

"Calm, Complete, Colossal Contempt."

A bright member of the Yale English Faculty, in describing the attitude of his President toward . . . slander, in this language justified an occasional resort to alliteration. One of the two . . . million seven hundred thousand Americans whose lives we insure, once wrote to us of that . . . "profitable property and priceless protection, a paid-up policy in the powerful, provident, . . . painstaking, progressive, peerless Prudential."

This prodigal appropriation of the Queen's best adjectives would not be worth reproduction if . . . each did not express a practical consideration of great importance to anyone considering . . . the subject of insurance. We would like to develop each one for you.

WINTER HANDICAP GAMES.

A Successful Meet Where Yale Men Made Good Showing.

The annual winter handicap games of the Yale Athletic Association, in conjunction with the Connecticut National Guard, were held at the Second Regiment Armory last Saturday evening and were a decided success, both in point of competition and in attendance. There were fewer outside entries than in former years and this may account for the large number of places secured by Yale men, namely four firsts and four seconds. The University of Pennsylvania took one first and one second place. In the races no particularly fast time was made, but in the pole vault the scratch man, R. G. Clapp, '99 S., won with a vault of 10 feet 10½ inches, and in the high jump E. C. Waller, '99 S., had no difficulty in clearing 6 feet. The event of the evening, however, was the relay race between teams representing the Academic and Scientific Departments. The first two runners gained no advantage for their sides, but in the second and third relays the Academic men gained about five yards. The fourth relay between C. E. Ordway, 1900, and I. Richards, Jr., 1900 S., was most exciting, Richards at first gaining a little of the lost ground for his team, but Ordway finally finishing about five yards ahead. The shot putting contest was postponed until a later date.

Following is a summary of the events:

50-yard dash—20 starters. Won by F. G. Hall, Jr., '99 S., 7 feet; second, F. A. Blount, 1900, 8 feet; third, J. J. Peter, 1900 S., 3 feet. Time, 5½ seconds.

Half-mile run—20 starters. Won by L. W. Sullivan, C. N. G., 25 yards; second, C. R. Swift, Jr., '99, 45 yards; third, J. P. Adams, 1900, 40 yards. Time, 2 minutes 5¾ seconds.

One-mile walk—6 starters. Won by Ray Morris, 1901, 50 seconds; second, Louis Liebgold, N. J. A. C., 5 seconds; third, J. N. M. Wylie, 1901, 50 seconds. Actual time, 6 minutes, 44½ seconds.

Special closed 440 dash for Yale men. Won by J. M. Fiske, Jr., '99 S., 20 yards; second, G. S. Oliver, '99, 8 yards. Time, 56½ seconds.

50-yard hurdle race—16 starters. Won by J. J. Peter, 1900 S., 3 feet; second, W. P. Remington, U. of P., 8 feet; third, J. P. Curtis, B. A. A., 4 feet. Time, 6¾ seconds.

One-mile run—32 starters. Won by E. R. Earnshaw, U. of P., 65 yards; second, L. W. Sullivan, C. N. G., 10 yards; third, J. W. Falls, 1900 S., 70 yards. Time 4 minutes, 44½ seconds.

Pole vault—5 entries. Won by R. G. Clapp, '99 S., scratch; second, J. H. Hord, 1901, 10 inches; third, W. E. Selin, '98, 1½ inches. Height, 10 feet, 10½ inches.

Relay race between Academic and Scientific Departments won by the Academic team. Time, 3 minutes 6 seconds. Academic team in order of running: D. C. Byers, '98; A. H. Richardson, 1901; Bascom Johnson, 1900, and C. E. Ordway, 1900. Scientific team—F. H. Warren, Jr., '99 S.; H. L. Davis, '99 S.; W. D. Brennan, 1900 S., and Ira Richards, Jr., 1900 S.

Relay race between Hartford High School and Hillhouse High School, won by Hartford in 3 minutes, 19¾ seconds.

Relay race between Battery A., Boston, and St. Patrick's Y. M. T. A. & B., won by Battery A., in 3 minutes, 8¾ seconds.

Team race for Connecticut National Guard championship, between the Governor's Horse Guards, the Blues and the Grays, won by the Horse Guards.

Baseball at Princeton.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF YALE ALUMNI WEEKLY.]

Princeton, N. J., March 16.—In baseball Princeton is likely this season to have a good fielding team, with only a fair general average of batting ability. Of last year's nine, Kafer, Kelly, Butler, Hillebrand, Barrett and Easton are still in College. Kafer will of course do the catching, though Freshman Robbins has appeared excellently in this position. Kelly will again play first base, and Easton will play in the field, unless his arm recovers sufficiently to enable him to do some pitching. The other positions, however, await developments. Captain Butler will either play his old position of shortstop or go to the outfield, while Barrett is being pushed very hard at third base by Angle, 1900, who was pitcher on last year's Freshman nine.

Hillebrand has shown considerable improvement in the box under the tuition of Jayne, and it is expected that he will be able to do some pitching, though Princeton is well nigh certain to lack capable substitute pitchers.

Shortstop, second base and at least one outfield position will have to be filled by new men.

In the matter of batting Princeton will have to depend almost exclusively upon Kafer, Kelly, Easton and Butler.
