

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Every alumnus is invited to contribute to this column, news concerning himself or concerning any other alumnus. The column is intended to keep Yale men informed about each other. Anyone who contributes to it helps a good Yale object and pleases and interests other Yale men.

'50—Rev. Leonard Woolsey Bacon, of Norwich, has accepted an invitation to speak on the life and character of the late H. L. Goodwin, at the First Church in East Hartford, in the near future.

'52 M.S.—Dr. Chas. A. Lindsley was re-elected a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven, at the recent annual meeting.

'53—Hon. Andrew D. White, at present United States Ambassador at Berlin, was appointed last week by Secretary of State Hay, to be the head of the United States delegation to the Disarmament Congress, which will meet at The Hague in the latter part of May.

'54—The note recently published about the election of Edward Dubois to a Justiceship in Rhode Island was in error. Mr. Dubois is a civil engineer and railroad builder, and has lived in Peru, South America, for the last twenty-seven years. The error occurred through a similarity of names.

'61 L.S.—Charles H. Fowler was elected a Vestryman of Christ Church, New Haven, April 3.

'61—Oliver McClintock has a forcible article, entitled, "The Pulpit and Good Citizenship," in the Presbyterian Banner, for March 30th.

'61—Stanford Newel, United States Minister to the Netherlands has been appointed by Secretary of State Hay to be one of the United States delegates to the Czar's Disarmament Congress, which will meet at The Hague late in May.

'61—Prof. Tracy Peck, Director of the American School of Classical Studies in Rome, delivered, February 28, the third in the series of lectures for the session 1898-1899, before the British and American Archaeological Society of Rome. His subject was "Gleanings from Roman Epitaphs."

'62—At the organization of the New Haven Trust Company, which took place recently, Pierce N. Welch was elected a Director.

'69—Dr. J. P. C. Foster was recently re-elected a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven.

'69—Eli Whitney has been made one of the Directors of the newly organized New Haven Trust Company.

'69—Prof. Rufus B. Richardson has an article in the April Century Magazine, entitled "American Discoveries at Corinth."

'69—Thomas Hooker was elected Vice-President of the New Haven Trust Company at its organization which took place recently.

'69—C. T. Driscoll was nominated for Mayor of New Haven at the Democratic City Convention Wednesday, April 5. He received 42 of the 76 votes which were polled.

'70—Morris F. Tyler is a Director of the recently organized New Haven Trust Company.

'70 S.—Prof. C. S. Hastings has an article in the April number of the American Journal of Science, entitled "A New Type of Telescope Objective," especially adapted for stereoscopic use.

'72—Professor Theodore S. Woolsey addressed the third annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, at Philadelphia, Friday afternoon, April 7. His address was on "The Foreign Policy of the United States."

'73 S.—Professor Andrew W. Phillips has been re-elected a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven.

'74 L.S.—Henry F. English has been elected a Director of the recently organized New Haven Trust Company.

'75—The mother of Parker Corning died of heart disease on Easter Sunday.

'75 S.—Burton Mansfield was recently re-elected a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven.

'75 S.—Dr. C. Purdy Lindsley was recently re-elected a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven.

'75 S.—Professor Russell H. Chittenden, who was appointed by the government as one of the chemists to analyze the so-called "embalmed beef," testified before the Court of Inquiry at Washington last week. His testimony was entirely favorable to the wholesomeness of the beef.

'78—John Addison Porter, Secretary to the President, is confined to his home by illness. Mr. Porter is overworked and by order of his physician he probably will go away as soon as he is able to do so, for a week or two of rest.

'79—Poultney Bigelow contributed an article to the April St Nicholas, entitled, "Lost in Russia."

'79 S.—John C. Gallagher was elected Secretary of the New Haven Chamber of Commerce, at the fifty-ninth annual meeting, March 28.

'80—Walter Camp has an article on the subject, "Choosing a President for Yale," in the issue of Collier's of April 12.

'81—Henry C. White is a Director of the New Haven Trust Company, recently organized.

'82—Archibald A. Welch was elected to the High School Committee in Hartford, Conn., at the recent city elections.

'82 S.—Prof. L. V. Pirsson contributed to the April number of the American Journal of Science, an article entitled, "Phenocrysts of Intrusive Igneous Rocks."

