

ALUMNI NOTES.

[Graduates are invited to contribute to this column.]

'36—Rt. Rev. Richard H. Wilmer occupied a seat in the House of Bishops in the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'49—President Dwight attended a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Hotchkiss School, of which he is a member, at Lakeville, Conn., on Saturday, Oct. 1.

'49—Rev. C. A. L. Richards occupied a seat among the Presbyters in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'50—Martin Kellogg has resigned his position as President of the University of California. He has been President of the University since 1893, and acting president for several years previous to that time.

'52—Daniel Coit Gilman, President of Johns Hopkins University, who was appointed to serve on the committee to investigate affairs in the army, has declined the appointment.

'52—The September Century contains an article on "Alexis de Tocqueville and His Book on America—Sixty years After," by President D. C. Gilman, of Johns Hopkins University.

'53—Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Davies occupied a seat in the House of Bishops in the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'54—Gen. W. W. Gordon is a member of the commission to superintend the Spanish evacuation.

'57—E. M. Wood occupied a seat among the Laymen in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, held in Washington from October 5.

'60—Dr. Francis Delafield of New York volunteered his services as a physician to the Government and has been at Montauk during the past month as Chief Consulting Physician of the camp.

'61—Professor Tracy Peck has taken charge of the American School at Rome.

'63—Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead occupied a seat in the House of Bishops in the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'64—In the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, held in Washington from October 5, D. B. Lyman occupied a seat among the laymen.

'64—In the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5, Rev. W. W. Battershall occupied a seat among the Presbyters in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

'66—M. W. Seymour occupied a seat among the laymen in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, held in Washington from October 5.

'67—In the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5, Rt. Rev. Boyd Vincent occupied a seat in the House of Bishops.

'68—Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster occupied a seat in the House of Bishops in the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'69—Judge Gardiner Lathrop was a prominent candidate for the nomination of Justice of the Supreme Court at the last Republican State Convention in Missouri.

'70—In the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5, Rev. Charles H. Strong occupied a seat among the Presbyters in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

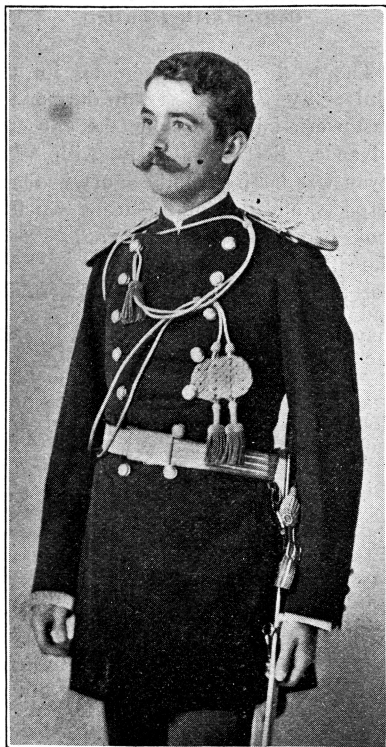

'71—In the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5, Arthur Ryerson occupied a seat among the laymen.

'71—G. P. Wilshire occupied a seat among the laymen in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'71—Charles Lyman, Chief of the Stationery Division in the Treasury Department at Washington, has recently been promoted to be Chief of the Division of Appointments. Mr. Lyman for several years was a member of the United States Civil Service Commission.

'72—The Century Company has just published a book by Prof. T. S. Woolsey, entitled "America's Foreign Policy."

'72—Rev. E. S. Lines occupied a seat among the Presbyters in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

LIEUT. RODMOND V. BEACH, '87
FIRST REG'T U. S. VOL. ENG'RS, DIED OF TYPHOID FEVER AT PONCE, P. R.,
SEPT. 29, 1898.

'73—Charles E. Bigelow, who has for thirty-two years been connected with the George F. Blake Manufacturing Company, of New York, and lately its President, has resigned to become President of the Gansevoort Bank.

'75—Rev. R. A. Torrey is the author of a book entitled "What the Bible Teaches," recently published by the F. H. Revel Co.

'75—Edward C. Smith was elected Governor of Vermont on the Republican ticket last month, by a plurality of about 24,000 votes.

'75 S.—Burton Mansfield occupied a seat among the laymen in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Washington from October 5.

'75—Edward S. Atwater was nominated for Controller in the New York Democratic State Convention on Sept. 29. The New York Times gives the following sketch of his life: "Edward Storrs Atwater, the nominee for Controller, is the son of the late Dr. John P. Atwater, whose father, Jeremiah Atwater, organized Middlebury College and was its first President, and was also President of Dickinson College, at Carlisle, Penn.

