

'94 CIRCULAR LETTER.

Closer Communication With Secretary Desired—New Addresses.

The following circular letter has just been sent out to the members of the Class of 1894 by its secretary, Amos T. Harrington:

117 West Divinity Hall, New Haven Ct. Dear Classmate:

One hundred and twenty men answered the postal issued November 16th, 1895. Although this number comprises but one-half the class, I issue the address list without waiting for the replies from the others.

The work upon the Triennial Record will be greatly impaired unless I hear from the entire class, and if your name is erased upon this list, it is to remind you that you have not answered my last communication. If such be the case, I make a final appeal that you throw off your lethargy and write me a letter, otherwise your record will be absolutely nothing.

Some have never replied to any postal and consequently I have lost their addresses. Those whose home addresses are known will have the same printed in parenthesis. Where there is some doubt about the address or occupation, I have appended to it an interrogation mark.

Note the following abbreviations: B., In business; b., Banking; C., Clerk; J., Journalist; L., Practicing law; l., Studying law; M., Practising medicine; m., Studying medicine; P. G., Post-Graduate; T., Teaching; t., Studying theology; U., Occupation unknown.

From now on let every one make up his mind that he will be at the Triennial. Can we not "smash the records" of '91 and '93 by having in line at least two hundred and twenty?

I advise every member of '94 to take the Yale Alumni Weekly, I purpose every week to insert in the "Alumni" column of that paper items that will keep the class informed about different members, and by subscribing to it one will be kept in touch with his classmates better than when he hears from me once every year. Kindly mail me the lost addresses that do not appear in the list if you know them, answer my postal if you have not done so, and report any corrections to

Yours sincerely,

AMOS THOMSON HARRINGTON, Secretary of '94.
