

ALUMNI NOTES.

Graduates are invited to contribute to this column.

'33—Edward S. Moseley of Newburyport, Mass., was chosen a Vice-President of the Massachusetts Bible Society, at its annual meeting, held at Boston, March 21st.

'40—Lucius W. Fitch, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is slowly recovering.

'52 S.—Prof. Brush recently passed through Los Angeles on his way North to visit his daughter, Mrs. E. L. Parsons, living at Menlo Park. He was accompanied by Mrs. Brush, Mrs. McLaughlin, and Miss Brush.

'53—Hon. Henry C. Robinson's address on "Jonathan Trumbull," delivered before the advance scholars of the public schools of Hartford, Conn., December 3, has recently been published in pamphlet form.

'58—D. Appleton & Company announce the publication of "Psychological Foundation of Education," by W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education.

'58—Rev. Frederick A. Noble will deliver an address on "The Part of Congregationalism in the Making of the Nation" before the National Council of the Congregational Church to be held in Portland, Ore.

'63—Leander T. Chamberlain recently spoke before the Patria Club of New Haven on "The Nature and Functions of Government."

'63—G. W. S. Osborn has become Secretary of the Seward Gold Mining Company, recently incorporated to conduct mining operations in the Yukon District.

'65—On March 25th, the South Congregational Church of New Britain, Conn., celebrated the 20th anniversary of the installation of Rev. James W. Cooper, D.D., as pastor of that church.

'69—At the annual meeting of the Congregational Club, at Hartford, March 22d, Charles E. Gross, of that city was elected President of the Club for the ensuing year.

'70 and '73 T. S.—Rev. and Mrs. John S. Chandler arrived at Madura, Southern India, on January 7th, where they are now engaged in missionary work.

'70 S.—An improved magazine fire arm has recently been invented by T. G. Bennett, President of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, and assigned to that concern.

'71—Hon. William K. Townsend and wife have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for a few weeks sojourn.

'73—At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Hartford High School held March 21, Atwood Collins was unanimously re-elected Treasurer.

'75—Captain Guy Howard, U. S. A., who has been on duty at Fort Ethan Allen, has received orders from the War Department directing him to report hereafter at his new station in Atlanta, Ga.

'76—C. L. Bartlett is in Bermuda with his wife for a six weeks sojourn.

'78—A short play, entitled "The Baron's Victim," by Tudor S. Jenks appears in Harper's Magazine for March.

'78—Edward B. Whitney will have the leading article in the Yale Law Journal, next month, entitled "Provisions of the Anti-Trust Law Regarding Pools and the Joint Traffic Contracts."

'79 S.—Professor Herbert E. Smith has written an appendix to "Outlines of Rural Hygiene," (Phila.; F. A. Davis Company), on "The Normal Distribution of Chlorine."

'79—Colonel L. F. Burpee, with his Staff and the Second Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, will take a trip to Ottawa, Canada, next May, where they will be the guests of United States Consul-General Turner.

'80—Frederick S. Morrison was unanimously re-elected Secretary of the Alumni Association of the Hartford High School at the meeting held March 21st.

'80 S.—The following card which has recently been received by friends in New Haven is self-explanatory. "The President having appointed me Consul of the United States of America at Freiburg, Baden, Germany, I have the honor to inform you that I have this day assumed the duties of my office. (Signed) E. Theophilus Liefeld, United States Consul.

'91—James Eugene Farmer is the author of a historical novel entitled "The Grenadier—A Story of the Empire." The scenes are laid in France, Spain and Austria, in the time of Napoleon I. The book will be published in the Fall by Dodd, Mead and Co., New York.

'82—Archibald A. Welch was unanimously re-elected Vice-President of the Alumni Association of the Hartford High School at the meeting held March 21st.

'83—At the recent annual meeting, Laurent Clerc Deming was elected a director of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fé Railway.

'83—Horace D. Taft recently delivered the first lecture in the Phi Beta Kappa series before the University, on "The Main Object of Civil Service Reform."

'83—I. B. Newton has returned from his voyage to Australia. He was obliged to return by way of China, as all the vessels leaving Australia were chartered for the Klondike. Mrs. Newton was much improved in health by the trip.

'86—Robert L. Redfield has recently been admitted to the New York Bar Association.

'86—Harvey B. Bashore, Inspector for the State Board of Health of Pennsylvania, has just written a volume entitled "Outlines of Rural Hygiene," published by the F. A. Davis Company, Philadelphia.

