

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Every alumnus is invited to contribute to this column, news concerning himself or concerning any other alumnus. The column is intended to keep Yale men informed about each other. Anyone who contributes to it helps a good Yale object and pleases and interests other Yale men.

'42—Burdett Hart, D.D., will spend the Summer vacation at Maplewood Cottage, Bethlehem, N. H.

'42—Dr. Burdett Hart, of the Corporation, is the author of a book just published by the Congregational Sunday School Publishing Society of Boston, entitled "The Crown, Lost and Restored." His former publications are: "Studies of the Model Life," "Always Upward," "Aspects of Heaven," "Biblical Epoch."

'55—Rev. Charles Ray Palmer of the Yale Corporation will spend a portion of the Summer in the White Mountains.

'61—Franklin B. Dexter has purchased the residence of the late Prof. Norton at 168 Prospect st., New Haven, Conn.

Ex-'61—Colonel Andrew S. Burt, late Brigadier-General of Volunteers, has been ordered to the Philippines, with eight companies of his regiment, the 25th Regular Infantry.

'65—Rev. H. A. Stimson, D.D. of New York City occupied the College pulpit at Yale on Sunday, June 18. He also addressed the University meeting in Dwight Hall in the evening of the same day.

'67—Rev. Charles S. Walker was elected Vice-President of the American Baptist Historical Society on May 26.

'69—Prof. C. H. Smith will spend the Summer traveling in Europe.

'69—Prof. Bernadotte Perrin will spend the Summer at his camp in the Adirondacks.

'72—Prof. F. S. Dennis, of the Cornell Medical School, will spend the Summer at Norfolk, Conn.

'73—Prof. William Beebe will spend the Summer traveling in England and Germany.

'77—Prof. T. D. Goodell will spend the Summer in the White Mountains.

'77 T.S.—Prof. G. B. Adams sailed for Europe on the "Spaarsdam," July 12.

'81—Henry C. White has been appointed a member of the bar examining committee of the Connecticut Bar, to serve for three years.

'83—Louis K. Hull will spend the Summer in Scotland. Sailed from New York, July 11.

'83—Mr and Mrs. Arnold G. Dana of Brooklyn are spending the Summer in their cottage "Wave Crest," at Far Rockaway, L. I. They are planning to continue their stay until the first of November.

'84—Prof. Frederick S. Jones is making a tour of inspection to the various physical laboratories of the United States and Canada, preparatory to the building of the new half million dollar physical laboratory for the University of Minnesota, which he will have in charge.

'85—Charles B. Hobbs is about to move into a Summer home which he has had built at Great River, a resort on the South shore of Long Island, and more particularly on the waters of what is known as the Great South Bay, not far from Islip.

'85 T.S.—Rev. William Joseph has spent the past college year in post graduate study in Jesus College, Oxford, England.

'85 T.S.—The marriage of Miss Annie Stidham, daughter of Mr. Richard B. Stidham of Baltimore, to Rev. Thomas M. Beadenkopf, took place June 20.

'89—Prof. P. E. Browning will spend the Summer at Cripple Creek, Col.

'90 S.—Neil Gray, Jr. has recently been elected President of the Oswego Country Club of Oswego, N. Y.

'91—Harvey W. Cushing has been made an associate in Surgery on the Faculty of Johns Hopkins University.

'91 S.—Dr. Frederick L. Chase will spend his Summer vacation at Boulder, Col.

'91—News was received two or three weeks ago by Mr. John D. Archbold of New York of the death at Yokohama of his youngest daughter, Frances Dana, wife of Frederic C. Walcott. Mrs. Walcott was taken ill about two months ago. She was on her wedding trip, having been married last St. Valentine's day in St. Batholomew's Church, New York.

'91 S.—Willis J. Black has been appointed Chief Engineer of the Harlem division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

'92—A daughter, Helen Doolittle, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Whittaker, May 17. About August 1, Mr. Whittaker will become assistant to the rector at North Adams and Williamstown, Mass.

'92 S.—The note in the last issue of the WEEKLY concerning Albert L. Sessions was in error. Mr. Sessions is not engaged in the hardware business in Bristol.

'93—A. K. Merritt's address for the latter part of the Summer will be Brainard, Minn.

'93—William Begg will spend part of the Summer at Yellowstone Park and on the Pacific Coast.

'93—Gerald L. Rathbone was recently elected a Director and Secretary of the University Club of San Francisco.

'93—Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Quintard will leave their home in Bridgeport early in the Summer for several weeks' travel in the North and West.

