

W. S. Terribery, '93, was commissioned May 15, 1898, as First Lieutenant and Assistant Surgeon of the Second Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers. Was stationed at Sea Girt, N. J., from May 15 to June 1. On June 4, was assigned to the Seventh Army Corps, Jacksonville, Fla. He was on duty with his regiment until June 10, as First Lieutenant; with Ambulance Company, Second Division, Seventh Army Corps, until mustered out of service Sept. 1; resigned Oct. 1. Appointed Acting Assistant Surgeon, United States Army, Oct. 1.

Ninety-Three S.

Nelson B. Burr, '93 S., enlisted May 18, 1898, in the Twelfth Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry. Volunteered as Second Lieutenant; promoted to First Lieutenant, May 20. Went into camp at Camp Townsend, Peekskill, N. Y., May 2; to Chickamauga Park, Ga., May 23; to Lexington, Ky., Aug. 24; to Cuba for garrison duty, Jan. 1, 1899. Previous to the war had been for two years a Second Lieutenant in the Twelfth Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

Sheldon Cary, '93 S., served during the war in the First Ohio Cavalry. Promoted from Private to Quartermaster Sergeant; promoted to Second Lieutenant. Encamped at Columbus, O., Chickamauga Park, Ga., Lakeland, Fla. Previous to the war had been for two years in Troop A of Cleveland.

George C. Fouse, '93 S., and ex-'99 L.S., enlisted June 2, 1898, in Company D, Fourth Regiment, United States Volunteer Infantry (immunes) under the command of Colonel James S. Pettit, formerly military instructor at Yale. Was appointed Regimental Clerk from the start. The regiment was mobilized at Camp Cobb, Fredericksburg, Va. Sent to Camp Cuba Libre, Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 17, 1898, to form part of General Lee's command (Seventh Army Corps). Regiment was detached from Seventh Army Corps early in October and ordered to Manzanillo, Cuba, Province of Santiago. Sailed for Manzanillo, from Fernandina, Fla., on the transport Roumania Oct. 12, 1898, arriving there Oct. 18. Taken ill with typhoid while en route to Manzanillo; recovered, but shortly after had a relapse. Recovered again and went back to duty, Dec. 14, 1898. Applied for discharge Jan. 24, 1899. Application was granted and he was honorably discharged from the service of the United States, Feb. 22, 1899.

Harry P. Ritchie, '93 S., enlisted May 5, 1898, as First Lieutenant and Assistant Surgeon in the Thirteenth Regiment, Minnesota Volunteers. Sailed from San Francisco for Manila, June 27; arrived at Manila, July 31. Participated in the battle and capture of Manila Aug. 13. Was acting Regimental Surgeon in the field, for three months, and in that capacity was Police Surgeon of the city, as the Thirteenth was the Provost guard. In November was placed in charge of the regimental hospital, continuing that service until recent fighting called the regiment to the field. Promoted to Captaincy, Dec. 25, 1898. The Thirteenth Minnesota has seen active service every day since its arrival in the Philippines, and has suffered severe losses in killed and wounded.

Allan A. Robbins, '93 S., volunteered May 2, 1898, in Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry, and went into camp at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I., the same day. Was mustered into the service of the United States about May 20. The Troop moved to Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va., May 26. Mr. Robbins was commissioned a First Lieutenant in the First Regiment, United States Volunteer Engineers, June 22, for excellence in competitive examination. Stationed at Peekskill. Sailed from New York Aug. 11, for Porto Rico, where they arrived Aug. 16. Resigned commission as First Lieutenant, First United States Volunteer Engineers, Oct. 8, 1898.

Previous to the outbreak of the war he had been for three years a member of Troop A, N. G. N. Y.

Frederic C. Spencer, '93 S., was commissioned June 15, 1898, as an Assistant Engineer with rank of Ensign. Ordered to the U. S. S. monitor Ajax, July 8. Stationed at League Island.

Detached Aug. 23. Honorably discharged from the service of the United States Aug. 26.

Previous to the war had been a member of Engineers' Division, N. B., C. N. G., since Feb. 13, 1896. Appointed Assistant Engineer, Engineers' Division, N. B., C. N. G.

Richard P. Strong, '93 S., First Lieutenant, United States Army, was assigned June 4, 1898, to the Medical Corps, United States Army, as Acting Assistant Surgeon. On duty in the Fourth Army Corps Field Hospital at Tampa, Fla., from June 6 until Sept. 19. Contracted typhoid fever and was ill at West Tampa Hospital from Aug. 7 until Sept. 19. On Sept. 19, was ordered to report for duty at the headquarters of the Fourth Army Corps, Huntsville, Ala.

George Curtis Treadwell, '93 S., Colonel and Military Secretary; Aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor Black of New York Jan. 9, 1897 to Dec. 31, 1898. Was assigned to assist in inspecting New York State troops at Camp Townsend and Camp Black May 11, 1898, and to investigate southern military camps and hospitals containing New York troops, Aug. 29 to Sept. 5, 1898. He enlisted in the Third Signal Corps, N. G. N. Y., Oct. 21, 1893; was honorably discharged from same, Jan. 9, 1897, by reason of promotion as Colonel and Military Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief. Jan. 11, 1899, appointed A. D. C. on Governor Theodore Roosevelt's staff and made Military Secretary of the grade of Colonel with rank from January 9, 1897.

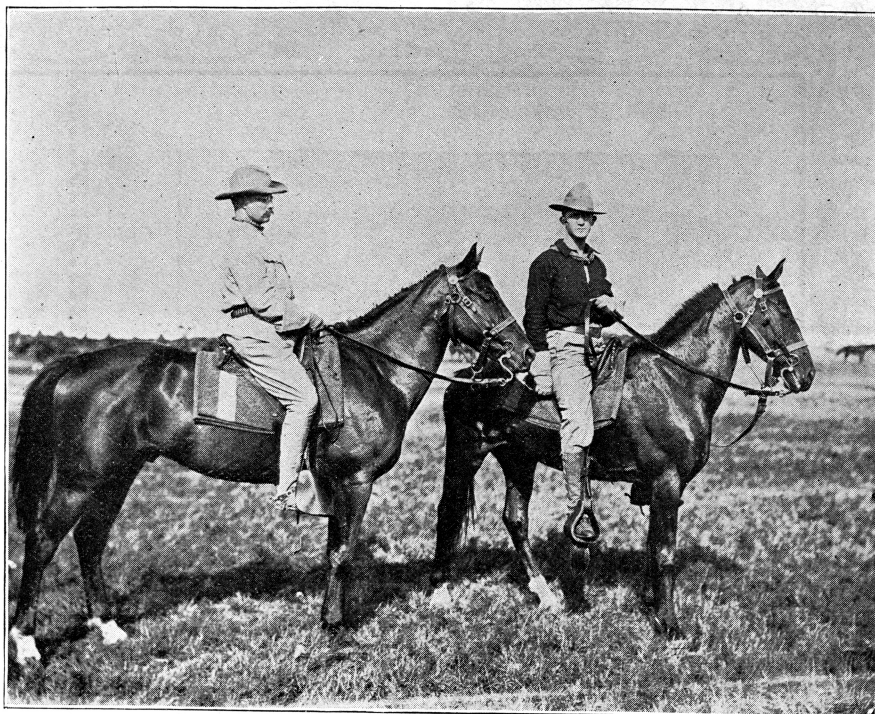

Ernest Strong Witbeck, '93 S., enlisted in the United States Navy April 29, 1898. Transferred from the receiving ship Franklin to the U. S. S. Yosemite, manned by the Michigan State Naval Brigade May 6. Received rating of Gunner's Mate, First-class, May 8. Sailed from Hampton Roads, conveying the ammunition ship Armeria to Key West, May 30. Joined blockade at Havana, June 7. Sailed for Santiago, conveying transport Panther, June 8. Helped land marines at Guantanamo, June 10; blockaded Santiago, June 11; cruised in search of Purissima Conception, June 12 to June 18. On blockade San Juan, Porto Rico, June 25 to July 14. The Yosemite had an engagement June 28, with two Spanish gunboats, the Isabel II, and the General Concha, and a torpedo boat, while under the guns of Morro Castle. She drove the armed transport Antonio Lopez on the beach, completely wrecking her and forced the gunboats back into the harbor. All the naval militia on the Yosemite were transferred to the U. S. S. Yantic at Detroit, Aug. 20. Honorably discharged from the United States Navy Aug. 22, 1898.

Previous to the war had been a member of the First Division, Michigan State Naval Brigade, since its organization in March, 1894.

Ninety-Three L. S.

Walter C. Shoup, '93 L. S., was mustered into the service of the United States May 19, 1898, as First Lieutenant in Troop D, Second Regiment, United States Volunteer Cavalry. Served as Regimental Ordnance Officer May 30 to Sept. 13; as Judge Advocate of General Court-Martial July 13 to Sept. 19, 1898. Regiment recruited in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, and Nevada (Troop D from Idaho). The regiment was organized at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, June, 1898. Moved from Fort Russell June 22, 1898, and went into camp June 28, at Camp Cuba Libre, Panama Park, near Jacksonville, Fla., as part of Seventh Army Corps. Promoted to Captain of Troop D, Sept. 10, 1898. Mustered out of the service at Jacksonville, Oct. 24, 1898.

