SOPHOMORE GERMAN.

As soon as the concert ended about thirty-five couples went to Warner Hall, where the Sophomore german was danced.

The hall was decorated with palms, ferns and other potted plants massed on either side of the doorway, around the musician's gallery and at the stairways leading up on to the stage. The side walls were draped with wild Southern smilax, which also covered the boxes. A large class flag was hung above the stage and four smaller ones over the mirrors. The oars of last year's Freshman crew were also hung on the walls. The favors were made by Mrs. Collins of New York City, and were arranged about the fireplace where the patronesses were seated. The patronesses were: Mrs. H. L. Hotchkiss; Mrs. W. L. Phelps, and Mrs. Ring of New Haven; Mrs. A. C. Hord of Cleveland and Mrs. Riggs of New York City. The favors consisted of ornamented staffs, sachet bags, distaffs, and sachets for the ladies; whistles, fancy pipes, Japanese heads, and horse shoes for the gentlemen. In addition to these there were souvenir book marks of silver with the Class numerals engraved on them and engraved silver paper cutters, the former for the ladies and the later for the gentlemen. A supper was served by Maresi of New York.

The cotillion was led by H. S. Curtiss and J. A. Keppelman. The following couples danced: W. B. Allen with Miss Allen of Hartford, Conn.; R. L. Atkinson with Miss Newport of St. Paul, Minn.; P. R. Boocock, 1900; S. Campbell, 1900, and G. W. Simmons, 1900, in their rooms on the fifth floor of the Hutchinson. Mrs. Wm. Rockefeller, Mrs. D. G. Hamilton, Mrs. L. A. Barbour, and Mrs. A. S. Campbell were the chaperones.

Another tea given in the Hutchinson Tuesday afternoon was that by H. Chisholm, A. B. Berger, R. M. Newport, Jr., E. L. Jones, and P. Mitchell, all 1901, at which Mrs. Riggs, Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. Thompson were the chaperones.

G. S. Stillman, 1901, and W. P. Clyde, Jr., 1901, gave a tea at their rooms in the Hutchinson, at which the chaperones were Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Cameron.

H. Bissell, '99, and G. S. Chappell, '99, gave a tea in their rooms at 20 Vanderbilt Hall on Sunday afternoon.

ACADEMIC TASTES

Make New Haven's standard in materials and styles of personal attire at least as high as that of any city in the country. We realized that when we came here. We have worked to meet and to anticipate the exacting demands. Yale men have generously responded to these efforts on our part. We reciprocate with still more zealous endeavor.