'86 and '93 L. S.—Rollin U. Tyler, who has been practising law at Deep River, Conn., has lately entered partnership with W. F. Wilcox and is now practising at Middletown, Conn., firm name of Wilcox & Tyler.

'87 S.—George H. Wood is now practising law in Dayton, Ohio, his office being 38 Callahan Building.

'87—Andrew F. Gates has announced his intention of returning from the Hartford School Board at the close of the present term. Herbert S. Bullard, '87 S. will be presented as a candidate for the vacancy.

'87—William Kent is at the head of a committee to raise $15,000 to use in the Spring elections in Chicago, to help elect honest aldermen. Ten thousand dollars has already been raised and the prospects for the balance are good.

'87—W. S. Thacher is on the Committee for the Ojai Valley Tennis Tournament for April 15th and 16th. It is an invitation round-robin tournament between the four best players of Northern California and the four best players of Southern California.

'89—A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Mason.

'89—C. H. Sherrill has formed a partnership with Benoni Lockwood, Jr. for practice of the law under the name of Sherrill & Lockwood at 30 Broad st., New York City.

'89—Mrs. Josephine Frost Underhill, wife of John Underhill, died at their home at Warsaw, New York, Sunday, March 20. She was ill only two days, having suffered an attack of acute tetanus on the previous Friday. The burial was at Bath, Me. Mrs. Underhill leaves a daughter.

'90 S.—Nelson L. Deming has recently opened an office at Fort Wayne, Ind., for the practice of medicine.

'90 S.—Rev. Harvey M. Lawson delivered an address on "The Conflict of Hinduism and Christianity in India" before the Missionary Society of Yale on March 21.

'90—Walter J. Connor read a paper before the New Haven Colony Historical Society on Thursday evening, March 24, entitled "The Irish in New Haven."

'90 S.—O. S. Lyford, who has lately been with the General Electric Company in Chicago, is now with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company at Pittsburg, Penn.

'93—W. B. Boardman has written the "Religious Article" for this year's Yale Shingle.

'93—S. C. Hutchinson is travelling in the New England States for the American Oil Company.

'93—J. S. Cravens, at one time tennis champion of Yale and also ex-champion of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa, is one of the Southern California champions to compete in the Ojai Valley Tournament of April 15 and 16.

'93—The Class Secretary desires the addresses of Charles W. Mills, H. P. Butz, and George J. Briggs; communicate with Noah H. Swayne, 2d, 120 Broadway, New York City.

'93—The Class Secretary of Ninety-Three furnishes the following items: C. L. Avery, Jr., is practising law at 18 Wall st., New York City.

J. W. Avery is teaching at St. John's Military Academy at Sing Sing, N. Y.

H. L. Bixby is spending the Winter in Arizona, for his health.

C. D. Bliss is with the Standard Oil Co. at Wichita, Kansas.

Thomas H. Breeze is practising law at Stockton, California.

N. Candee is in the office of Thompson, Delamater & Clark, lawyers, 184 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill.

J. B. Dill is with the Allport Coal Company, at Hastings, Cambria Co. Penn.

H. R. Dwight has resigned his position as Secretary of the Merchants Safe Deposit Co. to become Assistant Treasurer of the Wool Exchange, New York City.

C. B. Eddy is in the law office of S. P. and J. McL. Nash, 63 Wall st., New York City.

J. P. Edmisson is practising law at 63 College avenue, St. Paul, Minn.

George M. Foos is with the Foos Gas Engine Co., Springfield, Ohio.

J. C. Fox is a member of the firm of Fox & Becker, dealers in granite and marble, at 208 Liberty st., Middletown, Conn.

Jesse B. Johnson is studying mathematics at the University of Chicago.

R. H. Jordan is instructor in mathematics at the High School, St. Joseph, Mo.

Dr. I. P. Lyon has been appointed to the Staff of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

Walter R. Marvin is in the Boston office of the U. S. Baking Co. at 465 Medford st., Charlestown, Boston, Mass.

F. A. Moore is President of the Merchants' Truck Co., Detroit, Mich.

Albert H. Morse is Superintendent of Public Schools at Webster, Mass.

Dr. W. H. Murphy has accepted the position of coach to the University of Pennsylvania Baseball nine; his address is 3801 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Penn.

