

Lee DeForest, '96 S., enlisted about May 14, 1898, in Light Battery A, First Regiment Artillery, Connecticut Volunteers. Went into camp at Niantic, Conn. Was appointed Trumpeter. Furloughed for thirty days Sept. 16, 1898. Mustered out of service at New Haven, Oct. 25, 1898.

Nathan M. Flower, '96 S., enlisted about May 20, 1898, in Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry, at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I. Went into camp at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I., May 2; went into camp at Falls Church, Va., May 26. Was taken with malarial fever July 8, and sent home on furlough. Was promoted to Captain and Assistant Quartermaster, United States Volunteers, July 16. Aug. 10, was ordered to proceed to Porto Rico for duty on Major-General Miles' staff. Broke his arm in Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 25, and remained in the General Hospital there until Sept. 1, when he was sent home on the Relief on sick leave.

G. T. Johnson, '96 S., enlisted June 15, 1898, in the Connecticut Naval Battalion. Was on patrol duty on the mines in New Haven Harbor during May. Went into camp at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., June 5. On June 15, went to Boston to the receiving ship U. S. S. Minnesota. Was assigned to the U. S. S. Catskill July 7, and promoted to First-class Machinist July 26. The Catskill cruised along the Massachusetts coast and was stationed at Gloucester and Provincetown, Mass. Mustered out of service at the League Island Navy Yard, Pa., on Sept. 21, 1898.

Samuel L. Quinby, '96 S., was mustered into the United States service with Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry, May 20, 1898, at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I. May 22, the Troop moved from Camp Black to Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va. Sailed for Porto Rico on board the transport Massachusetts July 26. Went into camp near Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 8. The Troop served with General Miles in Porto Rico as a portion of his body guard. Sailed from Porto Rico on board the transport Mississippi Sept. 2, arriving in New York Sept. 10. Furloughed for sixty days Sept. 11. Mustered out of the service of the United States Nov. 28, 1898.

Previous to the outbreak of the war, Mr. Quinby had been a member of Squadron A, N. G. N. Y., for about a year.

Lazarus Denison Stearns, '96 S., in March, 1897, joined as a private, Company D, Ninth Regiment, then National Guard of Pennsylvania. He was elected Second Lieutenant of Company B, July 1, 1897, and on May 5, 1898, while the Ninth was at Mt. Gretna, he was elected Captain of Company B, Ninth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. In that office he served up to the time of his death. Captain Stearns died at his home in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Tuesday, Sept. 6, 1898, of typhoid fever, contracted while in camp with his regiment at Chickamauga. The funeral was held Thursday, Sept. 8, 1898. (A more detailed account of his service and death was printed in the WEEKLY of Oct. 6, 1898.)

R. F. Troescher, '96 S., enlisted June 8, 1898, as a private in Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry, which he joined at Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va. Moved to Newport News July 24. Sailed on the transport Massachusetts for Ponce, Porto Rico, July 28. Sailed from Ponce on transport Mississippi Sept. 3, arriving at New York Sept. 10, when the Troop was furloughed for sixty days. Mustered out of the service of the United States Nov. 28, 1898.

J. H. Davies, 'ex-'96 S., enlisted April 25, 1898, in Company G, Third Ohio Volunteer Infantry at Dayton, O. Promoted to Corporal April 27. In camp at Camp Bushnell, O., from April 27 to May 18. Mustered into the United States service May 10. Encamped at Tampa, Fla., from May 20 to July 25. Given sick leave July 25.

Walter G. Penfield, ex-'96 S., enlisted May 4, 1898, as a private in Battery C, First Regiment Artillery, Connecticut Volunteers. Went into camp at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., May 4. Promoted to First Sergeant May 19; promoted to Second Lieutenant Oct. 21. Furloughed for thirty days Sept. 29.

Mustered out of the service of the United States Oct. 29, 1898.

Cecil H. Trowbridge, ex-'96 S., enlisted June 29, 1898, in Battery A, First Regiment Artillery, Connecticut Volunteers. Furloughed for thirty days Sept. 16. Mustered out of the service of the United States at New Haven, Oct. 25, Ninety-Six L. S.

James A. Howarth, Jr., '96 L.S., enlisted May 5, 1898, in Battery C, First Regiment, Heavy Artillery, Connecticut Volunteers, commanded by Captain Beach, '83. Went into camp at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., May 7. Appointed a Sergeant about May 14. Mustered into the United States service May 19. Stationed at Niantic until furloughed. Furloughed for thirty days Sept. 16. Taken ill with typhoid fever Oct. 3. Mustered out of the service of the United States Oct. 25, 1898.

