

ST. LOUIS ALUMNI.

A Very Novel and Successful Evening Enjoyed.

The annual dinner of the Yale Alumni Association of St. Louis was held in the St. Louis Club, Saturday evening, May 15. All things considered, it was the most entertaining meeting for years. Instead of the customary toasts, an entertainment of a rather unusual character was arranged to follow the dinner. It consisted of a number of talks on various subjects of Yale life, as indicated by the program which follows:

1. Historical Sketch.....Frederick N. Judson, '66
2. Old College Festivals.....Charles H. Goodman, '67
3. Baseball.....Wallace D. Simmons, '90
4. Boating.....Allen C. Orrick, '92
5. Football.....Charles R. Skinker, '94
5. Glee Club.....Edgar C. Lackland, Jr., '96
7. "Mory's".....Edward E. Paramore, '82S.
8. Campus Life.....Charles S. Wiley, '85

All the talks were illustrated by stereopticon views. Great enthusiasm was displayed over the pictures, and repeated cheers were given for the different college Presidents and Professors as their faces looked down on the company. Yale's great athletes and the old college characters came in for their share of applause. "Pop" Smith, "Davy" and "Mose" were duly recognized and a story told about each. In addition, some excellent pictures of scenes from college life were presented. The election of officers resulted: President, Judge Elmer B. Adams, '65; Vice-President, Edward N. Hidden, '85; Secretary and Treasurer, Charles R. Skinker, '94.

Big Reunion for '94 S.

Ninety-four, Scientific, promises to have a splendid reunion this year. The Committee is doing good work and a large part of the Class has responded well.
