Obituary.

PRES. JOHN W. JOHNSON, '62.

The death of John Wesley Johnson, formerly President of the University of Oregon, occurred on Sept. 15, at Eugene, Oregon.

Mr. Johnson entered the Class of Sixty-Two from Benton County, Oregon, and returned to his native State immediately after graduation. He first engaged in teaching, but later went North to what was then Washington Territory on the discovery of gold in that region. He soon returned to his home, and again took up teaching, and in 1876 he became President of the University of Oregon, continuing in that office until 1893. He had been in retirement for about five years before his death.

WILLIAM M. FINNEY, EX-'80.

William M. Finney died at the Lincoln Hotel in Colorado City, Col., on Sept. 20th, aged 40 years. He had been in poor health for a long time and went to Colorado recently for his health.

Mr. Finney entered the Class of Eighty, but left at the end of Freshman year on account of ill health. He was unmarried.

DANIEL H. GRIFFING, EX-'84.

Daniel H. Griffing, ex-'84, died at his home at New Suffolk, Long Island, September 24.

Daniel Havens Griffing was born in New Suffolk about 38 years ago, and after attending the village school, studied at the old Franklinville Academy. He entered Williams, and afterwards went to Yale with the Class of Eighty-Four, remaining there two years.

While acting as a mail clerk on the Long Island Railroad during vacation, he was thrown from a mail car and one of his legs was so badly injured that it had to be amputated. He was obliged to leave College, but sought employment in Washington, where he obtained a position as Civil Service examiner.

Mr. Griffing pursued the study of Law at Washington, and then returned to Suffolk County, having secured a position in the office of the Surrogate at Riverhead. He remained in that place until ill health compelled him to give up his work entirely some months ago. He leaves a wife and one son.

THE LATE LIEUT. RODMOND V. BEACH, '87.

The death of First Lieutenant Rodmond V. Beach, '87, Regimental Adjutant of the First U. S. V. Engineers, at Ponce, Porto Rico, was announced in the last issue of the WEEKLY. Lieut. Beach was taken ill of typhoid fever on Sept. 7, and admitted to the well-appointed hospital of the Red Cross at Ponce, where he received the best of care. On the 17th the most alarming symptoms developed, from which he rallied so that he was, for a few days, thought to be convalescent; but on the 27th it became manifest that a perforation of the intestine had occurred, and on the 28th he died.

The body was taken with military honors to the saloon of the transport Panama, where his coffin remained, draped with the flag, and under the escort of Captain Breese, '83 S. detailed from Lieut. Beach's regiment for that purpose, until its arrival at Fortress Monroe. The funeral was at New Haven, Oct. 7th, under escort of the Second Connecticut Regiment, of which he had for many years been a member and officer.

Lieutenant Beach was widely known among graduates, and his many friends will be prepared for the information that he discharged the duties of his position as Regimental Adjutant with conspicuous ability, and with an unflinching courtesy, which made him the most popular officer in his regiment.
