Yale Studies in English.

Under the title of Yale Studies in English, and with Professor Albert S. Cook as editor, Messrs. Lamson, Wolfe & Co., of Boston and New York, have begun the publication of a series of monographs on various subjects of English scholarship, consisting largely of work done by instructors and students in the English Departments of the University.

The first two issues in the series have appeared during the past Summer, and several more are announced. No. 1 is Professor Charlton M. Lewis' doctoral thesis on "The Foreign Sources of Modern English Versification," in which he traces the development of the two principal types of English verse from Latin originals, modified by French influence; the work is a distinct contribution to English metrical science. No. II, also a doctoral thesis, is Miss Caroline Louisa White's "Ælfric, a New Study of his Life and Writings." This work, based on Dietrich's study of forty years ago, is broadly conceived, and carried out with great care and completeness and it has already taken its place as authoritative in its field. The future numbers of the series will deal with a wide variety of topics, and will, it is believed, do much to strengthen Yale's position in the field of English scholarship.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO.'S NEW BOOKS

The Battle of the Strong.

By GILBERT PARKER, author of "The Seats of the Mighty," etc. 12mo, $1.50. The Battle of the Strong opens on the Isle of Jersey in 1781, crosses to France, follows the march of soldiers and the course of true love; echoes the cries of the French Revolution and gleams with the swords of La Vendée. It is the most important novel yet written by Mr. Parker, and one of the most interesting of the current year.

Prisoners of Hope.

By MARY JOHNSTON. With a Frontispiece Illustration. Crown 8vo, $1.50. A capital story of Colonial Virginia in 1663, when Berkeley was governor. The hero is an innocent convict from England, who leads the famous Oliverian conspiracy, and has thrilling adventures by flood and field with ruffians, gentlemen, and Indians who stole the young woman whom he loved.

The Tides and Kindred Phenomena in the Solar System.

By GEORGE HOWARD DARWIN, Plumian Professor and Fellow, Trinity College, University of Cambridge. With Illustrations and Diagrams. 12mo, $2.00.

This book embodies the results of many years of observation and study, and is the most authoritative volume yet written on the causes, origin, movements, and diversity of tides. Its interest is greatly increased by its treatment of similar phenomena in the vast system of which our earth is so small a part.

The Black Curtain.

A Novel. By FLORA HAINES LOUGHEAD, author of "The Man who was Guilty," and "The Abandoned Claim." 12mo, $1.50.

A thoroughly interesting story of California, which in plot and narrative skill well sustains the high reputation Mrs. Loughead won by her two previous stories.

A World of Green Hills.

By BRADFORD TORREY, author of "Birds in the Bush," "The Foot-path Way," etc. 16mo, gilt top, $1.25.

The "Green Hills" are the mountain region of Virginia and North Carolina, where Mr. Torrey finds many birds which are old New England acquaintances. His genius for observation and his art in description are as fresh and delightful as ever.

The Blindman's World,

And Other Stories. By EDWARD BELLAMY. With a Prefatory Chapter by Mr. HOWELLS. 12mo, $1.50.

The fifteen stories in this book are thoroughly interesting, and have in large measure the humane imagination and the eager purpose of improving social conditions which distinguish all of Mr. Bellamy's writings.

Human Immortality.

Two Supposed Objections to the Doctrine. By WILLIAM JAMES, Professor of Philosophy at Harvard University. 16mo, $1.00.

Dr. James considers two points supposed by some persons to militate against the doctrine of human immortality,—physical death, and the innumerable host of human beings.

His treatment of the subject is original and of profound interest.

Stories of the Cherokee Hills.

By MAURICE THOMPSON, author of "A Tallahassee Girl," etc. With eight full-page illustrations by E. W. KEMBLE. 12mo, $1.50.

These stories belong to the same general place and time with Mr. Joel Chandler Harris's "Home Tales." They are mostly stories of masters and slaves, whose relations are usually friendly, with some fantastic or humorous element; and the stories, with Mr. Kemble's illustrations, make a very attractive book.

The Bibliotaph and Other People.

By LEON H. VINCENT. 12mo, $1.50.

Thoughtful essays on an eccentric book-collector, Thomas Hardy, The Letters of Keats, An Elizabethan Novelist (John Lyly), Priestley's Autobiography, and Gautier.

A Century of Indian Epigrams.

Chiefly from the Sanskrit of Bhartrihari. By PAUL E. MORE, author of "The Great Refusal," 16mo, $1.00.

A tasteful book containing lyrical translations of a hundred epigrams, meditations.

and precepts, treating of love, worldly wisdom, and the Hindu religion and philosophy.

Sold by all Booksellers. Sent, postpaid, by HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO., BOSTON.
