Later the Class Ivy will be planted. The Ivy Committee consists of Charles Edward Ives, Chairman; Herbert Buddington Wilcox, Julian Starkweather Mason.

MEDICAL SCHOOL EXERCISES.

As usual there will be no special graduation exercises at the Yale Medical School, except the annual address in Medicine, which will be delivered by Professor Clarence J. Blake of Harvard University, on Tuesday, June 28, at twelve o'clock in College Street Hall, on "The Citizen Doctor." In the evening a reception will be given for Professor Blake at the residence of Dr. Carmalt, to which all the alumni are invited.

The annual banquet of the Alumni Association will be held at the Tontine Hotel, on Monday evening, June 27th, at eight o'clock, and on Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, the nineteenth annual business meeting will be held at the Medical School.

The Graduating Class held their annual supper on Friday, June 24, at the Morris Cove Hotel.

ALUMNI MEETING.

On Tuesday morning at half past nine the Alumni will hold their annual meeting in Alumni Hall, and the polls will be open in the Library from ten o'clock until one for the election of a member of the Corporation.

REUNIONS.

Meetings will also be held at different hours during the day, as will be seen in another column, of the college classes of 1848, 1853, 1858, 1863, 1868, 1873, 1878, 1888, 1892 and 1895.

YALE-HARVARD GAME.

In the afternoon at three o'clock at the Field there will be a baseball game between Yale and Harvard, and in the evening will occur the annual concert of the University Glee and Banjo Clubs, followed by the Senior german in Alumni, which will be led by H. B. Wilcox.

COMMENCEMENT.

The Commencement Exercises will be held in Battell Chapel at ten o'clock on Wednesday, June 29. Previous to these exercises the alumni will march in a body from the Library to Battell Chapel. After an address by the President, the announcement of the prizes and fellowships of the University will be made. The candidates for degrees will be presented to the President by the Deans of the respective Faculties, and the following degrees will be conferred: Bachelors of Arts, Bachelors of Philosophy, Bachelors of Laws, Bachelors of Divinity, Masters of Arts, Masters of Laws, Civil Engineers, Mechanical Engineers, Doctors of Civil Law, Doctors of Medicine, Doctors of Philosophy. Next will follow the conferring of honorary degrees by the President. There will be no choir singing this year. They hymns will be sung by the congregation, accompanied by the organ and the New Haven Symphony Orchestra. The Orchestra will also render several selections.

ALUMNI DINNER.

At two o'clock the Alumni dinner will take place in Alumni Hall, and from nine until eleven o'clock the President will hold a reception to the Alumni in the Art School.

LAW SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

At half past one o'clock the annual meeting of the Yale Law School Alumni Association will be held in the Law School Building, followed by a luncheon at which extemporaneous speeches will be made. Immediately after the collation, at about a quarter of three, the alumni will march in a body to the College Street Hall, where the Anniversary Exercises of the Law School will take place at three o'clock. The address to the Graduating Class will then be delivered by the Hon. Charles Andrews, LL.D., of Syracuse, ex-Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals of New York on "The Influence of America on Jurisprudence." The Master's Oration will be delivered by John M. Shepard of Pittsburgh, Texas. The Townsend Prize-Speaking will be held at this time, in which competition four Seniors of the Law School are to take part: E. W. Beattie, G. L. Hedges, J. O. Moore, and S. Peterson, and the award of prizes will then be made. It has been decided to hold no Class Supper this year.

ACADEMIC TASTES

Make New Haven's standard in materials and styles of personal attire at least as high as that of any city in the country. We realized that when we came here. We have worked to meet and to anticipate the exacting demands. Yale men have generously responded to these efforts on our part. We reciprocate with still more zealous endeavor.
