

FOOTBALL IN THE SCHOOLS.

Review of the Work in Principal Eastern Institutions.

There is given below a brief review of what the leading Eastern preparatory Schools have done in football the past season. As far as possible the destination is given of each of the players, who graduate from the schools next June. There has been a general advance in the game due to better coaching, but few star players have been developed. The review follows:

ANDOVER.

The season at Andover has been very satisfactory this Fall, as the team defeated Lawrenceville by the score of 11 to 0, and also played a tie game with Exeter, neither side scoring. The results of some of the other important games were: Andover 11, Yale 1901, 0; Massachusetts Institute of Technology 6, Andover 5; Williams 6, Andover 0; New Hampshire College 0, Andover 24; Worcester Academy 5, Andover 5.

The team lined up as follows: Rafferty, l.e.; Davis, l.t.; O'Neil, l.g.; Newton, c.; Holt, r.g.; Bloomer, r.t.; Wallace, r. e.; Howard, q.b.; Collins, l.h.b.; McAbee, r.h.b.; Cullinane, f.b. Of these only three will enter College next Fall. Bloomer will go to Yale and Holt and Newton will attend Princeton.

LAWRENCEVILLE.

Lawrenceville was defeated by Andover this year, but otherwise the season was fairly satisfactory. Hotchkiss had the most successful football season in her history. Although only six games were played she made 208 points to her opponents 6.

The team was under the charge of Mr. Monohan, the School's physical director, who has coached the team for three years, and who was formerly connected with the Yale Gymnasium.

The team averaged 162 pounds and was as follows: Moore, l.e.; Fowler, l.t.; Wells, l.g.; Sousa, c.; G. Goss, r.g.; Platt, r.t.; Oliver, r.e.; Jennings, l.h.; Shaw, r.h.; C. Goss, f.b. and Davis, Captain, q.b.

ST. PAUL'S, GARDEN CITY.

The St. Paul's Eleven excelled in team work more than in individual play, and although there were no men on it who could be called stars, the standard of play was very high. The coaching was done by John Lotz, Captain of the Williams Ninety-Eight team, and Dr. John Ray Hare, Amherst Ninety. Seven of the men who played in the championship games had never represented St. Paul's on the gridiron before.

ST. PAUL'S, CONCORD.

The team had no regular coach, E. Corning, Captain, and several of the Alumni doing all the work.

Four men will graduate, Corning and White going to Yale, and Reney and Fay going to Harvard.

UNIVERSITY SCHOOL.

The season at the University School, of Cleveland, O., has been very satisfactory. The team has defeated the Shady Side Academy, of Pittsburg, the West and Central High Schools of Cleveland, and lost to the Oberlin High School. Fauver, of Oberlin, and Gaston, of the '97 Washington and Jefferson eleven, have had charge of the coaching. From one end of the land to the other, wherever men who demand the best are found, Fownes' Gloves are the recognized standard of merit and fashion. They are best for dress, for the street, for riding, driving, or golfing — for all occasions and all purposes. To wear them is to be correctly gloved. All leading haberdashers sell them.

TAFT'S SCHOOL.

The Taft's School team was coached by O. G. Cartwright, Yale '93, and although it was very light, averaging only 141 pounds, it managed to go through the season very successfully, being defeated only by Hotchkiss. The principal games resulted as follows: Taft 11, Hillhouse High School 0; Taft 6, Pomfret 0; Taft 32, Black Hall 0; Hotchkiss 24, Taft 0. The team lined up as follows: Hudson, l.e.; Bristol, l.t.; Patterson, l.g.; Lacout, c.; Welton, Wiggan, r.t.; Chapin, r.e.; Perin, q.; Mann, l.h.b.; Sherwood, r.h.b.; Overman, f.b. The substitutes were Lamb, Platt, Raymond and Hazard. Of these, Wiggan, Bristol, Chapin, Hudson, Lamb and Hazard will enter Yale next Fall, and Overman will go to Princeton.
