

Yale Club Report.

[Correspondence of YALE ALUMNI WEEKLY.]

New York, April 27, 1898.—Printed copies of the first annual report of the Yale Club, which will be submitted at the meeting on Friday evening next, show the general affairs of the organization to be in a most satisfactory condition. While lack of space prevents the WEEKLY presenting the report in detail, the following figures have been selected from the itemized accounts as being of especial interest:

For the year ending March 31st, 1898, receipts from all sources were $29,143.81 and payments $24,496.70, leaving a balance of $4,647.11. Including this cash balance the assets are given as $13,984.99, liabilities $4,789.02, surplus $9,195.47. In the Profit and Loss Account the largest single items for expenditures are seen to be: Rent, $3,600; wages, $3,023.40; alterations and repairs, $2,555.14; stationery and printing, $784.74. The organization expenses of the Club are given as $293.21 and the cost of house furnishing as $386.55. On the other side of the account, the restaurant shows a profit of $1,008.81, the bar one of $492.34, and cigars, 117.91. Receipts from billiards, rooms, etc., are $1,500.08 and sundry receipts are $18,850.82. To this latter amount dues, 1897-98, contribute $10,525 and entrance fees $7,840.

Law School "Journal."

The April number of the Yale Law Journal appeared last week with the following contents: "Some Constitutional Questions Under the Federal Anti-Trust Law," by Edward B. Whitney, '78, of New York City, ex-Assistant United States Attorney General; "Attachment of the Body upon Civil Process," by Henry C. Robinson, '53, of Hartford, Conn.; "Receiverships," by Samuel C. Morehouse, '85 L. S., of New Haven; "The Use of Motions and Demurrers in Connecticut Practice," by Samuel O. Prentice, '73, of the Connecticut Superior Court, and the usual number of editorials, comments, recent cases and book notices.

Changes in the Y. G. A.

The annual meeting of the Yale Gymnastic Association was held on Wednesday evening, April 19, in the Yale Gymnasium. A number of important changes in the constitution were made and the number of officers was reduced. Hereafter the winner of the College "Y," will be required to be an all round gymnast instead of a star in two or three events. The system of scoring at the annual meets was also rearranged. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Manager, Winchester Noyes, '99; Captain, R. G. Clapp, '99 S. The Heaton Testimonial was formally awarded to the College Gymnast, W. L. Otis, 1900.

If you haven't already done so through your Alumni Association, will you not kindly do your part towards making the Fund for the Cruiser "Yale" what it should be, and send your subscription of a dollar or more to the Cruiser Fund, YALE ALUMNI WEEKLY. Checks should be made payable to YALE ALUMNI WEEKLY, Agent, or Edward Sawyer, Treasurer.

LOAFING IN NEW HAVEN.

Did you ever try it at this time of year? From now on to the end of June there is not a better place for rest and for fun.

You hear a good deal about New Haven's climate but shortly now it will be settled into as fair an atmosphere and as bright a sky as New England at her best can produce.

And things are stirring. The variety in the life is delightful. The athletes are as busy as bees, the oratorical competitions are due, the Society elections will soon have their turn.

The NEW HAVEN HOUSE—MOSELEY'S NEW HAVEN HOUSE—is ready to take care of you in its thoroughly comfortable homelike way. For more than a quarter of a century it has been the headquarters of Yale's visitors. It has more reason than ever for continuing to be Yale headquarters.

PERFECT PASSENGER SHIPS—CHESAPEAKE LINE.

The traveler going South, who desires a short trip by water, seeking comfort, safety and pleasure, cannot select a more delightful trip than via Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay, touching at Old Point Comfort and Norfolk, thence South via the Southern Railway, the great highway of travel between North and South, East and West. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Baltimore every week-day at 6.30 P. M. for Norfolk, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships were especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as taste can suggest. The Atlanta, the Queen of the Bay, there has no vessel of her class ever been built to equal in magnificence. The cabinet work, upholstery and tapestries give a perfect combination of comfort and luxury. The cuisine is perfect, and the tables are supplied with the best the market affords.

For full particulars regarding Chesapeake Line, call or address Alex. S. Thweatt, Eastern Passenger Agent, 271 Broadway, New York.
