

(Continued from eighth page.)

THE OUTLOOK FOR NEXT YEAR.

The program for next year is a very attractive one. The lectures announced promise to be of a high order.

The famous Lyman Beecher course will be delivered by President William J. Tucker of Dartmouth. Professor John Bascom of Williams will lecture on "The Recast of Faith," and Rev. George W. Knox, D. D. on "The Influence of Eastern Thought Upon Western Theology." Archdeacon Charles C. Tiffany of New York, will also be among the special lecturers.

In addition to these will be the annual courses of the Leonard Bacon and other Clubs. The Lyman Beecher lecturer for 1898-99 will be Professor George Adam Smith of Glasgow. The annual term of study will begin September 30, 1897.

Sketch of Each Senior.

Daniel Otis Bean is a native of Limington, Maine. He studied at Limington Academy and is a graduate of Dartmouth College, where he also received the degree of M. A. in 1885. He is a member of T. D. X. He has held pastorates at Crawford and Chadron, Nebraska, and has also taught in the High School of Haverhill, N. H., and Lake City, Minn. He will preach in the Congregational denomination.

William Spencer Beard of South Killingly, Conn., was born in Harwich, Mass., June 9, 1870. He studied at Phillips (Andover) Academy and graduated from Yale College in 1894. While in the Divinity School he was president of the Student Volunteer Band and has delivered many missionary addresses in churches throughout the State. He is a Congregationalist, and has been called to Durham, N. H.

George Lincoln Briggs of Albert Lea, Minn., was born in Delavan, Wis., January 26, 1866. He has the degree of B. A. from Beloit College. He taught the Greek Testament at the University of Wisconsin and has also served as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at Topeka, Kansas. He also will enter the Congregational ministry.

Edwin Harold Bronson, of Norwich, Conn., was born July 10, 1872, at Wallingford, Conn.; studied at Norwich Academy and graduated A. B. from Yale in 1894. He is a Baptist and expects to preach in that denomination.

Donald Cameron first saw the light in Glasgow, Scotland. He has studied at Glasgow University and at Chicago Theological Seminary. He has preached in Illinois. He is a Congregationalist.

Leander Coolidge, of Natick, Mass., was born in Natick and received his preparatory training at the High School there. He received the degree of A. B. from Harvard in 1894, and after studying a year at Union Theological Seminary entered the class in its second year. He will enter the Congregational ministry.

David Herbert Evans of Little Falls, N. Y., was born May 15, 1869, at that place. He prepared for college at the Little Falls High School and graduated from Williams College in 1890 with the degree of A. B. He has taught Latin and Greek at Lowville Seminary, New York Military Academy, and at Canandaigua Academy, all in New York State. He will enter the Congregational ministry. At Yale he received a junior Fogg scholarship prize and during his Senior year was manager of the Seminary Book Room.

Miles Bull Fisher of Oakland, Cal., was born in St. Helena, Cal., May 3, 1870. He prepared at the Oakland High School and graduated from the University of California in 1894 with the degree of B. L. He is a member of B. T. P. He will eventually enter the Congregational ministry, but will spend next year in graduate study, probably at Yale. He won the first Downes' prize for Hymn and Scriptural Reading and has been superintendent of the mission work of the school. He has preached during his senior year at Fairfield.

Amos Hoppock Haines of Sergeantville, N. J., was born in 1861 in Sergeantville, N. J. He attended Rutgers Grammar School and graduated B. A. from Rutgers College in 1892. He taught Greek and English literature at Mount Morris College, Mount Morris, Ill. He is a member of the German Baptist Brethren Church. He expects to teach next year.

Archibald McClelland Hall of Irvington, Ind., was born at Laughlinstown, Pa., July 27, 1863. He prepared at the Butler College Preparatory School. He received the degree of B. A. from Butler University in 1888 and that of Ph. D. in 1892. He had a pastorate at Winchester, Indiana. He has taught in the common and High Schools of Indiana and was for three years professor of Hebrew and Old Testament literature in Butler College. He is a member of the Church of the Disciples, but will preach in the Congregational denomination. He will remain for graduate work in Yale University next year.