A. H. Putney has been compelled by ill health to give up his lay practice in Boston and has settled in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

George H. Rice is practising law at 1638 Anderson ave., Scranton, Pa.

Dr. Joseph Roby has been appointed to the Staff of the Nursery and Childs' Hospital, New York City.

W. C. Scott has been appointed Treasurer of the Highland Mutual Fire Ins Co. of Newburgh, N. Y.

T. C. Trask is instructor in Greek in Newburgh Academy, Newburgh, N. Y.

John D. Warnock is teaching at the Cheshire Academy, Cheshire, Conn.

'94—The engagement is announced of Henry L. Eno to Miss LaBuisse of New Orleans, La.

'94—The marriage of George B. Case and Miss Mary Clarke, daughter of Mr. Dumont Clarke, President of the American Exchange Bank of New York, took place March 11, at the Church of the Incarnation. Rev. Thomas F. Davies, Jr., '94, performed the ceremony. Edwin O. Holter, '94, acted as groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Case sailed for Europe March 12, on the Lucania and will be gone about six months. On their return Mr. Chase will resume the practice of law in the office of Swayne & Swayne, in New York.

'95—W. F. Carter coached the baseball candidates last Saturday.

'95—A son was born on March 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Burton J. Hendrick.

'95—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Schermerhorn on Jan. 3d, 1898.

'95—Elmore F. Elmore's business address will be until June, 61 West 51st street, New York City.

'95—Benjamin Davis is practising law in the office of his father in the New York Life Building, Chicago.

'95—Henry F. Loomis is Assistant Claim Agent of the North Chicago Electric Railways with an office at 444 North Clark st., Chicago.

'95 T. S.—Rev. Jenichiro Oyabe, of Tokio, Japan, will lecture in the Plymouth Church, New Haven, on April 6, on "Picturesque Japan and the Late War with China."

'96—Edwin Oviatt will be married to Miss Francis S. Thompson of New Haven on April 22.

'96—The engagement is announced of Miss Katherine Hamilton of Louisville, Ky., to E. G. Stalter.

ex-'97 S.—Charles Worrall is studying electrical engineering at Cornell.

'97—Murray S. Howland will sail for Europe on May 14th. He intends to spend the Summer in Germany, and will study theology next year in Edinburgh.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to use this column.]

Seventy-Three Reunion.

Some arrangements have already been made for the the 1873 Class Reunion. A room in the Young Men's Republican Club of this city has been engaged for the Class supper.

Andover Alumni Reunion.

The New York alumni and students of Phillips Andover Academy will hold their fourth biennial reunion under the auspices of the New York Association. The reunion will be held at the Windsor Hotel, on the evening of April 5th, at 8.30 o'clock.

All Andover men are invited to attend. The meeting will be informal. All men who desire to be present are requested to send their names to Mr. Henry M. Love, Secretary, 279 Stewart Building, New York City.

Supplement to '52 Record.

The Secretary of the Class of Fifty-Two will publish shortly a supplement to the Class Record which will contain belated reports and portraits of members and non-graduates, Society Lists, 1848-1852, with cuts of the badges and Chapter Hours; the Burial of Euclid by the Class of Fifty-Two; Honor Lists; Junior and Senior Appointments; Prizes; Commencement Programs, 1852; Junior Exhibitions do.; Wooden Spoon do.; Burlesque Commencement do.; Extracts from the Yale Banner, "Toma-hawk," and "Battery"; History of Notable incidents of Freshman and Sophomore years; songs of Fifty-Two, etc.

Only a limited edition will be printed. Those who wish copies for "Memorabilia" will please address Rev. A. N. Lewis, Secretary Class of Fifty-Two, Montpelier, Vermont.

THEODORE B. STARR

JEWELER AND SILVERSMITH,
206 FIFTH AVE.,
MADISON SQUARE,
NEW YORK,

asks attention to the very useful College Pitchers and Mugs which he offers—for Yale, Harvard, Princeton (the new seal), University of Pennsylvania, Amherst, Williams, Columbia. They are of earthenware, of the College color, and bear on the front the College seal, executed in solid Silver.

MADISON SQUARE.

OF HAMILTON PLACE BOSTON.

COOPER & COMPANY,
TAILORS and . . . . .
. . . . . BREECHES MAKERS

Twenty-nine 34th Street, W.
NEW YORK.

Telephone, 1405-38th St.