'94—C. H. George sailed for Europe on the St. Louis on July 5.

'94—Howard A. Lamprey is now practicing law in the Butler Exchange, Providence, R. I.

'94—Bayard Dominick has taken the Knox cottage at Monmouth Beach, L. I., for the Summer.

'94—Lloyd M. Howell was made Assistant United States District Attorney of Suffolk County, N. Y., last week.

'94—Charles G. Osgood, Jr., has received the degree of Ph.D. from Yale and has been made Assistant Professor of English at the University of Colorado.

'94—W. H. Salmon has definitely decided to remain in Australia six months longer at the request of many friends and will not start for America until next January, returning via Europe and Palestine.

'94—Frank W. M. Cutcheon and Meredith Hare, '94, announce that they have formed a partnership, under the firm name of Cutcheon & Hare, for the general practice of law with offices at No. 40 Wall street, New York City.

'94 S. and '98 M.S.—Dr. C. B. Brainard has received first appointment on the House Staff of the Hartford Hospital. His term of service began July 1, and extends over two years.

'94 S.—Paul Worthington Carhart was married on June 21 at Salem, Missouri, to Miss Minnie Gracia Seay, daughter of Mrs. Edward Austin Seay. Mr. and Mrs. Carhart live in Springfield, Mass., where Mr. Carhart is with the G. & C. Merriam Co.

'94 S.—The marriage of Frederick Wilkinson Kilbourne to Miss Jennie

Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Page, took place at Meriden, Conn., on June 14. Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourne live in Springfield, Mass., where Mr. Kilbourne is with the G. & C. Merriam Co.

'95—Yandell Henderson will sail for Europe in July and will spend the coming year studying in England and Germany.

'95—On Wednesday, June 23, at Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, the marriage took place of Annie Snowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Kisterbock of Philadelphia, to Harold Edgar Buttrick.

'95—W. E. Parsons, who has been studying during the past year in the Ecoles des Beaux Arts, Paris, has been awarded the McKim Fellowship, for the best solution of an assigned problem in Architecture, by Columbia University. The fellowship entitles the holder to two years' study and travel abroad.

'95 S.—The engagement of Dr. Francis H. Todd of Paterson, N. J., to Miss Maude I. Mitchell of Ottawa, Canada, is announced.

'95 and '97 L.S.—Geo. Jay Gibson, of the law firm of Thompson & Gibson, Salt Lake City, Utah, will spend the month of July at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, Canada.

'95 and 98 L.S.—The marriage of Miss Ethel Dickinson of Springfield, Mass., to Edward W. Beattie, Jr., of Helena, Mont., took place at the bride's home, Thursday, July 6.

'96—J. M. Berdan will spend the Summer studying in Paris.

'96—A. L. Curtiss expects to spend July and August in England.

'96—Robert Lusk has started on a trip to Canada, where he will spend a few weeks.

'96—W. M. Hess has received the degree of Ph.D. at Yale and will now enter Yale Divinity School.

'96—W. C. Morgan has received the degree of Ph.D. at Yale and will teach Physics and Chemistry at Washburn College.

'96—L. C. Jones has received the degree of Ph. D. at Yale and will enter a commercial house in Syracuse, N. Y., as chemist.

'96—W. Woods Chandler gave an organ recital at Bristol, Conn., in the Prospect M. E. Church, Friday evening, June 23.

'96—Henry S. Kip returned from England, Wednesday, June 14, and will spend the Summer at Ankony at Rhinebeck-on-the-Hudson.

'96—A. L. Curtiss, and Johnston DeForest have recently successfully passed the examinations to the New York Bar and were sworn in as attorneys and counsellors-at-law on June 30.

'96—Dr. Edward D. Collins has been appointed instructor in Mediaeval History at Yale University to take the place of Dr. Strong, who has been elected President of the University of Oregon.

'96—The alumnus note in regard to Harry H. Benedict in the last issue of the paper was obviously a contributor's error and was unfortunately overlooked. The item referred to Mr. Benedict's father and mother.

'96—Frank M. Patterson obtained first prize at the Commencement of the Albany Law School, May 29, on his thesis, "Procedure." The prize was a set of Thompson & Co.'s "American and English Encyclopedia of Law."

'96 S.—George W. Hawley sailed for Europe recently on a three months' trip through England, France and Germany.

'96 L.S.—The marriage of Miss Helen E. Sawyer, daughter of Mrs. Jennie B. Sawyer of Derby, Conn., to Frederick Sanford Martyn of New York City took place at the home of the bride's mother, Tuesday afternoon, June 27.