Jesse A. Stewart, '93 L.S., enlisted July 27, 1898, in Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry. Sailed from Newport News, July 27, on the transport Massachusetts, arriving at Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 2. The Troop was attached to the headquarters of the army and acted as escort to General Miles together with Troop B, of the Second United States Cavalry. Transferred to the Sheridan Troop, Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry of Pennsylvania, as a Bugler, Aug. 2. Mustered out of the service of the United States, at Tyrone, Pa., Nov. 21, 1898.

COL. THEO. ROOSEVELT, Harvard '80.
LIEUT. JOHN C. GREENWAY, Yale '95 S.

Ninety-Four.

William B. Allison, '94, appointed May 9, 1898, Captain and Assistant Adjutant-General, United States Volunteers. Assigned to Sixth Army Corps, June 2, and reported at Chickamauga Park, Ga., to Major-General James H. Wilson, United States Volunteers. June 8, assigned to temporary duty, First Division, First Army Corps; to Charleston, S. C., July 5. Sailed for Porto Rico, July 21; landed at Ponce, July 28; in skirmish at Coamo and artillery and infantry engagement before Aibonito. Arrived in New York, Sept. 15, 1898; assigned to duty at headquarters, First Army Corps, at Lexington, Oct. 19; Macon, Ga., Nov. 8; Matanzas, Cuba, Jan. 10, 1899. Arrived again at New York April 12, 1899. Honorably discharged from the service of the United States, May 12, 1899.

Charles I. Debevoise, '94, enlisted May 27, 1898, as Sergeant in Troop C, New York Volunteer Cavalry. Camped at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I., during the month of May, from there going to Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va. Sailed July 23, on the transport Massachusetts for Porto Rico. Took part in the battle of Coamo and the troop alone followed up the retreat of the Spaniards to Aibonito, Aug. 9. On Aug. 10 was on reconnaissance of two hours and a half, in which it was reported that 16 Spaniards were killed and 45 wounded. Americans had but a few slight casualties. Had charge of a detail of twenty-five men under Colonel Biddle, an engineer in the regular service to reconnoitre the country and find, if possible, a road leading behind Aibonito Pass. That night passed through the Spanish lines and camped behind the Pass, a very dangerous position. Peace was declared the next day. Mustered out of the service of the United States, Nov. 27, 1898.

Previous to the war, held a commission of Lieutenant in the New York

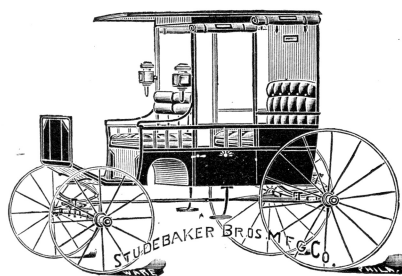

National Guard. A troop being allowed only two Lieutenants, he enlisted in the Volunteer service as a Sergeant. Subsequently he has become First Senior Lieutenant in Troop C.

Louis P. Gillespie, '94, enlisted May 19, 1898, in Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry, at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I. Moved to Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va., May 26. Moved from Camp Alger to Newport News, whence the troop sailed on the transport Massachusetts to Ponce, Porto Rico. September 3, sailed on transport Mississippi from Porto Rico to New York, arriving Sept. 10, 1898. Furloughed for sixty days beginning Sept. 11. Mustered out of the United States service, Nov. 28, 1898.

Previous to the outbreak of the war had been a member of the New York State Militia for about six months.

E. O. Holter, '94, enlisted in April, 1898, in Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry. Went into camp at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I., May 2, 1898. Mustered into service May 11. Moved from Camp Black to Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va., May 26, 1898. Was made a Second Lieutenant, Signal Corps, United States Volunteers; while at Camp Alger, was appointed Aide-de-camp to General Ames. Sailed July 26, on the Olivette for Santiago. He there joined the staff of Brigadier-General Ames, who was in command of Wikoff's Brigade at Santiago. Sailed on the Vigilancia, reaching Montauk Point, L. I., Aug. 13, and remained with General Ames, who took command of Kent's Division, on duty till Sept. 13. Lieutenant Holter resigned his commission Sept 13, 1898.

Dr. John Howland, '94, served as a Physician on the United States Hospital Ship Relief. Sailed for Porto Rico, Aug. 24. Resigned Sept. 18.

No. 1209. Station Wagon.

LIGHT WEIGHT. REASONABLE PRICE.
WELL MADE. FINE FINISH.

LARGE VARIETY. CORRECT APPOINTMENTS.
UNEXCELLED WORKMANSHIP.

STUDEBAKER.
BROADWAY, COR. PRINCE ST., N. Y.
WM. R. INNIS, MANAGER.
Carriage Builders

DON'T TAKE THE "JUST AS GOOD" INSIST on the

USE THE 1899 MODELS.

20TH CENTURY GAS

BICYCLE & DRIVING HEADLIGHTS

CATALOGUE FREE.

20TH CENTURY MFG. CO.

17 WARREN ST., NEW YORK.