'84 L.S.—A. McC. Mathewson has gone to Lakewood, N. J., for a short visit.

'84—Miss Margaret Howard Post, daughter of Mr. Richard Bagley Post, will be married to William McMurtrie Speer in Baltimore, April 26.

'84 T.S.—Professor E. H. Sneath addressed the Men's Club of New Haven, at the United Church, on Sunday evening, April 9th. His subject was "Ten-nyson on Immortality."

'85—Louis A. Mansfield has been re-elected a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven.

'85—Henry Fresenius is the democratic candidate for the office of Treasurer of the city of New Haven.

'85—At the Hartford municipal elections, April 3, Lucius F. Robinson, Republican, was elected a Grand Juror.

'85—L. A. Mansfield was elected to the Building Committee of the Ansan-tawae Club at the annual meeting held recently in New Haven.

'86—Alfred Cowles has been coaching the University Crew during the past week.

'86—Prof. J. C. Schwab was elected a Vestryman of Trinity Church Parish, New Haven, at the annual meeting held April 3.

'86—Francis R. Cooley, Republican, was elected to the High School Committee at the recent elections in Hartford, Conn.

'89 L.S.—Prof. G. E. Beers was recently re-elected Treasurer and Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New Haven.

'89—James Gamble Rogers, who returned last Winter from Paris, has taken offices in the Ashland Block, Chicago. Mr. Rogers has been studying in the Ecole des Beaux Arts and working in Paris for five years and a half. In the school he was medalled both in construction and in architecture. In his examination for his diploma he received a mark of four on a marking schedule which ranged from one to four. The subject for his diploma was "An Embassy for the United States of America at Paris."

'91 L.S.—Burton L. Newton, Republican, was elected a School Visitor at the recent municipal elections in Hartford, Conn.

'91 S.—Homer S. Cummings delivered an address before the Stamford, Conn., Democratic City Convention, March 28.

'91 S.—The marriage of Miss Anna Watson O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. O'Connor, to Warren B. Nash, took place at the home of the bride's parents, No. 12 East 44th st., New York City, Monday, April 3.

'92—George Redington Montgomery, of the Yale Divinity School, has been licensed to preach in any part of the United States, including the missionary and colonial fields, for four years.

'92 S.—The marriage of Miss Emily Vanderbilt Sloane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, to John Henry Hammond, took place at the home of the bride's parents, 5th ave. and 52th st., April 5. Ogden H. Hammond, '93 S., brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The ushers were: W. V. S. Thorne, '85 S.; Herbert Parsons, '90; J. G. Stokes, '92 S.; G. A. Gordon, '92 S.; Allan A. Robbins, '93 S.; Alonzo Potter, '94; William Sloane, '95, and C. K. Beekman.

'93—Winthrop E. Dwight contributed an article to the March number of the Yale Law Journal, entitled, "The Affaire Dreyfus."

'94—Edwin O. Holter has changed his address from the office of Howland & Murray, 35 Wall street, to the law office of Simpson, Thacher & Barnum, 10 Wall street, New York City.

'94—Miss Rowena Whitman, daughter of the late W. C. Whitman, of Washington, D. C., was married to Winthrop McKim, at noon, Wednesday, April 5, at St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church in Washington.

'94 S.—S. B. Patterson has changed his address from Torrington, Conn., to 250 Dunham ave., Cleveland, O.

'94 S.—The marriage of Miss Anna Cushman Robbins, daughter of Silas Webster Robbins, to Wilfred W. Savage, took place April 4. Mr. and Mrs. Savage will be at home Wednesdays, June 7 and 14, from four until six at their home on Broad street, Wethersfield, Conn.

'94—The marriage of Miss Gertrude May Cameron to Charles Herbert Buell, took place Tuesday afternoon, April 4, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Minnie E. Cameron, 772 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn. Among the ushers were Winthrop H. Duncan, '94, and Ralph S. Hull, '94.

'95 S.—Harry W. Foote has gone to study in Germany.

'95 and '97 L.S.—John Elliott has opened a law office at 157 Church street, New Haven, Conn.

'95—Shirley High has associated himself in the practice of law with the firm of Pence & Carpenter, under the name of Pence, Carpenter & High.

