

FOOTBALL IN THE SCHOOLS.

The following will enter College next Fall; Pate Princeton; Kernan, Harvard; Crugan, Williams; Luke, U. of P.

HILLHOUSE HIGH SCHOOL.

The Hillhouse High School team played a very strong game throughout the season. By winning from New Britain High, the champion of the Northern League, Hillhouse won the cup, presented by the Yale Football Association to the champion of the Connecticut Interscholastic Football League. This makes the second consecutive time this School has won the cup, and if Hillhouse can win the championship next year the cup becomes her property.

The championship games resulted as follows:

Hillhouse, 59; Bridgeport, 0; Hillhouse, 31; Meriden, 5; Hillhouse, 41; New Britain, 41. The scores of the other games were: Hillhouse, 14; Y. M. C. A., 0; Hillhouse, 20; Y. M. C. A., 0; Hillhouse, 17; Betts' Academy, 0; Hillhouse, 0; Yale Freshmen, 10; Hillhouse, 0; Hotchkiss, 26; Hillhouse, 16; Yale Law School, 0; Hillhouse, 20; Hartford High, 0; Hillhouse, 0; Taft School, 10; Hillhouse, 27; Boardman, School 0.

The line-up of the team was: Barham, l.e.; Ferris, l.t.; Clark, l.g.; Adams, c.; Porter, r.g.; Cowles, r.t.; Beale, and Osbame, r.e.; Hart, r.h.; Only two men will enter College. They are Clark and Ferris, and they will both enter Yale.

Among the coaches were G. Foster Sanford, '97 L.S.; Paul Thompson, 1901 and Keene, M.S.

TRINITY SCHOOL.

For the last four years Trinity has won its section in the New York Interscholastic League, and this year won the championship. The coaching was done by P. M. Seires, Physical Director of the School.

The more important games played resulted as follows: Trinity, 5; New York Military Academy, 6; Trinity, 23; Princeton Preparatory, 5; Trinity, 40; Cutler, 0; Trinity, 6; Hotchkiss, 12; Trinity, 12; St. Paul, 0; Trinity, 35; Stevens' Preparatory, 0; Trinity, 21; DeLasalle, 5.

The following was the line-up of the team: C. Doe, l.e.; D. H. Browne, l.t.; E. V. L. Lane, l.g.; Rodgers, c.; D. Kirkley, r.g.; R. P. McClave, r.t.; C. Ward, r.e.; W. Brown, q.b.; S. W. McClave, Captain, l.h.b.; G. Treed, Tompson, r.h.b.; S. Milbank, f.b.

Chas. Doe, D. H. Browne, and D. Kirkley will enter Princeton this year, W. Brown will enter Yale, and Rodgers will enter Cornell.

HILL SCHOOL.

The success of the football season at Hill school was much broken by injuries to their best players. The game with Lawrenceville was lost, the team being weakened by the presence of five substitutes. The coaching was by M. L. Fearey, Yale '98, assisted at different times by F. S. Butterworth, '95, and G. F. Sanford, '96. The line-up of the team follows: E. D. Milburn and Yarrow, l.e.; Wardwell, l.t.; Hamlin, l.g.; Chadick, c.; J. G. Milburn, r.g.; N. Brown, r.t.; Percival (Captain), r.e.; W. O. White, q.b.; Shevelin and E. M. Smith, l.h.b.; Lord, r.h.b.; Bowman, f.b.; substitutes Hill, Root, Stephenson and DuPuy. The players will enter College next year as follows: Brown, Hamlin, White and DuPuy, Yale; Percival, Harvard; Stephenson, Princeton; Lord, University of Chicago; J. G. Milburn, Oxford University; Chadick, Stevens Institute of Technology.

MERIDEN HIGH.

The season just passed has been one of the best for the Meriden High School Eleven. M. U. Ely, Yale '98, coached the team for several days and Abbott, '99, of Yale, then took charge of it. The two defeats which it met were through lack of weight rather than team work. The two important games resulted as follows: Meriden 11, Waterbury 5; Hillhouse High 31, Meriden 5. The team lined up as follows: Hinsdale, l.e.; Barber (Captain), l.t.; Clark, l.g.; Allsworth, c.; Butler, r.g.; Burnstein, r.t.; Wilkenson, r.e.; West, q.b.;

Hewitt, l.h.b.; Williams, r.h.b., Bristol, f.b. Of these Bristol is the only man who will enter college next Fall, and he expects to attend Yale.

BERKELEY SCHOOL.

Berkeley's football team was not up to the standard of former years, it being composed, for the most part, of a green and light set of men. They were defeated by De La Salle Institute, in the New York Interscholastic League, by a score of 42 to 0.

The team was made up of the following men: A. E. Boyesen, Captain; J. A. Forney and D. McKee, backs; E. Carpentier and B. S. Fassett, ends; E. T. Granbery and R. deSlat Marzano, tackles; D. McKay, center; W. B. Rodgers, O. C. Murray, F. E. Beebe, and C. P. L. Hudson.

