Harvard Eights Chosen.

The last of the Harvard inter-club rowing races was held Tuesday, May 2, and resulted in a victory for the first Newell Eight with the second Weld, first Weld and second Newell following in the order named. The sixteen men forming those first two boats are now the University squad and are rowing in the first and second boats under the coaching of Mr. Storrow. A noticeable fact is the comparatively light weight of the whole squad, the average being about 167 pounds. This is the order of the first Eight as it rowed Saturday: Stroke, Harding; 7, Higginson; 6, Tilton; 5, Perkins; 4, Bancroft; 3, Kernan; 2, Sheafe; bow, Hawkins.

New Corinthian Club House.

The Yale Corinthian Yacht Club has recently taken a new and more convenient club house at Morris Cove, and on Wednesday, May 3, the formal opening was held. In addition to a provision for better service of meals in the new house, the bath houses under the pavilion have been fitted with shower baths. A man has also been engaged to take care of the boats belonging to members of the Club and it is expected that the right to use the Pequot Club dock will soon be granted to the Club. The increased interest taken by the men makes it probable that a regatta will be held in the early part of June. The officers of the Club are: Commodore, J. F. Archbald, '99 S.; Vice-Commodore, E. A. McCullough, '99 S.; Rear-Commodore, F. C. Havemeyer, 1900; Secretary and Treasurer, T. E. Franklin, 1900.

Track Contests.

In order to stimulate interest in track athletics and to give men, who might not otherwise be successful, a chance to win the cups which were offered, a series of handicap contests have been held lately. The first took place on Wednesday, May 3, and resulted as follows: Hammer throw won by R. B. Hixon, 1901; shot put won by D. R. Francis, Jr., 1900; 220 yard hurdles won by W. M. Fincke, 1901 S. The second set of events took place Saturday, May 6, and resulted as follows: 150 yards dash won by J. W. Morey, 1900 S.; running high jump won by G. W. Smith, 1901; putting the shot, won by R. B. Robertson, 1900; hammer throw won by M. L. McBride, 1900; broad jump won by I. Richards, Jr., 1900 S. On Monday, May 8, a 150 yards dash was won by J. W. Morey, 1900 S.; running high jump won by G. W. Smith, 1901; shot put won by R. B. Robertson, 1900. After the Harvard games, there will be another contest in the hammer throw and in the shot put, and a 600 yard run. R. J. Wilbur, Sp., has offered a gold medal for the best showing in the series of shot put contests, and the Athletic Association has offered cups for the best work in the rest of the events.

College Baseball Scores.

The scores of the more important college games, played during the past week, were as follows:
