

ALUMNI NOTES.

Graduates are invited to contribute to this column.

'41—Rev. B. G. Northrop, D.D., LL.D., is seriously ill at his home in Clinton, Conn.

'49—Hon. Francis M. Finch, LL.D., contributed an article to the special Cornell supplement of the Troy Daily Times of April 2.

'50—Hon. Ellis H. Roberts, Treasurer of the United States, responded to the toast, "The National Treasury in War Times," at Chamber of Commerce banquet in Utica, N. Y., Monday, April 18.

'52—President Daniel C. Gilman, of Johns Hopkins, has been appointed a member of the State Committee on Good Roads for Maryland.

'54—Rev. Alexander S. Twombly, D.D., has edited the following books which have just appeared in the "Silver Series of English Classics," issued by Silver, Burdett and Co. of Boston: "Southey's Life of Nelson," "Coleridge's Rime of the Ancient Mariner," "Webster's First Bunker Hill Oration," "Macaulay's Essay on Addison."

'55—The retirement from active service on April 10, of Lieut.-Col. David L. Huntington, Deputy Surgeon-General, by operation of law, is announced.

'57—President Augustus H. Strong, D.D., of Rochester Theological Seminary, will be one of the speakers at the World's Student Conference, at Northfield, Mass., July 1-10.

'58—Rev. Sanford H. Cobb is the author of "The Story of the Palatines," published by G. P. Putnam's Sons.

'58—Professor Daniel G. Brinton contributes "Current Notes on Anthropology" to the issue of Science for April 15.

'59—W. K. Hall, D.D., of the First Presbyterian Church, of Newburgh, N. Y., recently celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate.

'61—Prof. Lorenzo Sears of Brown University has about completed a new book to be entitled "Methods and Principles of Literary Criticism." It will be brought out by G. P. Putnam's Sons.

'63—Dr. Lewis A. Stimson was appointed, April 21, Professor of Surgery in the new Cornell Medical School in New York City.

'67—Professor Charles S. Walker has an article entitled "The Problem of the Currency" in the April number of the Bibliotheca Sacra.

'67—W. H. Morse of Washington, D. C., Class Secretary, was the guest of his classmate, Isaac J. Wild of this city, on Saturday and Sunday.

'68—Rev. R. A. Hume, D.D., of Ahmednagar, India, has an article in a recent number of Progress on "Vaisnarism."

'73—Hon. Samuel O. Prentice, of Hartford, began a course of lectures at the Yale Law School on Thursday, April 14.

'77 S.—Professor J. P. Iddings was elected a corresponding member of the New York Academy of Science at the recent annual meeting.

'77 S.—Dr. W. Gilman Thompson has received an appointment as Professor of Medicine in the Cornell University Medical College just established in New York City.

'78—Charles M. Stone of Binghamton, N. Y., has been elected Secretary and General Manager of the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co.

'79—Rev. William C. Merritt of Snohomish, Wash., has received a call to the Congregational Church of Fresno, California.

'81—George Woolsey has been recently appointed Professor of Anatomy and Clinical Surgery at the Cornell Medical College in New York City.

'81—Clarence F. Carroll, Superintendent of Schools at Worcester, Mass., is the author of an article entitled "Physical Conditions in Education," in the April number of Education.

'82—C. W. Lyman has located permanently in New York City in connection with the International Paper Company at 30 Broad street.

'82—James Q. Rice, who has been for a number of years Chief Examiner of the United States Patent Office, has resigned that position, and become a member of the firm of Phillips, Phelps & Sawyer, patent solicitors, 220 Broadway, New York.

'84—Among the yachts recently authorized to be purchased by the United States Government for the auxiliary navy was the "Ituna," owned by Allison V. Armour.

'85—John McHenry is a member of Troop A, Maryland National Guard.

'85—Mrs. W. G. Green, formerly Miss Mary A. Blinn of New Milford, died April 7th, after a long and painful illness.

'86 S.—Henry Rustin is the Superintendent of Light and Power of the Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition located at Omaha, June 1st to Nov. 1st, 1898.

'88 S.—William T. Bull will coach the football candidates this Spring at Yale.

'88—Bernard C. Steiner has been chosen Secretary of the Maryland Travelling Library Commission.

'90—Henry S. Mathewson, surgeon U. S. A., is in the Marine Hospital Service.

'90—Max Baird has opened a suit of law offices at 18 Borden Block, 99 Randolph st., Chicago, Ill.

