To CLASS SUPPER COMMITTEES.

In looking for a place for roomy quarters, for a well served, well prepared banquet, you will not make a mistake in inquiring of MOSELEY'S NEW HAVEN HOUSE. We have been paying rather particular attention of late to spreads, and the experience of those who have attended banquets at the hotel has been very pleasant.

The rooms are so spacious and the ceilings so high that the smoke does not bother even very sensitive eyes and the air remains wholesome. One feels a lot better the next day.

The house has been very much improved of late and it is indeed a comfortable place now. If you want to spend a few days of spring in a beautiful New England and University town, you will enjoy life at

PERFECT PASSENGER SHIPS—CHESAPEAKE LINE.

The traveler going South, who desires a short trip by water, seeking comfort, safety and pleasure, cannot select a more delightful trip than via Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay, touching at Old Point Comfort and Norfolk, thence South via the Southern Railway, the great highway of travel between North and South, East and West. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Baltimore every week-day at 6.30 P. M. for Norfolk, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships were especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as taste can suggest. The Atlanta, the Queen of the Bay, there has no vessel of her class ever been built to equal in magnificence. The cabinet work, upholstery and tapestries give a perfect combination of comfort and luxury. The cuisine is perfect, and the tables are supplied with the best the market affords.

For full particulars regarding Chesapeake Line, call or address Alex. S. Thweatt, Eastern Passenger Agent, 271 Broadway, New York.