'95—Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Montgomery were among the passengers on the steamship "Paris," formerly the "Yale," making a cruise in Southern waters.

'95—H. P. Driggs, formerly of the law firm of Hornblower, Byrne, Taylor & Miller, 30 Broad street, New York City, has entered the law office of Taylor & Seymour at 91 Broadway.

'95—Josiah H. Peck, who after graduation from College spent two years at the Harvard Law School, and who was for a time with Bingham & Bayliss, at 37 Liberty st., has opened an office at the same address.

'95—The marriage of Miss Theodora Irving Knight, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Irving Knight of 195 Beacon street, Boston, to G. K. B. Wade, took place April 5, at Trinity Church, Boston. The best man was R. B. Wade, '93. Among the ushers were: R. C. Nesbit, '95; F. L. Lee, '95, and E. G. Taylor, '95.

'96—Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Robbins will spend the Summer in Southern France.

'96—Wolcott P. Robbins is with the law firm of Taylor & Seymour, at 91 Broadway, New York City.

'96 and '98 L.S.—Addison Strong Pratt is now in the law office of Ward, Hayden & Satterlee, 120 Broadway, New York City.

'96—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lawrence announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Juliette H. Lawrence, to George E. Bulkley.

'96—The address of W. G. Baker, Jr., is The Albion, Baltimore, Md. He is in his Senior year at the Maryland University Law School.

'96—William S. Miller is practicing law, in the office of Follansbee & Follansbee in the Home Life Insurance Building in Chicago.

'96—J. W. Wickenden left the Cripple Creek district, February 14, to engage in a contract in shaft-sinking on the Gold Crystal Mine, Ward Mining District, Boulder County, Col.

'97 S.—The address of Rathbone DeBuis is 464 LaSalle avenue, Chicago, Ill.

'97—Miss Lorena Kears and J. W. Bryan were married March 26, 1899, at Lake Charles, La.

'97—Philip H. Bailey was recently appointed a Lieutenant under the new army bill, but declined the appointment.

'97 S.—George Foster Sanford, who was recently mustered out of the United States Volunteer service, has accepted the position of coach of the Columbia University football team. He will take charge of the Spring training at once.

ex-'99 S.—Franklin Ballou, Jr., has left his regiment, the First Colorado Infantry, U. S. V., and has entered the Class of 1901 S.

YALE OBITUARIES.

REV. ALFRED L. SKINNER, '49.

Rev. Alfred L. Skinner, '49, died at his home in Bucksport, Me., on March 25, 1899, from apoplexy, at the age of 74.

Mr. Skinner was born at Bucksport, Me., November 22, 1824. After graduation from Yale with the Class of Forty-Nine he spent the next four years in studying for the Ministry at the Bangor and Andover Seminaries, and preaching a part of the time in Frankfort, Me. In the Autumn of 1855 he was settled in the pastorate of the Congregational Church at Rockport, Me., and in this office he remained until the Spring of 1857, when he was obliged to give up his profession by reason of enfeebled health. For the next four years he was in the U. S. Engineer's office, at first at Fort Knox, and later at Portland, and the next year he established his residence in Bucksport, where he has made his home since that time. In 1861 he received the appointment of the Postmastership at Bucksport, a position which he held for twenty-six years, [Continued on 251st page.]

THEODORE B. STARR

JEWELER AND SILVERSMITH,
206 FIFTH AVE.,
MADISON SQUARE,
NEW YORK.

... ARE ...

Highest Grade.

Write for complete and illustrated Catalogue.

THE BRIDGEPORT GUN IMPLEMENT COMPANY.

RETAIL BRANCHES:

New York, —313-315 Broadway, and West 59th St.
Boston, —Iver Johnson Sporting Goods Company, 408 Washington Street.
Brooklyn, —Frederick Loeser & Co., Fulton Street.
Philadelphia, —Geo. B. Bains & Sons, 1028 Chestnut Street.
San Francisco, —425-427 Market Street.

Fine Stationery and Engraving, Die-cutting and Heraldic Work. Wedding Invitations, Reception Cards and Visiting Cards.
The Designing and Engraving of Book-plates a specialty.
Sample book of paper will be sent on application.