

SHEFFIELD SEMI-CENTENNIAL.

first class in the old Prescott House, under Professors Norton and Silliman, to the splendid line of buildings now in use, with a registration of 540 students with 60 professors in charge.

The following graduates then made short addresses: Charles A. Brinlev, '69, of Phila.; Dr. E. H. Jenkins, '72; Prof. Kakichi Mitsukuri, '79, of Tokio, Japan; W. W. Skiddy, '65, of Stamford, Conn.; W. R. Belknap, '69, Louisville, Ky.; J. P. Bartlett, '78, New Britain, Conn. and Prof. W. T. Sedgwick, '77, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The last speaker suggested that an Alumni Association of graduates of the school be formed. It was referred to the General Committee, to report at the next Commencement.

PRESIDENT GILMAN'S ADDRESS.

The meeting in College Street Hall was addressed by President D. C. Gilman, '52, of John Hopkins University. The entire address of President Gilman appears in another part of this paper. The audience was a very large one, many of the graduates' families being present.

RECEPTION TO THE GUESTS.

One of the pleasantest features of the celebration was the reception held in Winchester Hall for the Alumni and their friends, and which ended the ceremonies of the day. The two large assembly rooms had been cleared and prettily decorated with palms, ferns, and evergreen. Behind a screen of potted plants an orchestra played during the reception. The hours were from 4.30 to 7.30, and during that time President and Mrs. Dwight and Director and Mrs. Brush went about, informally meeting and greeting the guests. There were about 700 visitors present, a great many of whom signed the registry book. By request of Professor Brush, there was no formal presentation of the magnificent oil portrait of him recently executed by Professor John T. Weir, of the Art School, and given to the Sheffield Scientific School by the graduates.

The following local committee had charge of the visitors: W. P. Blake, '52 S.; A. B. Hill, '69 S.; H. B. Sargent, '71 S.; T. H. Russell, '72 S.; C. P. Lindsley, '75 S.; J. C. Gallagher, '79 S.; C. E. Curtis, '88 S.; W. F. Day, Jr., '92 S.; T. G. Bennett, '70 S.; E. S. Bristol, '68 S.; E. H. Jenkins, '72 S.; Burton Mansfield, '75 S.; Bruce Fenn, '77 S.; F. L. Bigelow, '81 S.; W. C. Wurtemberg, '89 S.; Henry Brewer, '94 S.

Hopson, Superintendent of the Berkshire division of the Consolidated road.

THE FALL GAMES.

The Freshman Class Shows Much Good Material.

The annual handicap Fall games of the Track Athletic Association were held at Yale Field, Saturday afternoon, October 30. The weather, except for a chilly Northeast wind, was good, and the track was in excellent condition. The games were of especial interest because many new men were entered. One very promising high jumper was developed in E. C. Waller, '99 S., who cleared the bar at 6 feet 1½ inches. The Freshman class did well, especially in the sprints, I. Richards, Jr., 1900 S., securing first place in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and A. H. Richardson, 1901, winning the half mile in very fast time. The two most interesting events of the day were the two mile bicycle race and the inter-class relay race. The latter was easily won by the Sophomores. The team was composed of C. E. Ordway, J. B. Hartwell, B. Johnson, and J. C. Dallam, '99 S. In the mile walk, of the six men entered, three started and only one finished, J. P. Adams, 1900, who covered the distance in 7 minutes, 41½ seconds. C. H. Sherrill, '89, who was expected to referee the games, was unable to be present. His place was supplied by T. R. Fisher, '98 S. The other officials were as follows: Judges, D. F. Buckingham, '98 S., D. C. Byers, '98, G. Parker, '98; measurers, R. J. Turnbull, Jr., '98, M. Mullally, '98, C. D. Cheney, '98; timers, E. D. Hendee, W. S. Johnson, '99; starter, Keene Fitzpatrick; clerk of course, I. N. Swift, '98; assistant clerks of course, A. C. Goodyear, '99, J. M. Magee, '99; announcer, J. E. Fitzpatrick; judge of walking, W. C. Dole.

The summary follows:

100 yards dash—Winner, I Richards, Jr., 1900 S. (4 yards), time, 10 seconds; second, B. Johnson, 1900 (3 yards); third, B. T. Doudge, 1900 (2 yards).
