Albert Bierstadt, the artist; Mary, wife of Charles C. EDWARD WELLS, '39.

Edward Wells, '39, after a protracted illness, died at his home in Peekskill, N. Y., on Friday, October 9. Mr. Wells was born in Durham, N. Y., December 18, 1818. After graduating from College he studied law in the office of the late ex-Congressman Ward and Judge Albert Lockwood, in Sing Sing, and also in the office of Minot C. Mitchell, in White Plains. On October 28, 1842, he was admitted to the bar as an attorney of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. Later in 1842 he was regularly admitted as a solicitor in the Court of Chancery of that State.

Mr. Wells was twice elected District Attorney of Westchester County on the Republican ticket, and served from January, 1851, to January, 1857. He was urged to run again for that position but declined.

Mr. Wells became a resident of Peekskill on December 9, 1842, where he entered into a law partnership with John Curry. He married Hannah Nassau, of Lawrenceville, N. J., on October 21, 1856. He has been for many years an elder in the First Presbyterian Church, trustee of the Presbytery, and eight times a commissioner to the General Assembly. In 1884, he was appointed a delegate to the Presbyterian Alliance, which met in London, but was detained from going by an important case on which he was interested in at that time.

He was a trustee of the Temporary Home at White Plains, of the Westchester County Bible Society, a life director in the American Bible Society, a member of the American Board of Foreign Missions and of the Finance Committee, and judicial advisor and counsel to the Board.

As an orator and public speaker Mr. Wells held a foremost place in the bar of the State. He delivered many lectures on legal, scientific and other subjects. As a lawyer he tried many well known cases, especially in the United States Supreme Court.

Two sons and a daughter survive him. Also one brother, Albert Wells, of North Dakota, for many years principal of the Peekskill Military Academy.
