Entirely and permanently. Could you support your family? What a foolish question! Yet Professional men, whose income depends upon their strength and health, are living just as foolish questions when they take the chances of going without Life Insurance.

When your income stops permanently it is Life Insurance which will supply the deficiency to the family. Policies issued by The Prudential are especially adapted to the needs of Professional men and their families.

To Psi Upsilon Men.

The first edition of the catalogue of Psi Upsilon Fraternity, since 1888, is now being prepared. The new catalogue will present the names of about 10,000 members, divided among twenty-one chapters. The accurate compilation of the records of these men is a very difficult matter, even with the great assistance which the different chapters can give. The members are dispersed all over the country and in many foreign countries. It is therefore asked that any, who see this article will at once assist the work of preparation of the catalogue by sending to the Executive Council, P. O. Box 201, Brooklyn, N. Y., information on the following points, about themselves and any friends in the Fraternity whom they know and who may be difficult to reach. The points on which information is desired are as follows: (1) Name, address and chapter; (2) date of graduation and entrance into Fraternity; (3) occupation; (4) degrees, with names of colleges conferring same, and dates; (5) a brief statement of official positions held at any time, with dates; (6) particulars regarding the decease of brethren known to the correspondent.

Yale Well Represented.

The thirteenth annual concert of the Gounod Society will be held at the Hyperion Theater, Thursday evening, Feb. 9. The words selected for performance are a "Requiem Mass," by Charles Villiers Stanford, and "The Swan and the Skylark," a lyric cantata by Arthur Goring Thomas. These are the soloists of the evening: Miss Yvonne de Treville, soprano; Miss Edith Miller, contralto; Evan Williams, tenor and Herbert Witherspoon, Yale ex-'95. Besides Harry B. Jepson, Yale '93, who is the accompanist of the Society, these Yale men sing in the chorus: Professor A. T. Hadley, '76; Professor J. C. Schwab, '86; Dr. G. D. Kellogg, '95; H. W. Fisher, L.S.; W. D. Beach, T.S.; J. A. Farley, '99; H. R. Norman, 2d, '99; W. E. Davenport, '99; D. C. Drew, 1900; A. F. Way, '99; G. A. Welch, 1901; C. A. Kellogg, 1900; F. V. Sikes, 1900; F. B. Makepeace, 1901; E. C. Vaile, 1901; J. D. Carson, '99; F. J. Hall, '99; H. A. Jump, T.S.; S. B. Morton, 1900, and J. S. Porter, '99.

Inter-Class Athletic Meet.

Captain Fisher of the Track Team has announced that an inter-class athletic meet will be held this Spring about three weeks after the commencement of outdoor work. Inter-class athletic games will be an innovation at Yale, and this meet has been arranged for the purpose of stimulating a general interest in track work throughout the University.

C. B. Spitzer, '99; Bascom Johnson, 1900; A. H. Richardson, 1901 and D. Boardman, 1902, have been appointed Lieutenants by Captain Fisher. These men will give special attention to the preparation of their classmates for the games and assist Captain Fisher and Trainer Copeland in their work. Another innovation is the appointment of three Freshman stewards, whose duty it will be to look up available material for the Track Team.

Welch Hall Fire.

Shortly after 10 o'clock on Thursday evening, Feb. 2, fire was discovered in the room of C. P. Capen, 1900, in Welch Hall. W. F. Hoysradt, 1901, turned in an alarm from box 244, corner of High and Chapel streets and a few minutes later Officers Donnelly and Weiser sent in an alarm from box 24 on the Treasury building. The double alarm brought hundreds of people in a very few minutes, but the Fire Department soon had the blaze extinguished. The interior woodwork of the room was destroyed and most of student Capen's personal effects. Outside of the soaking of the room below, no further damage was done, and three or four hundred dollars will cover the loss. The fire probably caught from the fireplace while Capen was at the theater.
