

PROFESSOR OLIVER H. RICHARDSON.

DR. GUY V. THOMPSON.

MR. JOSEPH BOWDEN.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Conducted by JOHN JAY.

[Graduates are invited to contribute to this column.]

'72—E. D. Merriman has been appointed principal of the Berwick Academy, South Berwick, Maine.

'72S.—Dr. T. Mitchell Prudden has an article in the June number of Harper's Monthly entitled "An Elder Brother to the Cliff-Dwellers."

'73 S.—A. E. Rowland has been elected a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

'81—Isaac Thomas, Principal of the Hillhouse High School, New Haven, will read a paper on "The Conditions of the High Schools of the State," at the meeting of the State Council of Education at the Capitol in Hartford on Saturday, June 5.

'84—Doctor G. Hudson Makuen has been elected to fill the chair of "Professor of Defective Speech" at the Polyclinic Hospital and College for Graduates in Medicine. This is said to be the only professorship of the kind in the United States, and Dr. Makuen has been chosen to fill it on account of his peculiar fitness by reason of special training in voice culture, elocution, etc., and his wide experience as a throat specialist.—Public Ledger (Phila.)

'87.—Mrs. Peter Notman has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ethel Notman, to Walter Boughton Chambers, on June 9, at 4 P. M., at the Reformed Church on the Heights, Brooklyn.

'89—Israel H. Peres has an article entitled "Answer to Council Criticisms," in the May number of the American Jewess Magazine.

'90 L. S.—N. W. Bishop is assistant treasurer of the American Ordnance Company, Bridgeport, Conn.

'91—James Eugene Farmer, whose recently published "Essays on French History" have been well received in Paris, has been made a member of the Societe de l'Histoire de la Revolution Francaise, of which society the president is M. Jules Claretie, member of the French Academy.

'91—Mr. Arthur Marvin, who for the last five years has been instructor in English at the Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, Conn., has been elected Principal of the Union Classical Institute, Schenectady, N. Y. This institution includes the High School of Schenectady, and the Preparatory Department of Union University. By virtue of his position, the Principal holds an Adjunct-Professorship in Union.

'91.—Mr. R. H. Russell of New York announces for early publication, "The Knave of Hearts, Fourth of July Comedietta," by Albert Lee.

This is described as a picturesque costume play in one act, designed for Independence Day celebrations, in which the Kings, Queens and Knaves of Hearts, Spades, Diamonds and Clubs, and the Joker, take prominent parts. The costumes and accessories are easily arranged, and by introducing the minor cards of the pack as courtiers and attendants the spectacular effect may be greatly increased. It is especially adapted for out-door celebrations and summer fetes, festivals and school entertainments. There are seven full-page illustrations in color, also head and tail pieces, by Edward Penfield.

'91 S.—The following members of the class of '91S. expect to attend their sexennial celebration June 29th, 1897: Edward O. Sutton, F. M. Adler, George M. Sidenburg, H. W. Baker, J. Douglas Brown, G. M. Landers, Arthur E. Booth, F. J. Easterbrook, G. P. Starkweather, David M. Meeker, Gustave Osterweis, M. C. Isbel, Homer S. Cummings, Noyes D. Clark, M. R. Norton, A. F. Kountze, William Hayes, A. G. Beach, Arthur Stein, Robert S. Hotz, Harry H. Shepard, Brown Caldwell.

'92—O. H. Bronson is studying theology at the University of Berlin.

'93—The engagement of Charles G. Trumbull to Miss Aline M. Van Orden of New York City, has been announced.

'94—Charles A. Smith, after graduating from the Berkeley Divinity School next month, will go to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he will be installed as assistant to the Rev. George Clark Fox, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

'96—Rudolph Schwilz is now studying at Munich, Germany, and H. A. Farr, '96, is studying philology at Heidelberg.

Obituary.

DR. JOHN P. ATWATER, '34.

