

YALE ALUMNI WEEKLY

Checks, drafts and orders should be made payable to the Yale Alumni Weekly.

All correspondence should be addressed,—
Yale Alumni Weekly, New Haven, Conn.

The office is at Room 6, White Hall.

ADVISORY BOARD.

H. C. ROBINSON, '53. J. R. SHEFFIELD, '87.
W. W. SKIDDY, '65 S. J. A. HARTWELL, '89 S.
C. P. LINDSLEY, '75 S. L. S. WELCH, '89.
W. CAMP, '80. E. VAN INGEN, '91 S.
W. G. DAGGETT, '80. P. JAY, '92.

EDITOR.

LEWIS S. WELCH, '89.

ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

WALTER CAMP, '80.

ASSISTANT EDITOR.

E. J. THOMPSON, Sp.

NEWS EDITOR.

FRED. M. DAVIES, '99.

ASSISTANT.

PRESTON KUMLER, 1900.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT ASSISTANTS.

O. M. CLARK, '98. BURNETT GOODWIN, '99 S.

Entered as second class matter at New Haven P. O.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., OCT. 20, 1898.

PLEASE HURRY.

The publication of the Yale War Record waits, because people who have information about themselves or others, are so distressingly deliberate about sending it in.

FOOTBALL TICKETS.

As the announcement elsewhere shows, the Yale Football Association is again generously coöperating with the WEEKLY in taking special means to see that those who keep up their connection with Yale, through this means, shall have favorable opportunity of witnessing the great football games. As it is also explained elsewhere, this special arrangement is made largely on the ground that by this means tickets will, with particular certainty, reach those people for whom they are specially intended, and by that means the possibility of an abuse in their handling will be diminished. We feel sure that this privilege will be accepted and acted upon in a manner which will show that it was justly given. In order that its full benefits may be obtained, subscribers are asked to read with the utmost care the notice that is printed this week, and to comply with it to the letter.

THE FOOTBALL SITUATION.

Some people are in the way of saying that it is an old story with Yale to be down. When they hear that, they say that it simply means that Yale will make a special effort to get up, and it is well to look out for her. It is the kind of a yarn, they say, which Mr. Cook had the reputation of spinning before the great races. But all this is merely for the edification of those to whom the annual athletic contests are passing shows, and who have in these contests no interest other than that which is stimulated by a good game.

The world may talk, but Yale men know that Yale does not climb out of the holes she gets into, nor push over the stone walls which seem immovable, nor in general do that which seems next to impossible, or quite so, unless somebody, or a number of somebodies, put their shoulders to the wheel. There are not so very many of these people who can be relied upon to give up their own interests, and strain and tug, just when it looks as though Yale were being crowded over the hill.

But there are some, and now the time has come when a little company, who know football and how to teach it, can save Yale from playing her part badly. We are wondering, here at New Haven, whether they will again enlist. It has been service for many long campaigns for many of them; still the work seems to wait for some one to do it as they only can.

The team is not playing Yale football at present. Yet the Captain has gathered together a great many men who are physically, mentally and morally able to play an excellent game of football. There is excellent material and excellent spirit there: will it be allowed to shift for itself?

There is a suspicion among a few of those who have followed the work this Fall pretty closely, that many a Yale alumnus has got an unfortunately large head about the football Eleven. We do not think that such an impossible spirit has taken possession of the real football men among the graduates. We shall look to see them back here.

One thing is not to be forgotten. Last year Yale touched bottom and then came up. She traveled all the way from the lowest point to the highest. Now she has sagged from the highest. That is a much more serious situation, in our lay opinion, than straight climbing up-hill.

Now it is the Courant's turn. The first number of the year shows no radical change of policy, but an unusually attractive appearance. The finish is excellent, and the general effect artistic. The typographical excellence alone tempts one to read, and one is not sorry for yielding to the temptation. The opening story by Richard Hooker is very delicate and well done.

ALUMNI NOTES.

[Continued from 39th page.]

'96 S.—Announcement has been made of the formation of the partnership of William F. Forepaugh and John F. Havemeyer under the firm name of J. F. Havemeyer & Co., dealers in lubricating oils. Mr. Havemeyer was formerly a member of the firm of Edson & Havemeyer. The address of the new firm is the same as that of the old one, 68 Broad street, New York.

'97—B. A. Thaxter is teaching school in Missouri.

'97—Walter D. Makepeace is in the Yale Law School.

'97—N. A. Smyth has entered the Yale Law School.

'97—G. B. Taylor has entered the Harvard Law School.

'97—Cornelius P. Kitchell has entered the Yale Law School.

'97—G. C. Brooke is with Brown Brothers in Philadelphia.

'97—W. A. Todd is teaching at Betts Academy, Stamford, Conn.

'97—H. H. Townshend has just entered the Yale Law School.

'97 S.—Oswald L. Simpson has returned from a trip around the world.

'97—F. B. Luquiens has been studying French in Paris during the Summer.

'97—Everett L. Barnard has just returned from a trip in Italy and Switzerland.

'97—G. L. Parker has entered the Episcopal Theological School of Cambridge.

'97—J. R. McNeille has accepted a position in the New York Paper Trust Company.

'97 S.—W. J. Grippin is in the employ of the Malleable Iron Works of Bridgeport, Conn.

'97 S.—T. G. Otis, Jr., was married to Miss Adah Tilt in Chicago, Ill., on the 21st of September.

'97—N. A. Williams has returned from Europe to his home in Utica, after a year's travel abroad.

