

ALUMNI NOTES.

[Continued from 389th page.]

ply the Taylor Church in New Haven, during July and August. The pastor, Rev. A. M. Hall, is in Europe.

'98—J. H. Hart will spend the Summer studying in Leipzig, Germany.

'98—Edward Sawyer is with an importing firm on Wall street in New York.

'98—Morris U. Ely will return to Yale next Fall and study for the degree of LL.B.

'98—William E. Selin will enter the Yale Medical School this Fall for a year's special work.

'98—J. M. Woolsey has entered the law office of Convas & Kirlan, Temple Court Building, New York.

'98—Franklin A. Lord was awarded the third prize at the Wayland Prize Debate held in the Law School on June 5.

'98—A. I. Lewis has become connected with the Bailie Coal Co., a wholesale and retail company, of which he is Secretary.

'98—Herbert Gallaudet will pursue a course of study in Theology during the Summer at the University of Marburg, Germany.

'98—W. G. Erving is traveling in Europe, his trip including Sicily, Greece, Turkey, Bulgaria, Austria, Hungary, etc., to Hamburg.

'98—George H. Hanford of Syracuse, N. Y. has been appointed an assistant in the Biological Laboratory of the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale.

'98—At the recent Commencement of Columbia University the degree of M.A. was conferred upon Robert K. Richardson for graduate work in History. During the present Summer Mr. Richardson, in company with W. G. Erving, also of '98, is taking a bicycle trip in Southern Italy, Sicily and Greece. He expects to spend next Winter in Paris, doing advanced work in History.

'98 S.—Clarence G. Spalding is engaged in business with the drug manufacturing firm of Park, Davis & Co., Detroit, Mich.

'98 S.—Edward L. Freeland has left his position with the National Lead Co. of New York City, and is now in the laboratory of the Boston & New York Dyewood Co.

'98 T.S.—John P. Deane has accepted the position of assistant to Dr. T. T. Munger, the pastor of the United Church.

'99—A. G. Vanderbilt and W. F. H. Whitehouse, Jr., are making a trip around the world.

'99 T.S.—E. W. Lyman has gone to Berlin, where he will study for two years under the Hooker Fellowship.

YALE OBITUARIES.

REV. B. A. SMITH, '43.

Rev. Burrill A. Smith, '43, died in Worcester, Mass., June 16, at the house of his son-in-law, Frederick J. Barnard, '63.

Mr. Smith was born in Oxford, Conn., August 4, 1820. After graduation he taught in New London for a year, and then for two years in the University of Michigan. He resigned this position to begin the study of Theology in New Haven, but a year later went to Leicester, Mass., to become, as First Assistant Principal, then, after two years, Principal, of Leicester Academy. In 1852 he opened a boy's school of his own in Fair Haven, soon removing to New York, where he taught for the next eight years.

In 1862 he returned to his original purpose of entering the ministry. He completed his studies in Union Theological Seminary, and began pastoral work at the Congregational Church in Unionville, Conn. In 1865 he was called to the pastorate of the Congregational Church in Southampton, Mass., and was afterwards settled at South Mendota and Ottawa, Ill., and East Hampton, Conn.

In 1875 he gave up the ministry and began to teach again in Middletown, Conn., where from 1876 to 1883 he was proprietor of a girl's school. At the end of this time he went to Worcester, which was his home for the remainder of his life.

Mr. Smith was married three times. His first wife was Mary, daughter of Rev. Samuel W. Colburn, of Leicester, to whom he was married in 1848, and who died in 1855. He was married again in 1857, to Mary, daughter of Dr. Waldo Hutchins of New York. Her death occurred in 1861. In 1865 he was married to Ellen Rowley, of Farmington, Conn., who died in 1881. He leaves three children. His only surviving son, Herbert A. Smith, is a graduate of Yale College, of the Class of Eighty-Nine.

THEODORE LANAHAN HOOPER, '80 S.

Theodore Lanahan Hooper, '80 S., died on Wednesday, May 10, of pulmonary trouble, at El Paso, Texas, where he had gone for his health.

Mr. Hooper was born about forty years ago at Baltimore, Md. He graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School with the Class of Eighty, and almost immediately entered the wholesale cotton firm of William E. Hooper & Sons, Baltimore, Md. His health began to fail about three years ago, and since that time he has been traveling extensively. He spent one year in the Bahamas and then went to Colorado Springs until four months ago, when he left for El Paso, Texas.

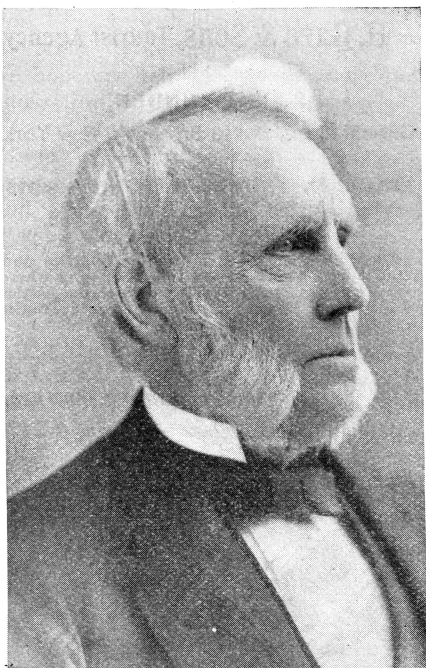

Mr. Hooper's father and two sisters survive him.

