

NEWS FROM OTHER COLLEGES.

HARVARD.

It has been officially announced by Captain Cabot, of the Harvard University eleven that Dr. Brooks, Mr. DeLand and Captain Emons, of the '95 team, have been appointed as an advisory board to manage the foot ball team this year. The system of coaching is to be similar to that used when Mr. Emmons captained the eleven. There are to be, as nearly as possible, a complete corps of coaches on the field, who have been especially drilled in their respective positions, thus insuring more individual criticism and attention to the different members of the team.

The question for the debate between the Harvard Forum and Columbia Debating Union, which is to take place at Columbia on March 19, is: "Resolved, That the present method of electing United States Senators is preferable to election by popular vote."

The Lampoon elections for the ensuing year are as follows: President, T. M. Hastings, '98; secretary, H. Wood, Jr., '98; honorary, R. Chambers Lehmann; new editors from '98; M. S. Greenough, F. Curtis; business editor from '99, J. E. Brooks.

PRINCETON.

As the spring training of the foot ball candidates proved so successful at Princeton a year ago similar plans have been laid out this season. Light work will be given the men in the Gymnasium to build them up generally, until the ground becomes suitable for out-door work.

The Junior Promenade, given at Princeton on February 12, was one of the most successful dances ever given. In the afternoon a tea was given at the Ivy Club, and in the evening, before the promenade, there was a concert by the Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs.

CORNELL.

The fourth annual Cornell-Pennsylvania debate will be held on Saturday, March 6, in the Philadelphia Academy of Music. The subject to be debated is: "Resolved, That the United States and the several States should establish courts of compulsory adjustment of the disputes between employees and private corporations which possess franchises of a public nature."

All arrangements have now been made for the two-mile boat race, which is to occur at Annapolis on Saturday, May 15, between the Annapolis Naval Academy and the Second University crew of Cornell. During their stay the Cornell men are to be the guests of the Academy, and will occupy rooms in the old quarters.

ODD NOTES.

Property to the value of $2,000,000 or more was added to the endowment of Leland Stanford, Jr., University very recently by the action of Jane Lathrop Stanford. The property consists of the Stanford mansion and the valuable collection of books, paintings, bronzes and mosaic works.

President Andrews, of Brown, has decided not to resume his work this year, and will not return to America before next August.

Plans for the Harvard Debate.

The Joint Debate Committee of the Yale Union has decided that Yale will uphold the negative side of the question in the coming debate with Harvard. The question reads as follows: "Resolved, That the United States should adopt definitively the single gold standard, and should decline to enter a bimetallic league, even if Great Britain, France and Germany should be willing to enter such a league."

The Yale team will be definitely chosen on March 1, when the final trials take place between the men who have been successful in the various debating clubs.

Yale Indoor Games.

The annual games of the Yale Athletic Association in connection with the Connecticut National Guard, will be held in the Second Regiment Armory on Saturday, March 13, and the following open events will be contested: Fifty yard dash, 880 yard run, one mile walk, 50 yard hurdle, one mile run, relay race, putting the 16 pound shot, running high jump and pole vault. There will also be special events for the Connecticut National Guard.

English View of Intercollegiate Debating.

The London Graphic has alighted upon a somewhat fervent report of the Harvard-Princeton debate, and finds it interesting. Thus it delivers itself thereon:

"Although the most popular contests between the American universities are those in which long-haired gladiators, clad in padded leather suits, contend with great fury and endurance on the football field, even more characteristic are the rhetorical tournaments in which Harvard, Yale and Princeton annually engage. The subject for this year's debate was not exactly exhilarating, namely, "Resolved, that, assuming the adoption of adequate constitutional amendments, the United States should institute a system of responsible Cabinet government," but it was discussed with great fluency and enthusiasm by the chosen champions of either side. The board of adjudicators included the editor of a well-known Philadelphia journal, a senator and a professor; the ball was opened by Mr. Yocum, of Princeton, and closed by Mr. Charles Grilk, of Harvard, who is described as being 'easily the star speaker of the debate.' Harvard was ultimately pronounced the victor owing to her 'superior uniformity of speaking,' varied, in the case of Mr. Charles Grilk, by 'coruscations of genuine and impassioned eloquence.' It is strange that amid all the inter-university contests between Oxford and Cambridge a competition in debate has never been inaugurated. With, say, Mr. Labouchere, Dr. Joseph Parker, and Mr. Oscar Browning as judges, a very pleasant evening might be spent, even though the speaking did not reach the transcendental level attained by Mr. Charles Grilk."

WHAT IS INHALER ?

X-ODE is a product of electricity. It forms on asbestos while being electrically treated in a solution. This asbestos is put up in a glass vial. When the cork of the vial is removed and the air comes in contact with the asbestos, it emits from the inhaler a soothing gaseous substance, which will penetrate any part of the body. When inhaled through the nose or mouth, it penetrates every nook and crevice of the mucous surfaces, kills the germ that causes the disease, and gives the tissues a healthy condition, thus effecting a permanent cure. It is unlike snuff, drugs or medicine. X-ODE penetrates parts that it would be impossible for drugs or medicines to do.

Catarrh, Asthma, Hay Fever, Coughs, Headache, Bronchitis, LaGrippe, etc., yield to its influence with marvelous rapidity.

This inhaler lasts from one to three years.
Trial size inhaler, 15 cents; large size inhaler, $1.00. All druggists or by mail.