Mr. Atwater was born April 10, 1853, at Cincinnati. He took a preparatory course at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and was graduated from the classical course at Yale College in 1875. After leaving college he studied law in Poughkeepsie with Judge Henry M. Taylor and was admitted to the bar in 1880. He practiced his profession until 1891, when he was elected President of the Farmers' and Manufacturers' Bank of Poughkeepsie, which position he has held ever since. In 1880 he married Miss Caroline P. Swift, a daughter of Charles W. Swift, and a graduate of Vassar College in the Class of Seventy-Seven. They have four children.

Mr. Atwater was formerly a Republican, but changed his politics on the tariff question and became a Democrat. He has not been active in politics. His home is one of the handsomest in Poughkeepsie. He is a member of the First Reformed Church and of the Dutchess Club and the Amrita Club of Poughkeepsie. He is a Director of the

Poughkeepsie Iron Company and a Trustee of the Poughkeepsie Saving Bank."

'76—The marriage of Henry W. DeForest to Miss Julia Gilman Noyes, of St. Paul, Minn., took place August 22.

'76 L.S.—Victor H. Metcalf has been nominated for Member of Congress by the Republicans of the Third District California.

'79—Timothy L. Woodruff was nominated for Lieutenant Governor of New York at the Republican State Convention at Saratoga on Sept. 27.

'80—Col. N. G. Osborn with John W. Custiss and Julian W. Curtiss, '79, have gone to the Catskills for two week's fishing.

'80 T.S.—Professor W. F. Blackman delivered the opening address at the Yale Divinity School on Thursday afternoon, September 29.

'79—Julian W. Curtiss and John W. Curtiss have gone to the Catskills for two week's fishing. They were accompanied by Col. N. G. Osborn, '80.

'80—In the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, held in Washington from October 5, Rev. F. W. Keator occupied a seat among the Presbyters in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

'80 M.L.—Edwin Burritt Smith has entered into a partnership for the general practice of law, with offices at 415 First National Bank Building, Chicago, Ill. The firm name is Smith, Blatchford & Taylor.

'81 T.S.—Rev. J. B. Saer has resigned from the pastorate of the Congregational Church at Cornish, Maine.

'82—Burnside Foster has an article in the September issue of the North American Review, entitled "Leprosy and the Hawaiian Annexation."

'82—Rev. Benjamin Brewster occupied a seat among the Presbyters in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, held in Washington from October 5.

'83—George W. Johnston received the Calef Loving Cup for the prize essay at the Minneapolis Convention National Association of Life Underwriters.

'85—John W. Gavin has been appointed Head Master of Hoyt's School in San Francisco, California.

'86—A daughter was born to Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Schwab, Sept. 23.

'86 S.—Second Lieutenant William W. Gordon, Jr., of the Eighth United States Volunteers has gone to Porto Rico to act as aide to his father, General Gordon, who is a member of the Commission to superintend the Spanish evacuation.

'87—Chandler P. Anderson is the Secretary to the United States Commissioners to the International Conference now being held at Quebec.

'87 S.—Dr. Charles S. Jewett, who has been practicing medicine in Buffalo for several years, sailed for Germany, October 3d, to pursue a course of spe-

[Continued on 25th page.]

"As you grow old, grow rich."

1820

1898

THE
ÆTNA ENDOWMENTS

BETTER THAN GOVERNMENT BONDS.

BECAUSE:

They have paid, and are paying, a better rate of interest.

They are fully paid for in a definite number of years.

Their value is fixed and does not fluctuate.

They are non-taxable and are protected by legislative supervision.

In case of death, even during the first year, no further payment is required, but the Endowment becomes immediately payable, the same as a life policy.

They are sold in sums of from $1,000 to $25,000, and are within the reach of all.

Their payment is guaranteed by the Ætna Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. assets over $47,500,000.

They provide for early life, middle life, advanced life, and death.

They are indisputable, non-forfeiting, and absolutely safe.

Write for particulars.

E. E. HALLOCK, MANAGER.

Room 5, Hubinger Building,
840 Chapel St., NEW HAVEN.

H. S. CROFUTT,

Special Representative.

THEODORE B. STARR

JEWELER AND SILVERSMITH,
206 FIFTH AVE.,
MADISON SQUARE,
NEW YORK,

asks attention to the very useful College Pitchers and Mugs which he offers—for Yale, Harvard, Princeton (the new seal), University of Pennsylvania, Amherst, Williams, Columbia. They are of earthenware, of the College color, and bear on the front the College seal, executed in solid Silver.

MADISON SQUARE.

SPORTS OF THE AMATEUR ON FIELD AND WATER

IS THE TITLE OF

WALTER CAMP'S

DEPARTMENT IN

COLLIER'S WEEKLY

It contains all the latest news in the field of amateur sport, and critical comment thereon.

ARE YOU READING IT?

10 cents a Copy.

$4.00 a Year.