Eighty-Nine.

Anyone who has information concerning the location of Messrs. Barnes, Douglas, Copland, Hanlon, Letcher and White of the Class of Eighty-Nine, will confer a favor upon the Class Secretary and aid the work of preparing the Class Record by sending said information to Charles H. Sherrill, 30 Broad street, New York City.

Information is also wanted by the Secretary concerning the following ex-members of the Class: Harry Webb McClellan, Endicott Greenwood Putnam, Albert LeRoy Skinner, William Carver Williams and Joseph Lafon Winchell.

Ninety-Three Dinner.

You are invited to attend a dinner of Yale Ninety-Three men at the Yale Club, 17 East 26th street (Madison Square), New York City, on Saturday evening, April 29, 1899, at 7 p. m. Cost, $2.00, including everything. Sexennial and Bi-centennial plans will be discussed. Tell all the men you meet about this and come if possible. The dinner is open to all Ninety-Three men, whether members of Yale Club or not. Reply at once.

NOAH H. SWAYNE, 2D.,
 Class Secretary.

The Ninety Reunion.

The following members of the Class of Ninety were present at the reunion held Friday, April 14, at the Yale Club, of men living in the vicinity of New York. Bayard; Baldwin; Crall; Durant; Durand; Haslam; Holt; Hanson; Percy; Parker; Robinson; McClintock; Parsons; Collins; Lusk; Kneeland; Tracy; Opdyke; Danforth; White; Meara; Porter, and Farnham. William Parker, Jr., presided as toastmaster. Speeches and songs combined to make the evening pass very rapidly.

Everyone had a good time. The Committee was: Bayard, Haslam and Parsons.

Oregon Yale Association.

The Yale Alumni Association of Oregon gave its third annual banquet at the Hotel Portland, in the city of Portland, Saturday evening, April 8. The following graduates from the different departments of the University were present: B. B. Beekman, '88 L.S., President; R. L. Glisan, '90, Secretary; J. W. Hill, '78; H. C. Jefferds, '82; C. F. Adams, '81 S.; J. C. Flanders, '85; S. W. Scott, '86; N. E. Ayer, '86 S.; H. G. Platt, '88; R. T. Platt, '89; H. F. Conner, '93 S.; T. W. Noon, '96, and H. B. Auger, '97.

A number of graduates from Harvard, etc., were present as guests. Letters from absent members were read, toasts responded to, stories of varied hue and college reminiscences were indulged in and hearty enthusiasm manifested. The Association has about 25 members, most of them residing in Portland and each year a prize is offered to the winner of the best competitive entrance examination to Yale from Oregon.

Yale is the only Eastern University or College which has an active alumni organization in Oregon, and it was at the Yale banquet last year that steps were taken to form a University Club in Portland.

Cincinnati Alumni and the Presidency.

The Cincinnati Yale Alumni Association held a meeting at the Queen City Club, Tuesday afternoon, April 11th. A luncheon was served and a large number of alumni were present. The meeting was presided over by Vice-President George W. Johnson, in the absence of President William L. Dickson, '78. The purpose of this meeting was to consider the subject of Yale's next President. Judge William H. Taft, '78, was called upon and he briefly set forth what seemed to him the requirements of a President, closing his remarks by introducing the name of Professor A. T. Hadley, as being that of a man who was thoroughly fitted for such a position. Judge R. B. Smith, '76, followed, giving emphasis to the remarks of Judge Taft and in addition spoke of Professor Hadley in his relation to him as a classmate.

On motion of W. A. DeCamp, '90, it was moved that resolutions be drawn up setting forth the name of Professor Hadley as the choice of the Cincinnati alumni. This motion was seconded by Judge Howard C. Hollister, '78. This motion was unanimously passed and the resolutions are as follows:

"Resolved, that in the opinion of the Yale alumni of Cincinnati, Prof. Arthur T. Hadley possesses in the highest degree all the great qualities which the presidency of Yale demands; that in his charge the high scholarship and great prestige of the University would be maintained and its field of usefulness would be extended to meet the progressive needs of the future; that this expression of the views of the Cincinnati alumni be respectfully submitted to the members of the Yale Corporation for their consideration."

In addition, several speeches were made endorsing A. L. Ripley, '78, as member of the Corporation.

"Gowf."

You can pronounce it that way or any other way that appeals to your discriminating sense of Orthoepy. The choice of pronunciation is a deliberate act for which there is plenty of time and a multitude of contradictory authorities to suit all preconceived prejudices.

But when it comes to the game itself, one is precipitated into a succession of mental and moral crises, when the judicial sense flees and the sensitive Caddy flees, and gentle people look the other way, and when one's state of mind makes it quite impossible to discriminate as to either the form or the substance of one's language. You can reduce the number and the intensity of these crises considerably by making the tools you work with the best that can be found. You can address A. G. Spalding & Bros., at either New York or Chicago.