Ninety-Seven.

Joseph W. Alport, '97, was appointed and warranted First Sergeant, May 1, 1898, in Company L, Sixty-Fifth Regiment, New York Volunteers, and mustered into the service of the United States as such, May 17. Company L left Buffalo, May 10, and joined the rest of the regiment at Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I., where the regiment was mustered in. Went to Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va., and remained there until Sept. 4. Proceeded then to Buffalo, and was furloughed for thirty days. Mustered out of the service of the United States at Camp Joseph Plume, Nov. 19, 1898.

Previous to the war his record was as follows: Sixty-Fifth Regiment, Cadet Corps, 1890-91; Seventy-Fourth Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1892-93; Seventy-Fourth Regiment from Feb. 7 until transfer into Sixty-Fifth Regiment.

Philip H. Bailey, '97, enlisted June 5, in Company M, First Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers. The regiment was mustered into service May 17, and moved to Niantic, Conn., where it was encamped until June 9, Companies A, G, D, and H, then going to Fort Knox, Me. July 14, the regiment was mobilized at Niantic, moving to Camp Alger, July 17. Promoted to be Corporal in Company H, First Regiment, July 25. Sept. 7, 1898, returned to Niantic. The regiment was to have been a part of General Wade's expedition to Porto Rico, but the expedition was abandoned.

Mustered out of the service Oct. 31, 1898.

Received appointment Spring of 1898, to Second Lieutenantancy in the regular army.

Lyman M. Bass, '97, enlisted July 9, 1898, in Light Battery F, Third United States Artillery. Attached to the staff of Major-General James H. Wilson from July 10 till able to join Battery in Porto Rico, the battery having been in Cuba. Received orders at Ponce, July 30, to join Light Battery F, at Yauco. Camped at Yauco, Porto Rico, July 31, and at Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 4, 5, and 6. Marched towards San Juan on the main road Aug. 7, 8, and 9. Stormed and knocked down block house at Coamo, Aug. 10. Fired on entrenchments at Aibonito, two and a half hours Aug. 12. Resignation from the Third United States Artillery and service of the United States accepted, Sept. 20, 1898.

Arthur H. Bissell, '97, enlisted June 23, in Light Battery A, First Regiment Artillery, Connecticut Volunteers. Went into camp at Niantic, Conn. Furloughed for thirty days Sept. 16. Mustered out of the service at New Haven Oct. 25, 1898.

A. H. Brown, '97, and '99 L.S., enlisted in the Naval Battalion, C. N. G. To Boston to U. S. S. Minnesota; June 15. Minnesota was threatened with destruction by fire July 2. She was put in Charlestown Navy Yard for repairs and was scarcely finished when the war was ended. Mr. Brown was honorably discharged from service on Aug. 25, 1898.

J. W. Bryan, '97, reported for duty at first call for troops. Taken to New Orleans, point of mobilization, with Company G, First Louisiana Volunteers. Rejected on physical examination because of defective vision.

Arthur J. Draper, '97, enlisted at the outbreak of the war in Battery A, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, and was on coast defense duty at Swampscott for two weeks. Enlisted June 17, 1898, in the Sixth Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteers. Was appointed Corporal July 11, and promoted to Sergeant on Sept. 5. Promoted to Second Lieutenant Oct. 1. Was on board the Yale off Morro Castle when Santiago surrendered. Landed at Guantanamo, Porto Rico, July 25. Routed Spaniards in a skirmish the next morning. Entered Yauco July 28, and Ponce Aug. 1. Left Ponce Aug. 10 and Aug. 13, reached Utuado. Left Utuado Oct. 12, and sailed from San Juan for Boston Oct. 20. Mustered out of the United States service Jan 21, 1899.

E. E. Garrison, '97, enlisted in May, 1898, in the First Regiment, United States Volunteer Cavalry, better known as Roosevelt's Rough Riders. The regiment was organized at San Antonio, Tex., left there May 27, for Tampa, Fla. Troop C, to which he belonged, was one of those which remained in Tampa during the entire campaign, leaving there about Aug. 15, for Montauk, L. I. Mustered out of the service of the United States Sept. 27, 1898.

S. K. Gerard, '97, enlisted May 4, 1898, in the First United States Volunteer Cavalry, better known as Roosevelt's Rough Riders. The regiment was organized at San Antonio, Tex.; left there May 27. Promoted Corporal May 20, 1898; promoted Sergeant July 24, 1898. Went into camp at Tampa, Fla. Taken ill with typhoid fever in June while at Tampa. Was in one of the four troops that remained at Tampa most of the Summer. Went to Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point, L. I., in August. Mustered out of service at Camp Wikoff Sept. 27, 1898.

William H. H. Hewitt, Jr., '97, enlisted June 15, 1898, in the United States Auxiliary Naval Force with the Connecticut Naval Militia. Went into camp at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., June 6, 1898. Ordered to Boston June 15, to the receiving ship U. S. S. Minnesota. Was transferred to the U. S. S. East Boston, Aug. 9. The East Boston was being fitted out for blockade duty about Cuba in the North Atlantic Squadron, but was taken out of commission before completed. Was transferred back to U. S. S. Minnesota Sept. 3, 1898. Honorably discharged from service Sept. 5, 1898.

William S. Hubbell, '97, enlisted May 4, 1898, in Battery A, First Regiment Artillery, Connecticut Volunteers, and was mustered into service May 19. Went into camp at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., May 7. Furloughed for thirty days Sept. 16. Mustered out of service at New Haven, Conn., Oct. 25, 1898.

James R. Judd, '97, was a member of the Red Cross expedition which sailed from Tampa, July 13, 1898, on board the Lampasas, for Santiago, where it was intended to establish a hospital. This was not possible, because of the yellow fever quarantine, and the party proceeded to Guantanamo and from there to Porto Rico, accompanying General Miles' invading army. At this place the Lampasas was turned into an impromptu hospital ship and placed in charge of the Red Cross. The party landed their sick at Fortress Monroe Aug. 7, and arrived in New York Aug. 9.

W. D. Makepeace, '97, went into camp at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., with the Connecticut Naval Reserves, June 6, 1898. On June 15, was assigned to the receiving ship Minnesota at Boston. Mr. Makepeace was promoted from seaman to Quartermaster, First-class, and transferred to the U. S. S. East Boston. Honorably discharged from the service of the United States in September, 1898.

John V. Miller, '97, received his commission as Assistant Engineer with relative rank of Ensign June 20, 1898. Left for Tampa June 23. Received orders June 28, to report for duty on the Marblehead. He joined the Marblehead July 8, at Guantanamo, where she was stationed. Transferred to the Vulcan July 9. Aug. 10, started for Siboney. Having obtained his brother's

(T. W. Miller, '97, of the Rough Riders) remains, he left Santiago for the North Aug. 10, on the transport Le Grande Duchesse. Arrived at Montauk Point, L. I., Aug. 15; arrived at Akron, O., Aug. 21. Was relieved from service with an honorable discharge Sept. 1, 1898.

Theodore W. Miller, '97, enlisted May 30, 1898 in the First Regiment, United States Cavalry, better known as Roosevelt's Rough Riders. Joined the Troop in New Orleans. He was selected to go to Santiago. Was wounded in the shoulder at the front in one of the charges at San Juan Hill, July 1. He was unable to rally from the wound and died at the hospital at Siboney, July 8, 1898. His body was conveyed to his home in Akron, O., where the funeral was held, Aug. 23, 1898. (A more detailed account of the record of Miller, with extracts from his diary written during his experience with the Rough Riders, was published in the WEEKLY of September 20.)

COLLEGE MEN

ABOVE ALL OTHER PEOPLE, CANNOT POSSIBLY

FIND IT WORTH WHILE

to read any other newspaper, than one which is sound, sane, and accurate. The readers of sensational newspapers have minds full of a jumble of untrue, useless and degrading ideas, which prevent them from ever seeing things as they really are, from taking advantage of the best opportunities in life, and from making the most of their careers. The proof of this is abundant and conclusive.

The superb merits of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE as a daily newspaper for intelligent and aspiring men grow out of the strength, accuracy and decency of the whole newspaper. When it is said, that there is no other daily in the United States, which is better for a library and a family, little more need be said on this point.

Men connected with the Associated Press, who are the best judges of news, and managers of clipping bureaus whose profits depend on the number of original matters they can find in the newspapers from which they clip, unite in commending the TRIBUNE as one of the few great newspapers of the United States.

The TRIBUNE has a college page, once a week. It is especially strong in business and social news, discussions of public affairs, literary and critical features, and foreign correspondence, and is especially free from hysterics, sensation, and detailed reports of immoral occurrences, although it invariably prints the actual news.

The Illustrated Supplement on Sunday is the cream of the week. Beautiful Half-tone pictures, which The Tribune, at great expense, was the first American newspaper to print successfully, adorn nearly every page.

The Daily and Sunday Tribune, by mail, $10 a year; $5 for six months; $2.50 for three months; $1 a month.

THE TRIBUNE,
NEW YORK.