THE HABIT OF SAVING.

The training of a College Graduate has generally made him free-handed. He has liberal views of life—good, broad, free ideas of hospitality and self-development that do credit to his heart and to his tastes. He needs to keep himself well in check, if he would be duly prudent and guard well the future for himself and for others. One of the best ways is to mark off on the Calendar days for the payment of moderate premiums on insurance policies, which afford investment as well as insurance. The offers some very attractive forms for such policies. Ask any agent, or write to the WINSTON TROWBRIDGE TOWNSEND, '1901.

Winston Trowbridge Townsend, a member of the Freshman Class, son of Judge William K. Townsend, '71, was killed on Monday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, in a bicycle collision on Orange st., this city. Mr. Townsend, with a companion, was wheeling along Trumbull street, and at the corner of Orange, in attempting to turn up that street his wheel collided with the wheel of another rider and he was thrown violently backwards and to the ground. He was unconscious when picked up, and remained so till his death, twenty minutes later, in his own home, which was but a few blocks away from the scene of the accident.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Class of 1901, held in Dwight Hall on Tuesday, for the purpose of taking action on the death of Winston Trowbridge Townsend:

"Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God, in His wise providence, to remove from us by sudden death our beloved classmate, Winston Trowbridge Townsend—deeply endeared to all of us by his peculiarly quiet and unassuming, yet strong and purposeful Christian character; be it

"Resolved, That we, his classmates extend to his family our deepest sympathy in their great sorrow, and that we wear a badge of mourning for the remainder of the present college year in mark of our affection and esteem for him whom Infinite Wisdom has taken; and, be it

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to his family and printed in the College paper."