Amos Thompson Harrington of Lyons, N. Y., was born February 2, 1870, at Lyons. He prepared for college at Phillips (Andover) Academy and graduated from Yale College in 1894. He is a D. K. E. and is secretary of the class of Yale 1894. He is a Presbyterian and expects to preach in that denomination. He has served as secretary of the Divinity School Tennis Association and as president of the Book Room Association.

Arthur Hodges of Chicago, Ill., was born in Chicago, June 20, 1869. He has studied at Beloit Academy, the University of Wisconsin and Chicago Theological Seminary. Has preached at Chicago. He spent about six years in business life before entering college. He expects to preach as a Congregationalist.

Ansel Estano Johnson was born at Newton Center, Mass., September 16, 1870. He has studied at Mt. Hermon School. He preached during his senior year at Oxford, Conn., and has accepted a call to home missionary work in California. He is a Congregationalist. He has served as president of the Divinity School Tennis Association.

Peter Adelstein Johnson of Marshall, Minn., was born in Iceland, December 10, 1868. He attended the High School at Marshall and received the degree of Ph. B. from Tabor College in 1893. He preached at Dodge City, Minn. He is a Congregationalist and is at present serving as assistant pastor of Dwight Place Church in New Haven. Has also recently received a call to the pastorate of Taylor Church, New Haven.

Shepherd Knapp, jr., of New York, was born in that city, September 8, 1873. He prepared at Columbia Grammar School and graduated A. B. from Columbia College in 1894. He is a member of A. D. P. Although he entered the Divinity School as a Presbyterian, he will preach in the Congregational denomination. At Yale he won a Fogg scholarship in the Junior year and is president of the class. He is also a commencement speaker.

George Edwin Ladd was born at Woodstock, Vermont, April 27, 1865. He attended the Woodstock High School and graduated A. B. from Williams College in 1891. He taught Latin in Robert College, Constantinople, for three years. He is a Congregationalist and has preached at Lebanon Mission during the year and has accepted a call to Waterbury, Vermont. He is a Phi. B. K., and at Yale won a Junior Fogg scholarship.

Samuel Edward Lord of Lowell, Mass., was born at South Ely, Canada, November 29, 1868. He attended the French-American Preparatory School and received the degree of A. B. from the French Protestant College in 1894.

Frederick Henry Lynch was born at Peacedale, R. I., July 21, 1867, where he prepared for college at the High School. He graduated from Yale College in 1894. He is at present serving as assistant pastor of the United Church in New Haven and will continue in that capacity after graduation.

Charles Stedman Macfarland of Melrose, Mass., was born in Boston, December 12, 1867. He studied at the High Schools in Boston. He has served as a general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and as assistant pastor of Maverick Congregational Church in Boston. At Yale he received a Fogg prize, has twice been on the University debating teams against Harvard, was president of the Leonard Bacon Club and secretary of the Semitic Club. During his Senior year has regularly supplied Bethany Congregational Church. He will remain for graduate study in Yale University.

Charles Clarkson Merrill of Newbury, Vt., was born at Marlborough, N. H., March 3, 1872. After taking preparatory studies at Cushing Academy, Ashburnham, Mass., he entered Dartmouth College from which he received the degree of A. B. in 1894. He is a D. K. E. He has preached at Easton, Conn., and other places during his course. He will enter the Congregational ministry. While at Yale he has served as deacon of the class, president of the Missionary Association and is a Commencement speaker.

Schuyler Rice Myers of Palo, Ill., was born at Wales, Ill., February 13, 1870. He attended Beloit Academy and received his A. B. from Beloit College in 1894. He has preached at Union Valley, N. Y. He is a Presbyterian, but expects to enter the Congregational ministry. He received a Fogg scholarship prize in the Junior year.

