Most of the Students of Yale

are preparing to earn their own livelihood—some in professions—others in the

BUSINESS WORLD.

Many of these on leaving the University will want to know what will best promote their prospects in a business way. A young man receives the best general education at Yale, but even after graduating he may need to specialize in the vocation he intends to follow. In preparing for a business career it is of course advantageous for him to fit himself adequately for his chosen pursuit.

Many College men have found profit in taking one or more of our special courses. It is therefore not unreasonable to suppose that others would be glad to know of