Eight men will graduate, D. M. McKee, E. Carpentier, and E. T. Granbery, going to Yale, A. E. Boyesen and O. C. Murray, entering Columbia; J. A. Forney and O. C. Murray entering Princeton; W. B. Rodgers going to Harvard, and B. S. Fassett entering the New York University Law School. The best individual work was done by Boyesen, Forney, and Carpentier. Mr. Cornish of the Knickerbocker Athletic Club coached the team.

CUTLER SCHOOL.

Although defeated in the New York Interscholastic League Championship, by De La Salle Institute, by a score of 40 to 0, Cutler made a fairly good record in her other games.

The scores were as follows: Cutler, 32; Columbia Grammar, 0; Cutler, 15; Westminster, 6; Cutler, 5; Mt. Vernon High School, 0; Cutler, 40; Woodbridge School, 0; Cutler, 0; Packard School, 5; and Cutler, 0; De La Salle, 40.

One of the great drawbacks to the development of a good team this year was the lack of a good second team.

The team had a very good coach in Philip Sands, a former member of the School.

Six men will graduate, E. Bell and M. Hitchcock entering Yale. J. Stone, J. Cornell, and T. Manson going to Harvard, and C. Warren entering Columbia.

HARTFORD HIGH SCHOOL.

The football season this year was not very successful, of the six games played three being won and three lost.

The team lined up as follows: Boston, l.e.; Droyer, l.t.; Lycett, l.g.; Johnson, c.; J. Costello, r.g.; Seyms, r.t.; H. Costello, r.e.; Allen, l.h.; Hart, r.h.; Barrows, f.b.; Strong, q.b.

Of the four men that graduate, Strong will enter Yale; Seyms, Massachusetts School of Technology; Johnson, Trinity; Lycett will not go to College.

The games resulted as follows: Hartford High, 41; Middletown High, 0; Hartford High, 0; Springfield High, 5; Hartford High, 0; Meriden High 24; Hartford High, 11; Hillhouse High, 15; Hartford High, 73; Suffield High, 0; Hartford High, 10; New Britain High, 0. Scored by Hartford High, 135; by opponents, 44. The team was coached by E. S. Wesleyan '94.

NEW BRITAIN HIGH.

The New Britain High School team played good football up to the championship games and was then badly defeated by Hillhouse High, by a score of 41 to 0. S. M. Hammond, Yale '92 S., had charge of the team. Of the eight games played during the season, the one with Hillhouse was the only defeat. The team was composed of the following players: Donnelly, l.e.; Arens, l.t.; Kelly, l.g.; Stockwell, c.; Keevers, r.g.; Merwin, r.t.; Woods, r.e.; Parsons, q.b.; Judd (Captain), l.h.b.; Gilchrist and Thompson, r.h.b.; Smith and Herick, f.b. Of these, five will graduate Merwin and probably Judd will enter Yale, while the other three will not go to college.

BROOKLYN LATIN SCHOOL.

The football team at the Brooklyn Latin School this year was organized with great difficulty and lost their important games, with the Brooklyn Polytechnic School and the Montclair Military Academy. The coaches were Eliot Bigelow, Jr., of Brooklyn, and Walker, of Amherst. The line-up was as follows: McCulloch, l.e.; Field, l.t.; Rossiter, r.g.; Maury, c.; Joush, r.g.; Herreshoff, r.t.; Allen, r.e.; Lockwood, q.b.; Nelson (Captain), l.h.b.; Stillman, r.h.b.; Hewitt, f.b. Of these, Hewitt will enter Yale, and Nelson, Amherst, next Fall.

Hon. John W. Griggs to Speak.

Hon. John W. Griggs of New Jersey, Attorney General in President McKinley's cabinet and a former governor of the State of New Jersey, will be the speaker at the Law School Commencement exercises of the Yale Law School on June 26. The exercises will be held in College Street Hall.

Maryland Association.

On December 12, 1898, the Executive Committee of the Yale Alumni Association of Maryland elected as members of the Association the following Yale men residing in Baltimore: W. G. Baker, Jr., '96; L. A. Chase S., '98; G. A. Colston, '98; D. L. Eddy, '98; W. G. Erving, '98; N. S. Ferry, S., '98; J. F. Grant, S., '98; W. H. Glenny, S., '94; W. F. Jelke, S., '98; N. A. Kent, '95; W. P. Lindley, '97; S. A. Marshall, '98; J. S. McFarland, S., '98.

An intercollegiate lacrosse league was formed last week between Harvard, Columbia and Cornell, and a schedule of games is now being prepared. A hope is expressed that a team may be formed at Yale, which is invited to come into the league. An attempt to raise a team here last year failed because of lack of interest in the game.

Yale won the second game of hockey with the University of Pennsylvania on Jan. 4, at the West Park Ice Palace in Philadelphia, by the score of 3 goals to 1.
