

If a National Bank . . .

Offered to set aside a sum of money for you, to be secured at the end of twenty years upon the payment of small instalments, and with the guarantee that the whole sum would go to your relatives in case of your prior death, it is probable that you would gladly accept the offer. THE TWENTY YEAR ENDOWMENT POLICY OF offers these same inducements. * * * * *

THE PRUDENTIAL

University Council.

Among the new things which are expected, but which are not yet officially announced, is a University Council for matters of general University interest. The officers will not make any announcement concerning it, but it is already a matter of common report and it may be reasonably expected that the plan will materialize fairly early in the coming year.

John A. Porter Prize.

In the first announcement of John A. Porter prize subjects a mistake was made in the wording of the first subject. The correct wording of that subject is, The French Abbe of the Old Regime—A Social Study.