'96 T.S.—Rev. E. C. Wheeler preached the Baccalaureate Sermon before the graduating class of the State Normal School, at Hyannis, Mass., June 18. This is the first Baccalaureate Sermon in the history of this School, which was opened by the State in 1897 for the benefit of the citizens of Cape Cod. The subject was "The Conditions of Spiritual Progress."

'97—Edward L. Smith will open a law office in Hartford.

'96—Henry S. Johnston has been admitted to the New York Bar and was sworn in as attorney and counsellor-at law July 1, 1899.

'97—F. B. Luquiens and Prof. Luquiens will spend the Summer in Salem, Ohio.

'97 L.S.—George W. Belden was admitted to the Ohio Bar at the June examinations.

'97—George Parmly Day became a member of the firm of Clarence S. Day & Co., Bankers, July 1.

'97—Frank M. Cobb recently received the degree of LL.B. from the Law School of Western Reserve University and was also admitted to the Ohio Bar.

'97—The wedding reception of Madeline Perry Hartwell, daughter of Mr. Alfred S. Hartwell, and Albert Francis Judd, Jr., took place Friday, July 21, from five until half after six at Puunui, Honolulu, H. I.

'97—The address of G. W. Doughty, as printed in the class list recently, was incorrect. Mr. Doughty is Secretary and Treasurer of the Greenville Tobacco Manufacturing Co., his permanent address being 148 Laurel ave., Greenville, Tenn.

'97—The marriage of Miss Edwina Forwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Forwood, to Walter G. Resor, took place at noon Saturday, June 17 in Calvary Church of Clifton, Cincinnati, O. The best man was Philip Hinkle, '97 and Isaac Jordan, '95 and D. V. Cutphin, '97, were among the ushers.

'97—The statement in the last issue of the WEEKLY that Arthus W. Ewell will study at the Johns Hopkins University next year for the degree of Ph.D. was inaccurate. While Mr. Ewell expects to study at Johns Hopkins University next year, he will not study for the degree of Ph.D., as he received one from Yale during Commencement.

'97—The following members of the Class of Ninety-Seven recently successfully passed the examinations to the New York Bar and were sworn in as attorneys and counsellors at law on June 30: Harcourt Brigham; J. C. Converse; F. P. Garvan; L. C. Ilfeld; Albert B. Kerr; T. D. McDonald; C. M. Reed; John H. Thomson, Jr.

'97 S.—H. G. Bockius was admitted to the Ohio Bar at the June examinations.

'97 S.—George R. Tracy is a chemist in the employ of the Eastman Kodak Co., of Rochester, N. Y.

'97 S.—Howard S. Humphrey is with Arnold B. Heine & Co., Importers, 503-505 Broadway, New York.

'97 S.—Dunham B. Sherer recently successfully passed the examinations to the New York Bar and was sworn in as attorney and counsellor-at-law on June 30.

'97 S.—Paul D. Mills is engaged in the electrical business with the Pennsylvania Heat, Light & Power Co., corner Tenth and Sansom sts., Philadelphia. His permanent address is the Rittenhouse Club.

'97 S.—William F. R. Griffith sailed May 19, for Ecuador, not Europe as the types made it, in the WEEKLY of June 7. He is engaged as Assistant Chief Engineer for a company building a new railroad. He expects to be gone three years.

'97 T.S.—Rev. C. S. MacFarland has received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Yale. He will start for Germany, August 1.

'97 T.S.—Rev. W. H. Short will sup-

[Continued on 392d page.]

B. G. I. Golf Goods

ARE

Highest . . .
. . . Grade.

Made under personal supervision of John D. Dunn.

Write to us, or our agents for complete illustrated catalogue, containing "Elementary Instruction to Beginners," by JOHN D. DUNN, and the "Rules of Golf."

THE BRIDGEPORT GUN IMPLEMENT CO.

RETAIL BRANCHES,

NEW YORK—313 Broadway.
BOSTON—408 Washington Street.
PHILADELPHIA—1028 Chestnut Street.
SAN FRANCISCO—425-427 Market Street.
WASHINGTON—909 Pennsylvania Avenue.

THEODORE B. STARR

JEWELER AND SILVERSMITH,
206 FIFTH AVE.,
MADISON SQUARE,
NEW YORK.

Fine Stationery and Engraving, Die-cutting and Heraldic Work. Wedding Invitations, Reception Cards and Visiting Cards.

The Designing and Engraving of Book-plates a specialty.

Sample book of paper will be sent on application.