'90—C. P. Kellogg, Secretary of the Connecticut State Board of Charities, made an inspection of the State Prison at Hartford on April 12.

'90—Lieut. Edward L. Munson, surgeon, U. S. A., has been detached from Fort Adams, Newport, and ordered to Chickamauga Park, Tenn.

'90—The marriage of Miss Mabel Goodrich, daughter of Senator Elizur S. Goodrich, to George H. Gilman, took place in Hartford, Wednesday evening, April 20, at the home of the bride's parents. Henry S. Robinson, '89; Dr. J. B. Hall, '92 M. S., and Arthur P. Day, '90, acted as ushers.

'90 S.—The Class Secretary of Ninety-Sheff. furnishes the following notes: Harvey M. Lawson has returned from India, where he has been engaged in missionary and educational work, and is now taking a post graduate course in the University.

Lawrence Heyworth is Superintendent of the George H. Fuller Construction Company of Chicago.

J. C. Machale is Chief Accountant of the Carter Oil Company of Titusville, Pa.

Ralph R. Clapp is Superintendent of the Standard Ammonia Company, London, England.

'91—Harry Hallam Tweedy has returned from Berlin, where he has been studying theology for the past two years.

'93 S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Van Everen of Brooklyn, N. Y., to Bradley Stoughton.

'93 S.—Lester W. Day has just graduated from the Baltimore Medical School and taken the Moseley Obstetrical Prize.

'94—Charles I. DeBevoise has been elected Lieutenant of Troop C of Brooklyn, and will probably be ordered out with the troop in a few days.

'94—Dr. Robert H. Nichols, instructor in English at the Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., will begin the study of theology at Auburn Seminary in October.

'95—J. B. Hone and Allen Wardwell have enlisted in Battery A, Light Artillery, of the Massachusetts State Militia, located at present in Boston.

'95—B. I. Spock has been appointed Secretary of the Civil Service Board temporarily, to take the place of Philip Goodhart, absent on account of sickness.

'95 S.—A member of Ninety-Five Sheff. furnishes the following items: Sidney C. Borg is in the office of Simon Borg & Co., bankers and brokers, 20 Nassau st., New York City. Roscoe E. Bronson is with the Ansonia Brass and Copper Company, Ansonia, Conn. Luther M. Case is a packer and dealer in Connecticut leaf tobacco, West Winsted, Conn. Harry T. Clifton is with the New York Telephone Co., 15 Day st., New York City. Harry V. Day is with Day & Heaton, bankers, 6 Wall st., New York City. Philip Dewell is an instructor in the Department of Science, Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa. L. N. DeGolyer is in the office of Edward L. Brewster & Co., bankers and brokers, 209 LaSalle st. Chicago. Geo. S. Frank is with Frank & DuBois, fire, marine and railroad insurance, 47 William st., New York City. Henry S. Hitchcock is in the plumbing and hardware business at Woodbury, Conn. Louis D. Hopkins is in the office of Brown Bros. & Co., 59 and 61 Wall st., New York City.

Norman Leeds is with the Western Electric Company, New York City.

Geo. W. Mixer is with Deere & Company, manufacturers of plows, Moline, Ill.

Geo. N. Morgan is with the Carnegie Steel Co., Ltd., at Munhall, Pa.

H. C. Reed is with the Stamford Mfg. Co., Stamford, Conn., manufacturers of dyewood extracts and licorice paste.

Louis C. Richards is in the engineering department of the Boston & Maine R. R., Boston, Mass.

The present address of Louis Saxon is 411 Smith st., Schenectady, N. Y.

Geo. H. Seward is with J. B. Colt & Co., 115-117 Nassau st., New York, manufacturers of apparatus for the production and projection of light.

Geo. W. Shaw is Treasurer of the Shaw & Sassaman Co., Toledo, Ohio, manufacturers and jobbers in furnishing goods.

Philip T. Stillman is with Otis Bros. & Co., 36 and 38 Park Row, New York City, manufacturers of elevators and hoisting machinery.

R. H. Thayer, Jr., traveling for the Standard Radiator Co. of Buffalo, New York.

W. A. Whitcomb is with the Glens Falls Paper Mill Company, Glens Falls, N. Y.

'96—Clarence S. Day, Jr., was one of the detail of the New York Naval Battalion recently sent to Philadelphia, to man the U. S. Monitor "Nahant," and bring the vessel to New York Harbor.

'97 L. S.—C. F. Peterson is District Judge in Honolulu, H. I.