Wesley Eugene Page was born at Brownville, Maine, August 18, 1871. He prepared for college at the Nichols Latin School of Lewiston and graduated A. B. from Bates College in 1894. He has taught in Grammar and High Schools in Maine. During his senior year he has preached at Milton, Conn. He will continue to preach in the Congregational denomination. He was a Fogg scholarship man in Junior year. He will pursue graduate study in the Divinity School next year.

Charles Peabody Pierce of Auburn, Mass., was born at Middlefield in the same state, October 19, 1869. He prepared at Philip Andover and graduated from Yale College in 1892. He was principal of the High School of Machias, Maine, and taught Latin and Greek from 1892 to 1894. He has preached at Middletown, N. Y., and at Yale he has served as class deacon and was a Fogg prize man. He was selected as toastmaster at the class banquet.

Hezekiah Loor Pyle, of St. Paris, Ohio, was born February 10, 1871, at that place. He attended the Ada Normal School at Ada, Ohio, and graduated from Otterbein University in 1894 with the degree of B. A. He has preached at West Newark, N. Y. He is a member of the United Brethren Church and will probably preach in that denomination.

Harry Frank Rall of Des Moines, Iowa, is chronicled elsewhere in this article. At Yale he has served on a University debating team against Princeton, won a Fogg Prize, the Hooker Fellowship and is a commencement speaker. He will, after completing his fellowship studies in January, preach in the Methodist denomination. He is a member of Phi. B. K.

Austin Rice of Danvers, Mass., was born at that place Sept. 25, 1871. He prepared at the Salem High School and graduated B. A. from Amherst College in 1894. He is a member of P. B. K., and T. D. X. He served on the Yale debating team against Princeton in 1896, has been class deacon, won a junior Fogg prize, also the second Downes' senior prize and is a commencement speaker. He will enter the Congregational ministry.

William Henry Rowe of South Elgin, Ill., was born at Elgin May 3, 1868. He studied at Elgin Academy and received the degree of Ph. B. from Beloit College in 1894. He will enter the Congregational ministry and has accepted a call to the Congregational churches at Deer River and Denmark, N. Y.

Milton Sherk Runkle of Lisbon, Iowa, was born there December 22, 1871. After graduating from the Lisbon High School he entered Cornell College where he graduated A. B. in 1894. He has preached at Mt. Washington, Mass. He is a member of the United Brethren in Christ denomination and will preach in that church.

Grant Lincoln Schaeffer of Mountville, Pa., was born September 24, 1863. He has the degree of B. A. from Lebanon Valley College and has had pastorates at Pottstown and Mountville, Pa. He is a member of the Church of United Brethren in Christ, but expects to change to the Congregational denomination. He will pursue the graduate course in the Divinity School next year.

William Harvey Short of Beloit, Wis., was born December 4, 1868, at College Springs, Iowa. He prepared for college at Beloit Academy and graduated from Beloit College in 1894, with the degree of B. A. He is a Congregationalist and expects to preach in that church. He will probably continue graduate studies next year.

William Bergen Stelle of Jersey City, N. J., was born there in 1866. He prepared at Colgate Academy and spent several years in business life in New York City. He graduated B. A. from Colgate University in 1894. He is a member of D. K. E. He is a Baptist and will probably become a foreign missionary.

Rufus Whittaker Stimson of Palmer, Mass., was born in Palmer February 20, 1868. He has studied at the Palmer High School and at Colby University. He received the degree of B. A. from Harvard in 1895 and that of M. A. in 1896. He is also a D. K. E. He has preached at Southwick, Mass. He is a Congregationalist and will enter the ministry of that denomination.

Benjamin Mead Wright of Orange, Conn., was born at Greenwich in that State, July 17, 1861. He graduated at Greenwich Academy in 1878 and at Bangor Theological Seminary in 1886. He has preached at Kent and Orange, Conn. He spent several years as a student in the Graduate Department at Yale. He is at present pastor of the Congregational Church at Orange, Conn., and will remain there after graduation.

