

SPECIAL NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to use this column.]

Sixty-Three Reunion.

The members of the Class of Sixty-Three, Yale College, will meet this year, it being the thirty-fifth since graduation. There will be the usual meeting for business in one of the lecture or recitation rooms about noon on Tuesday, June 28th. The place and hour will be definitely announced on posters. The Class Supper will take place on the evening of the same day at the house of the Ansantawae Club, Savin Rock. The electric cars from New Haven pass near the Club House. Members of the Class are requested to inform the Class Secretary, Samuel Huntington, 146 Broadway, New York City, on or before June 20th whether they mean to be present.

As the Secretary will be expected to make a report to the Class, to consist of such information as may be furnished him by absent members, all who will be unable to be present are requested to write him, telling what has happened to, or been done by them and their families, with as full an account as may be thought proper of their present surroundings and circumstances, and other matters of especial interest to them. The Secretary will be glad to receive any material that may be of use for a future Class History, although it will probably not be printed for some time yet.

Sixty-Eight's Reunion.

The Class of Sixty-Eight will hold its reunion this year, and, judging by the letters already received, the Committee expects that there will be a large attendance. The Class Banquet will be held at the house of the New Haven Lawn Club on Whitney avenue, and "The Woodbridge," 159 Elm street, has been engaged for the exclusive use of the Class during Commencement week.

Obituary.

LEONARD ABRAM BRADLEY, '55.

Leonard A. Bradley, '55, of New York City, died very suddenly on Monday, while visiting his brother, Dr. William L. Bradley, at his home, No. 226 Church street, New Haven. He had come to New Haven on Saturday, and up to the time of his death was in as good health as usual. On Monday morning he was suddenly attacked with heart disease, and death followed almost instantly. He leaves a brother, Dr. W. L. Bradley, '60, and three sisters, all of whom reside in New Haven.

Mr. Bradley was born in New Haven, Pa., on March 14, 1833. He entered Yale in 1851, and graduated with the Class of Fifty-Five. After graduation he took a course in the Yale Law School, finishing his studies in the office of Charles E. Strong, of New York City. He was admitted to the New York bar in May, 1858, and was for some time in partnership with Charles E. Strong, before engaging in practice alone. He continued in the practice of law up to the time of his death. Mr. Bradley was a member of the Presbyterian Church, presided over by Rev. Dr. John Hall. He was intensely interested in the Young Men's Christian Association, and particularly in the Yale Y. M. C. A.. He was also closely associated with the branch at 23d street, New York City. He had taken an active part in the development of soldiers' libraries, and had been instrumental in placing books in various army posts throughout the country. For many years he was Assistant Secretary of his class, doing a large part of the work connected with that office.

The Late Mr. Brisbin.

A classmate of John Ball Brisbin, Forty-Six, who died at St. Paul on March 22, and whose obituary notice has been in the WEEKLY, writes in an obituary sketch just received that Mr. Brisbin, on retiring from the practice of law about ten years ago, presented his library to the Ramsey County Bar Association, which he had assisted in founding. The sketch contains a tribute to Mr. Brisbin's attractive personal qualities and his genius for friendship.

This is the new home of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Hartford. Its architects were Cady, Berg & See, the men who have built so many of the most conspicuous structures of New Yale.

Athletic Calendar.

- April 23.— Invitation games, at Yale Field.
- April 23.—University of Pennsylvania relay races at Philadelphia.
- April 30.—Annual Spring games, open to Yale men, at Yale Field.
- April 30.—Yale Interscholastic Tennis Tournament, at New Haven.
- May 14.—Dual Yale-Harvard track games, at Cambridge.
- May 21.—Yale Freshman-Princeton Freshman baseball at New Haven.
- May 24.—New England Championship Tennis Tournament, at New Haven.
- May 27 and 28.— Intercollegiate games, New York.
- June 4.—Yale-Princeton baseball at New Haven.
- June 4.—Yale Freshman-Princeton Freshman baseball at Princeton.
- June 11.—Yale-Princeton baseball at Princeton.
- May 14.—Yale Freshman-Harvard Freshman baseball at New Haven.
- June 18.—Yale-Princeton baseball at New York, if necessary in case of a tie.
- June 23.—Yale-Harvard baseball at Cambridge.
- June 28.—Yale-Harvard baseball at New Haven.
- May 30.—Yale Freshman-Harvard Freshman baseball at Cambridge.
- July 2.—Yale-Harvard baseball at New York, if necessary in case of a tie.
- August 16.—National Interscholastic Tennis Tournament at Newport.

"A young Yale scientist while digging in a hole for a skunk, found a five dollar gold piece."
 "That's Yale luck. Anyone else would have found the skunk."—Harvard Lampoon.

It's a good lamp.
 That's why so many are in use.

For Sale by all dealers. Send for Booklet G.
 BRIDGEPORT BRASS COMPANY,
 Bridgeport, Conn.

"No, boys; I have not been burning the midnight oil to get all that material for my address. I have not spent hundreds for books of reference. I could not have got these up to date facts and figures in that way.

"I simply send to Romeike for Press Clippings.

"Day by day he sent me editorials and original articles collected from thousands of newspapers and periodicals which are read in his offices, and I only had to arrange the material."

ROMEIKE'S Press Cutting Bureau

will send you all newspaper clippings which may appear about you, your friends, or any subject on which you want to be "up to date."

A large force in my New York office reads 650 daily papers and over 2,000 weeklies and magazines; in fact, every paper of importance published in the United States, for 5,000 subscribers, and through the European Bureaus, all the leading papers in the civilized globe.

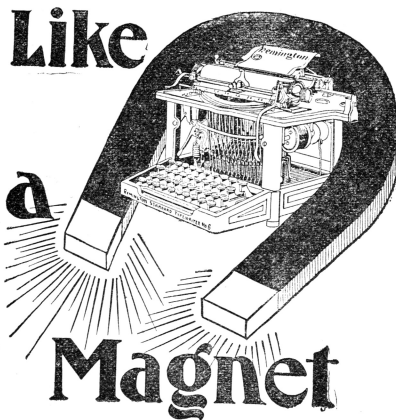

Clippings found for subscribers are pasted on slips giving name and date of paper, and are mailed day by day.

Write for circulars and terms.

HENRY ROMEIKE,

139 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

Branches: London, Paris, Berlin, Sidney.

Like a Magnet
 The Remington
 Standard Typewriter's
 New Models

draw old friends closer and attract new ones, by the power of inherent merit and unflinching service.

Columbia
 Bevel-Gear
Chainless Bicycles
$125
 to all alike.

The NEWEST bicycle with the OLDEST name

Columbia Chain Wheels, $75
 Hartford Bicycles, - 50
 Vedette Bicycles, $40 and 35

Machines and Prices
 Guaranteed.

POPE MFG. CO.
 HARTFORD, CONN.

CATALOGUE free from any COLUMBIA dealer, or by mail for one cent stamp