'97—E. H. Hume has been appointed Assistant in Physiological Chemistry at Johns Hopkins University.

'97—The April number of the Forum contains "The Kalevala," an article on the Danish Epic, by C. U. Clark.

'97—Arthur Draper has enlisted in Battery A, Light Artillery, of Massachusetts, at present located in Boston.

'97—G. Clymer Brooke, returning from a trip around the world, was a passenger on the Yale formerly the "Paris", which left Southampton, April 22.

'97—The following men have been elected to the Editorial Board of the Yale Law Journal: R. L. Munger, Knox Maddox, William H. H. Hewitt, Jr., L. M. Sonnenberg, and C. H. Studinski.

'97—C. H. Studinski received the prize of $25 offered by the Yale Law Journal for the best essay presented in competition for places on the editorial Board.

'97—F. W. Pyle, W. Darrach, and J. H. Lewis took first honors at a recent examination of the Freshman class in the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons.

'97—Harold H. Pratt has taken a position in the Engineering Department of the C. & C. Electric Co. of New York City, its works being at Garwood, N. J.

'97—R. S. Brewster, who has been taking a trip around the world sailed on April 22, from Southampton on the steamer Yale, formerly the "Paris".

Townsend Adee, Treasurer, Bartow-on Sound, Westchester County, N. Y. Committee—David B. Lyman, A. Ray Clark, George Townsend Adee.

Information is desired by the Secretary of the Class of Ninety-Five, B. I. Spock, Box 1524, New Haven, Conn., of the addresses of George Butler, '95, Harry S. Voorhis, '95, and William M. Wheeler, '95.

L. Tweedy, '99, won third place in the half-mile, mile and two-mile bicycle races in the games at Berkeley Oval last Saturday, April 23d.

THEODORE B. STARR

JEWELER AND SILVERSMITH,
206 FIFTH AVE.,
MADISON SQUARE,
NEW YORK,

asks attention to the very useful College Pitchers and Mugs which he offers—for Yale, Harvard, Princeton (the new seal), University of Pennsylvania, Amherst, Williams, Columbia. They are of earthenware, of the College color, and bear on the front the College seal, executed in solid Silver.

MADISON SQUARE.

COOPER & COMPANY,
TAILORS and
. BREECHES MAKERS
Twenty-nine 34th Street, W.
NEW YORK.
Telephone, 1405-38th St.

M. & W. '98
BICYCLE LAMP
BURNS
KEROSENE
$2.50 EXPRESS PAID
If local dealers cannot supply you.
COMPLETE IN ITSELF.
BRILLIANT LIGHT
WILL NOT GO OUT
GRACEFUL DESIGN
EASILY CLEANED
READILY ATTACHED TO WHEEL
QUICKLY ADJUSTED TO POSITION DESIRED.
The M. & W. '98 has these advantages and many more. If you have used another lamp and had it jar out, try an M. & W. '98. Its Patent Automatic Wick Lock will never fail you. Its Combustion Bracket can be used with outside brake, and fills all requirements.
Silver Tone and Monogram Bells.
Manufacturers
The Matthews & Willard Mfg. Co.
40 Murray St. Waterbury, Conn.

Points Essential to a good Lamp

SPECIAL NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to use this column.]

Ninety-Five Triennial.

Notice is given that the Triennial Committee of Ninety-Five have completed the preliminary arrangements for a Triennial Dinner, on Tuesday evening, June 28th. Members of the Class are urged to communicate as soon as possible with the Committee as to whether they will be able to attend or not, as otherwise the final details cannot be attended to.

A request for fifty cents from each man to defray the cost of the Class Cup is asked, also for $2.00 from each to meet the expense of publishing the Triennial Record. The assessment for the band and dinner will be $6.00. No accommodation will be provided at the dinner unless the assessment is paid before May 15th. Extra contributions for wine, fireworks and other incidental expenses are not required, but will be gladly received. Seats on the Observation Train at the Boat Race will be reserved on application. If a sufficient number desire seats reserved, the committee will engage a special car. All remittances should be sent to George

Golf Clubs FOR EXPERTS.
Golf Clubs FOR BEGINNERS.

JOHN D. DUNN'S
Celebrated
One-Piece Drivers.
AGENCIES:
300 W. 50th Street, New York.
533 Fulton Street, Brooklyn.
MADE BY
The Bridgeport Gun Implement Co.
SOLD BY HARTLEY & GRAHAM,
313 Broadway, N. Y.

