

A BETTER DEFENSE.

interference, he ran brilliantly for seventy yards, until driven out at Chicago's twenty yard line. In a series of strong rushes directed against Chicago's center McBride carried the ball over the line for Yale's third touchdown, the last one of the game. Cadwalader's third attempt at goal was unsuccessful. Score, Yale, 16—Chicago, 6. The ball was in Yale's possession on Chicago's forty yard line at the call of time.

During the second half, Yale made little attempt to increase her score, but played a kicking game, and the backs were given an opportunity for practice in defensive work. The only notable feature of the half was a remarkable run of thirty yards by Draper unassisted, through almost the entire Yale team. At the close of the game, the ball was on Chicago's twenty-five yard line.

The team lined up as follows:

Departure of Team.

The football squad, with the coaches, will leave New Haven on Friday at 1:45 P. M., and will arrive in Boston at 5:40 that evening. A special car has been attached to the train for their use. The men will start from the New Haven House, where the college will meet to cheer them off. Arriving in Boston, they will be immediately driven to the Vendome, where accommodations have been engaged for them. They will return on Sunday.

A special train is to be run for the benefit of the students. It will leave at 8 A. M. Saturday morning and will return at 9 P. M. that evening from Boston. A reduction has been made in the regular price of the round trip ticket for this special train to $5. The ticket is good on the Federal express leaving Boston at 7 P. M. Saturday.

Several members of the College have got together enough men from their respective classes to take special cars to the game. These are: G. G. Schreiber, '98, whose car will be attached to the train leaving New Haven at 7:50 Saturday morning, and which will return immediately after the game; V. S. Linsley, '98, whose car will be attached to the train leaving New Haven at 2:47 Friday afternoon returning at 12 o'clock Saturday night; C. H. Conner, Jr., '99, whose car will be attached to the train leaving New Haven at 7:50 Saturday morning and returning in the afternoon; P. A. Rockefeller, 1900, whose car will be attached to the 2:47 train Friday afternoon and will return at 12 o'clock Saturday night; W. R. Hitt, 1901, whose car will leave at 2 A. M. Saturday and return at 12 midnight Saturday. About 600 undergraduates will go to Cambridge to see the game.

Of the 16,575 seats already allotted for the game, 2,400 have gone to Yale men.

Yale-Princeton Freshman.

The Yale-Princeton Freshman game will be played on Saturday afternoon, November 13th, at Yale Field, at 2.30. The original date for the game was November 10th, but the inability of the Princeton team to play on that day necessitated a change of date.

Season's Work Poor.

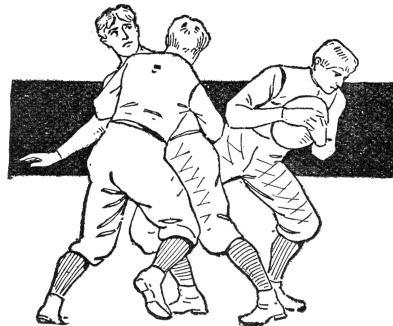

The exceptionally large number of Freshmen taken to the University eleven squad has greatly diminished the strength of the Freshman team this year. The remaining material, too, is not especially good, and the want of heavy men is felt.

No full-back has been developed who has shown much ability in kicking, and here is one of the weak points of the team. The end interference is the best feature of the play. The line is not strong and the backs are only fair. One of the greatest faults of the team is the tendency towards off-side play and holding, which is probably due to lack of experience. The ends are the strongest positions of the line. The play, on the whole, shows considerable snap.

ville on Saturday, Nov 6. The first was a twenty minute half but neither side scored, although Hotchkiss out-punted their opponents. All the scoring was done in the second half. Davis scored a touchdown for Hotchkiss from which Goff kicked a goal with only three minutes more to play, Wear immediately after this made a touchdown for the Freshmen but Dupee failed to kick the goal, leaving the score 6-4.

Demming, Miller, Goff and Shaw played the best for Hotchkiss, while for Yale the work of Coy at end and Wear at half was satisfactory. The Freshmen played poorly on the defensive and did not seem to be able to break up the formation plays of Hotchkiss.

So many men have been taken to the University squad that the team is left short of able-bodied men.

Ellis Ward has been re-engaged as coach of the U. of P. crew and this action meets with the hearty approval of all those interested in rowing at Pennsylvania.