John Phelps Atwater, M. D., '34, died at his home in Poughkeepsie, New York, on Sunday, May 23d. Dr. Atwater was born March 4, 1813, at Carlisle, Pa. His father was Rev. Jeremiah Atwater, Yale 1793, and his mother was Clarissa, daughter of Rev. Eleazer Storrs, Yale 1762. His parents moved to New Haven, when he was two years of age, and resided there while he was in college. He studied medicine after graduation, mostly at the Yale Medical School, and received the degree of M. D. from Yale College in 1837. In that year he removed to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he engaged in the practice of his profession until 1845. Since that time Dr. Atwater has not been engaged in practice. After leaving Cincinnati in 1861, he lived a short time in Brookline, Mass., and the following year removed to New Haven, Conn., where he resided for about eight years, and then went to Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Dr. Atwater married July 27, 1845, Miss Lucy J. Phelps of West Townshend, Vt. He leaves two children, Edward Storrs Atwater, '75, and Lucy Jane Atwater.

RICHARD E. RICE, '39.

Richard E. Rice, '39, died in New Haven, Conn., at the age of eighty-two, on Sunday, May 30. Mr. Rice was born in Winthrop, Conn., in 1816, and entered Yale with the class of 1839. Upon graduating he taught for some time in Ohio, and was engaged in business in Augusta, Ga., for several years. He afterward established and conducted a private school for boys in Madison, and later in Stamford, Conn. In 1864 Mr. Rice moved to New Haven, which has been his place of residence ever since. He was married in 1848 to Miss Scranton of Madison, who died in 1893. Two children survive him, a daughter, Mrs. Sedgwick, and a son, Professor A. R. Rice, of Williams College.

Track Team Captain.

At a meeting of the University Athletic Team, following the Intercollegiate Games in New York City, Edward Carter Perkins, '98, of Hartford, Conn., was unanimously elected Captain for next year.

Mr. Perkins was born at Hartford in 1875. He prepared for college at the Hartford Public High School and graduated from it with the Class of 1894. While there he took part in athletics, running in the sprints and both hurdles. Entering Yale in the Fall of 1894 with the Class of 1898, he continued his athletics. He devoted himself entirely to the hurdles, and his success has been most marked. He is now considered the best amateur hurdler in the country. He has a firm hold on every member of the Athletic Team, and his election is very heartily endorsed by all who know him and the record of his work on the team.

In addition to his athletic success he won the Junior Appointment of Philosophical Oration.

The Art School Prizes.

The anniversary exercises of the Art School were held on Monday evening, May 31, in the south gallery of the Art School. Professor Weir delivered an address on "A Recent French Master." After the address the following prizes were awarded: The William Wirt Winchester Prize, enabling the winner to spend two years in study in Paris, to Miss Mary Foote of Guilford; the Alice Kimball English Prize, to Miss Mildred Jordan of New Haven; the Ethel Child Walker Prize, to Miss Ethel Wells Bennett of New Haven; the Anatomical Prize, to Miss Helen Elizabeth Booth of New Haven. The Committee on Awards consisted of Messrs. J. Carroll Beckwith, N. A.; Frederic Deilman, N. A., and John H. Twachtman, S. A. A., of New York.

Yale Freshmen Victorious.

The Yale Freshman baseball team defeated the Harvard Freshman nine in Cambridge Monday, May 31, by a score of 9 to 5. The features of the game were the all around playing of Sullivan, Norton and Bronson, and the batting of Russell and Ferguson. This victory leaves the championship between the two teams in doubt, as it will be impossible to arrange the third and deciding game of the series. The batting order of the Yale team was as follows: Eddy, l.f.; Norton, 2.b.; Ferguson, r.f.; Bronson, s.s.; Russell, 1.b.; Sullivan, c.; Crawford, 3.b.; Whittlesey, p.; Lyon, c.f. A number of Yale graduates who are now in the Harvard Law School came onto the field with the substitutes, and by their cheering encouraged the men greatly.

The score by innings is as follows:
Yale0 0 2 1 4 0 1 0 1—9
Harvard1 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—5
Summary—Hits, Yale 13, Harvard 9; errors, Yale 3, Harvard 6; earned runs, Yale 2, Harvard 2; two-base hits, Russell, McCormick; bases stolen, Yale 2, Harvard 2; double plays, Sullivan to Russell and Loughlin to Terrington to Lewis; bases on balls, off Whittlesey 4, off McCormick 3; hit by pitched ball, Ewer, Egbert; struck out, by McCormick 7, by Whittlesey 1; time of game, 2 hours; umpire, M. J. Murray.