'97—Gerald Hughes is practicing law in the office of his father, Charles H. Hughes, in Denver, Colorado.

'97—The engagement of Miss Edwina Forwood, daughter of William H. Forwood of Cincinnati, to Walter G. Resor, has been announced.

'97—Robert S. Hincks has recovered from his recent illness, and has resumed his work with Estabrook & Co., at 31 Nassau street, New York.

'97—H. C. Parke, Jr., has left the employ of Parke, Davis & Co., and entered the General Theological Seminary, Chelsea Square, New York.

'97—Acton Poulet, formerly with Dickinson, Grummon & Co., has accepted a position with Maxwell and Scoville, Drexel Building, New York City.

'97—Irving Mead, C. Chadwick and F. Garvan have left the law schools which they attended last year and are now taking the Senior year at the New York Law School.

'97—Cards are out for the wedding of M. F. Stires, Jr., to Miss Pauline Dickson, Thursday evening, October 20th, in the Hanson Place M. E. Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

'97 M.S.—A. E. Loveland has accepted a position as Assistant Physician in the McLean Hospital for the Insane, Waverly, Mass. which is a part of the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

'97—C. U. Clark has been spending the Summer in Europe, taking a bicycle trip up the Rhine, through the Alps and down to Italy and studying at the Summer schools at Munich and Grenoble.

'97 S.—At the wedding of Miss Belle Rich of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mr. Chas. J. Cooper of Denver, Col., on the 10th of October, the following Yale men were in the wedding party: John Good, '95; Richard I. Neithercut, '97 S.; John H. Porter, '97 S.; Seth S. Spencer, Jr., '97 S., and G. B. Rich, Jr., '97 S.

'98—M. U. Ely is at the Yale Law School.

'98—Raymond M. Crosby is in Paris studying Art.

'98—Robert H. Gould has entered the Yale Law School.

'98—M. Mullally has entered the New York Law School.

'98—Payne Whitney has entered the Harvard Law School.

'98—Charles A. Goodwin is in the Harvard Law School.

'98—Brewer Eddy is at the Union Theological Seminary.

'98—A. E. Richards is taking a postgraduate course in English.

'98—Robert T. Garrison's address is 38 Parkstrasse, Frankfort-on-Main, Germany.

'98—H. B. Cogswell is with the American Graphophone Co. of Bridgeport, Conn.

'98—Samuel E. Bassett is taking an entire classical course in the Graduate Department.

'98—P. N. Welch, Jr., and C. W. Gross have entered the Harvard Law School this Fall.

'98—Henry W. Hincks is with Wilmot and Hobbs Manufacturing Co., Bridgeport, Conn.

'98—The marriage of Miss Josephine Brooks to John R. Livermore will take place this Autumn.

NEW YORK LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.

JOHN A. MCCALL, PRESIDENT.

This Company has been in successful operation since 1845, and has now over 300,000 policy-holders and over $200,000,000 in assets. It offers the most privileges and on the most favorable terms, of any Company. Under its new system of classifying and compensating agents, it offers to young men continuous employment and a life income. Its policies and agents' contracts will interest all students.

NEW YORK LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY,
346 & 348 Broadway,
NEW YORK.

'98—Robert E. Hume is taking a postgraduate course in Sanskrit and the Philosophy of Religion.

Obituary.

SERGEANT LOTEN A. DINSMOOR, EX-'94.

Sergeant Loten A. Dinsmoor, ex-'94, died of typhoid fever at Porto Rico, on Thursday, September 23.

Sergeant Dinsmoor was born in Warren, Pa., in 1870, and after graduation from the high school, he taught in several places, meanwhile preparing himself for College. He entered Yale with the Class of Ninety-Four, but left it during the last part of his Senior year and did not take his degree. During the year 1895, he taught school and then returned to Warren, where he began reading law in the office of Dinsmoor & Peterson. He enlisted in Company I, 16th Regt., Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry in 1895.

At the time of his death, Sergeant Dinsmoor was with his company in Porto Rico, which was ordered there in July, in the service of the United States.

The Warren (Pa.) Mirror says of Sergeant Dinsmoor: "He took a deep interest in military affairs and was held in the highest regard by his fellow soldiers. He was advanced to corporal and then to sergeant of his Company. He was also appointed to the office of company clerk. As a soldier he was always faithful to duty and deeply inspired with patriotism. He went willingly to the front and in the many letters sent home he never complained of the hardships endured at camp. He served his country and his generation heroically."

WILFORD LINSLEY, '66 S.

The death of Wilford Linsly, '66 S., occurred at his home, 29 Irving Place, New York, on August 4.

Mr. Linsly was born in New York in 1844, and was the son of Dr. Jared Linsly, '26, a New York physician. He was prepared for College at the University School, entered the Sheffield Scientific School, and was graduated there in 1866.

WILFORD LINSLEY, '66 S.

Mr. Linsly at first studied to be a physician, but changed his purpose and became a landscape artist, continuing to paint up to his last sickness. His work was exhibited annually at the Academy. He was married in 1877 to Miss Johanna Williams, of New York, and went abroad, traveling and making numerous sketches. He returned to New York in 1878, where he lived and had his studio. He leaves a widow and one son, Wilford W. Linsly, who is a Sophomore at Yale.

Yale Law School.

For circulars and other information apply to

Prof. FRANCIS WAYLAND,

Dean.

JOHN CORNELIUS GRIGGS, '89,

Late Director Metropolitan College of Music.

SONG RECITALS and VOCAL INSTRUCTION.

Carnegie Hall, New York City.