

A Providence University Club

College graduates in Providence, R. I., have recently been agitating the formation of a University Club in that city, and about thirty were present at the first meeting of those interested in the project. At this meeting S. Minot Pitman of Harvard, was elected Chairman, and Professor E. B. DeLabarre, Secretary. A Committee whose duty it is to make a regular canvass for members was also appointed, consisting of the following: Professor E. B. DeLabarre of Amherst; S. Minot Pitman of Harvard; Rev. A. M. Lord of Harvard; W. R. Callender, Yale '94; Dr. J. E. Sullivan, College of New York; G. H. Webb of Brown; Judge Loring M. Cook of Brown; Ex-Mayor E. D. McGuinness of Brown; A. A. Baker of Brown; F. M. Day of Brown.

Although this Committee has been organized but a short time, it has met with remarkable success, having a pledged membership of one hundred and three, among whom are United States Senator George Peabody Wetmore, Yale '67, and twenty-five other Yale graduates. The Committee has the refusal of a house on College street, which will be engaged when two hundred and fifty names are secured.

The object of the Club is similar to that of all University clubs throughout the country—sociability and a spirit of fraternity among college men. It is of course the ultimate intention of the members of the Club to erect a club house.

Ninety-Three Dinner.

A dinner of the Ninety-Three men in and about New York was held at the Yale Club, Saturday evening, April 29. Twenty-three men were in attendance, as follows: Parsons; Swayne; Chatfield; L. E. Brown; W. E. Dwight; H. R. Dwight; H. C. Allen; A. J. Martin; R. Burchard; J. W. Allen; C. J. Fay; J. B. Cooke; C. R. Hickox, Jr.; C. D. Bliss; W. J. Lamson; H. D. Bradley; T. A. Gardiner; John H. Morgan; T. C. Trask; H. H. Bottome; H. B. Barnes, Jr.; F. W. Hastings, Jr., and L. A. Welles.

W. E. Dwight reported, for the Sexennial Committee, that a hall and band had been engaged for Sexennial celebration, and that thus far somewhat over twenty men had paid the amount of the Sexennial assessment to the Treasurer of the Committee. He reported further that the Sexennial Committee had procured a hall for a supper, to be held Wednesday, October 21, 1901, the principal day of the Bi-centennial celebration. This will not be expected to interfere with either the Sexennial or the Decennial, as it comes two years after the one and two years before the other.

Songs, which they made familiar to the Class in College, were sung with apparently undiminished zeal by Gardiner; H. C. Allen; Bottome and Swayne. As Breeze was unavoidably detained in San Francisco, the Scotch song which he introduced and frequently sung for the Class, was sung by all present with great gusto.

The meeting lasted until Sunday morning.

Kentucky Association.

Hon. J. Stoddard Johnston, '53, President of the Yale Alumni Association of Kentucky, has appointed as members of the Executive Committee for the ensuing year, Messrs. Charles T. Ballard, '70 S., Chairman; F. E. Gatchel, '93, and G. S. Cowan, '98.

Yale Golfers Win.

During the past week the University Golf team played only one match. This was played with the Orford Golf Club at the New Haven Golf Club links, Wednesday, May 3, and resulted in a victory for the Yale team by the score of 29 to 7. The individual scores were as follows: J. Reid, Jr., 8; J. P. Cheney 4; W. B. Smith 4; W. B. Cheney 0; T. M. Robertson 1; T. L. Cheney 0; L. P. Myers 3; R. S. Cutler 0; F. C. Havemeyer 1; P. Cheney 0; E. F. Hinkle 0; E. R. Cooley 7; E. S. Ives 8; H. S. Redfield 0; L. Cogswell 4; N. C. Cheney 0.

On Saturday, May 6, A. T. Dwight, 1900 S., defeated Champion Findlay S. Douglas in the Crescent A. C. match.
