looking towards his future should remember that sooner or later insurance on his life will be a necessity. He may see this if he will only observe the action of leading financiers whose judgment in other matters he would value highly, and their uniform opinion is that it would be a wise thing for him to secure Life Insurance as early as possible.

Health is also an important item in this consideration, for without it no Life Insurance will be granted.

Therefore, young men whether or not they have others dependent on them, should secure Life Insurance NOW.