AN EXCEPTIONAL CLASS.

The class is regarded as an exceptionally strong one. The men who won Fogg scholarship prizes in the junior year were D. H. Evans, S. Knapp, jr., G. E. Ladd, C. S. Macfarland, C. C. Merrill, S. R. Myers, W. E. Page, C. P. Pierce, H. F. Rall and A. Rice.

The class of 1897 has had a remarkable record in debate. It has had representatives on four intercollegiate teams. Rall was against the Princeton team in 1895, Rice against the Princeton team in 1896, and MacFarland as alternate against the Harvard team in 1896 and principal in the Yale-Harvard debate in 1897. Three of these debates were Yale's three first successive victories.

Nearly all the members of the class will receive the degree of B. D. at the University commencement in June.

Four of the members are married. The average age of the class is 29. With only one or two exceptions the men have made their own way through the Theological course and with probably only one or two more exceptions, through their college course.

Twenty-six out of the thirty-four are or will become Congregationalists.

M.

'97 T. S. Class Supper.

The annual Class Supper of the Senior Class of the Divinity School was held Monday evening, May 17, at Stewart's. There were no guests present, as it was purely a Class affair. Covers were laid for twenty-six, and C. P. Pierce acted as toastmaster. The following is the list of toasts:

1. The Theologue in Society...W. S. Beard
"The lion among ladies is a dreadful thing."
2. Poem.....Shepherd Knapp, Jr.
"And since I never dare to write as funny as I can."
3. California Fruit.....M. B. Fisher
"Framed in the prodigality of Nature."
4. The Stranger within our gates.....
William B. Stelle
"O, well for him that finds a friend or makes a friend where'er he comes."
5. The Consolations of Philosophy.....
H. F. Rall
"Adversity's Sweet Milk, Philosophy."
6. Net Proceeds.....Austin Rice
"I live not in myself, but I become a portion of that around me."
7. The Future.....F. H. Lynch
"And all the fair effects of future hopes."

AN ELEVENTH HOUR CHANGE

MAKES A STILL BETTER EUROPEAN BICYCLE TRIP.

GYMNASIUM, MASS. INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY,
May 20th, 1897.

TO YALE MEN :

I have changed my plans a bit. While perfecting arrangements I saw where I could improve my European Bicycle Trip. There is still a chance to join us if you act quickly.

The trip will take less time than before—only 72 days now. We leave New York June 23.

The rate of travel will not exceed 30 miles a day, and Sunday will be a day of rest.

GERMANY and TYROL are now our special field. We have time enough to thoroughly enjoy the country we go through, and to study the characteristics of the people.

There are many beautiful valleys in Germany other than the Rhine, which are almost unknown to American tourists, through which I intend to conduct my party.

The picturesque

HARZ MOUNTAINS, the THURINGIAN FOREST, the BAVARIAN HIGHLANDS, the TYROLEAN ALPS, and the BLACK FOREST will also be visited.

But I can't tell you much about it in this short letter. I wished you to know of the changes, which give still a chance to join us, and to ask you to write at once if you intend to do so.

OUR PARTY IS, OF COURSE, LIMITED, AND THE TIME IS VERY SHORT.

The price, $425, covers all necessary expenses.

HERMAN J. BOOS,
Mass. Institute of Technology, Boston.

P. S.—If you wish to know more about myself, I am permitted to refer you to any of the following gentlemen : Dr. H. W. Tyler, Secretary of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, Mass.; Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, Director of Hemenway Gymnasium, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.; Dr. Clarence J. Blake, President of Boston Physical Education Society, 226 Marlborough Street, Boston, Mass.; Dr. E. M. Hartwell, Superintendent of Physical Training, Boston Public Schools, 5 Brimmer Street, Boston; Dr. Jay W. Seaver, Director of Gymnasium, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.; Dr. W. G. Anderson, Associate Director of Gymnasium, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.