REV. CHARLES A. SAVAGE, '80 T.S.

The Rev. Charles Albert Savage, pastor of the Orange Valley Congregational Church, died Thursday, May 11, at the parsonage in Orange, N. J. Mr. Savage was born in Stowe, Vt., in 1849, graduated from Dartmouth College in 1871, and taught for three years in the Academy at St. Johnsbury, Vt. He was then appointed professor of Mathematics in Robert College, Constantinople, Turkey, where he remained for a period of four years. He returned to this country in 1878 and was graduated from the Yale Divinity School with the Class of Eighty. He held charges at Berkeley, California, and Enfield, Massachusetts, and went to Orange in 1890. He married Miss Mary E. Fiske, of Newburyport, Mass., in 1882. She and two children survive him.

Professor Samuel Harris Dead.

Professor Samuel Harris, D.D., LL.D., emeritus Professor of Systematic Theology in the Divinity School, died at Litchfield, his Summer home, Sunday night, June 25, aged 85 years. Though somewhat enfeebled by his years, he was in comparatively good health until quite recently, when he had a severe attack of pleurisy, which probably was the chief cause of death.

THE LATE PROF. SAMUEL HARRIS.

Professor Harris was born in East Machias, Me., June 14, 1814. He was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1833 and acted as Principal of Limerick Academy, Limerick, Me. In 1835 he entered Andover Theological Seminary and was graduated in 1838. He was immediately recalled to Washington

Academy in East Machias, where he taught for three years. In 1841 the Congregational Church in Conway, Mass., called him to the pastorate, where he remained for ten years. He was given a call in 1851 to the South Church in Pittsfield, Mass., and served for four years. Bangor Theological Seminary called him to its chair of systematic theology in 1855, and he taught there for twelve years. From 1867 to 1871 he was the President of Bowdoin College, and Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy.

In 1871 he accepted the Dwight professorship of systematic theology in the Theological Department of Yale University, which he filled with honor and in which he became widely known as a lecturer and writer. His published works are "Zaccheus, an Essay on Systematic Benevolence"; "Christ's Prayer for His Redeemed," "Lectures in the Kingdom of Christ on Earth," also various tracts and numerous articles in the New Englander and the Bibliotheca Sacra. In 1896 Professor Harris was relieved of his duties as professor in the Theological Department of Yale and was made professor emeritus.

Professor Harris received the degree of D.D. from Williams College in 1855 and LL.D. from Bowdoin in 1871.

University Club Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Governing Board of the University Club, which was held recently, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Joseph Medill McCormick, 1900, of Chicago, Ill.; Vice-President, James Duane Ireland, 1900 S., of New York City; Treasurer, James Hutchinson Wear, 1901, of St. Louis, Mo.; Assistant Treasurer, John Huntington Hord, 1901, of Cleveland, O.; Secretary, William Reynolds Hitt, 1901, of Washington, D. C.

The elections for the Governing Board were as follows: From 1900—Frank Dexter Cheney, of South Manchester, Conn.; Frank Taylor Crawford of Mansfield, Ohio; Frederick Charles Havemeyer of New York City; Thomas Andrews Howell, Jr., of New York City; Malcolm Lee McBride of Cleveland, Ohio; Percy Avery Rockefeller of New York City. From 1900 S.—Charles Bispham Levey of Elizabeth, N. J.; James Duane Ireland of New York City; Edwin Hill Clark of Chicago, Ill. From 1901—William Reynolds Hitt of Washington, D. C.; John Huntington Hord of Cleveland, O.; James Hutchinson Wear of St. Louis, Mo.

SHIRTS ARE NECESSARY

after graduation as well as before it. We can always make you the best. Write us for samples. We have hundreds of them.

W. H. GOWDY & CO.

Opp Osborn,
NEW HAVEN, CT.

Successors to DeBussy, Manwaring & Co.

3 in One

1. Cleans and Polishes.
2. Lubricates without Gumming
3. Prevents Rust.

For Bicycles, Guns, Etc., Etc.
Sample free, send 2c. for postage.

G. W. COLE & CO.,
143 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Mory's - -

. . . Louis Linder.

The Climax

Of the College gay season comes now. Classes graduate, boards change, glee clubs sing their last song, championships are won and lost. But those that come and those that go, Seniors and Freshmen, Alumni and boys at school, winners or losers, hold their taste for the best, and in new sports and old, golf, tennis, baseball, football and every form of recreation, use the goods of

A. G. SPALDING & Bros.

NEW YORK. CHICAGO.

We make the engravings used in the "ALUMNI WEEKLY."

COLLEGE MEN

will find exceedingly comfortable and well kept quarters at a most reasonable price at

MILLER'S HOTEL

39 West 26th St., - New York City.

This house is patronized largely by Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Vassar, Wellesley, Smith and other Colleges, to the students of which special rates are made.

SEND FOR CIRCULAR.

CHARLES H. HAYNES,
Proprietor.

The C. W. Whittlesey Co.
281 State St.

Our line of Photographic Materials and Supplies is larger and more complete than ever before.

Our facilities for doing amateur work are unexcelled.

CHARLES T. PENNELL,
Successor to Wm. Franklin & Co.,

IMPORTING TAILOR,
40 Center St., New Haven, Conn.