Long Island Alumni.

The Spring meeting of the Yale Alumni Association of Long Island was held at the Brooklyn Club, Friday, May 12. About sixty members attended and listened to a stereopticon lecture by Prof. Louis V. Pirsson on "A tramp through the Caucusus." It was aimed to make this meeting the agency for bringing before this Association the plans and purposes of the Bi-centennial Fund Committee and this object was accomplished by the vigorous and enthusiastic presentation of the cause in the speeches of Mr. Thomas Thacher, '71, and Mr. John K. Creevey, '66. For the lighter exercises in the grill room, the Association drew upon its own resources and Mr. F. J. Vernon, '93 S., Mr. Charles T. Catlin, '56, and others were called upon to supply the lack of more professional talent, which sufficient to say, was not for a moment missed.

With the new accessions of younger graduates the Association entered upon the coming year stronger in numbers and with still more enthusiastic devotion to the interests of Yale.
