

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

'42—Rev. and Mrs. George B. Hubbard of Plymouth, Wis., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Their children and many friends were present. Mr. Hubbard, a year ago last May, finished ten years of service with the Congregational Church at Plymouth and that term completed a service of fifty years in active ministry in the West. For the past year or more, his health has prevented active work. Mr. Hubbard has, however, slowly improved in health during the past year.

'46—The Class Secretary furnishes the following information:

Walter F. Atlee, M.D., resides in Philadelphia, and at last accounts was still engaged in the practice of medicine.

Rev. Joseph W. Backus, D.D., has retired from active service and is in rather delicate health; resides in Farmington, Conn.

Rev. Nathaniel P. Bailey, D.D., has retired from active service and resides with his daughter, near Sabina, O.

Rev. J. W. Birchmore, when last heard from was still performing ministerial duties at Cambridge, Mass.

Ziba Gay is engaged in manufacturing at North Chelmsford, Mass.

John H. Glover is in the practice of law in New York City.

Hon. Henry B. Harrison, LL.D., has retired from practice and resides in New Haven, Conn.

David Hawley has retired from practice and resides in Yonkers, N. Y.

Rev. George E. Hill has retired from ministerial duties and resides at Indianapolis, Ind.

W. Boyd Jacobs has retired from business and is living in Philadelphia, Pa.

Hon. Stephen W. Kellogg is still engaged in the practice of law, although not very closely, at Waterbury, Conn.

Frederick J. Kingsbury is engaged in business at Waterbury, Conn.

Morris W. Lyon has retired from teaching and resides in Fairfield, Conn.

Hon. R. R. Nelson has resigned his judgeship and resides at St. Paul, Minn.

Frederick H. North is engaged in business in Chicago.

Rev. Talmon C. Perry is still in the performance of clerical and educational duties at La Prairie, Quebec, Canada.

Robert H. Smith is residing on his plantation at Aberdeen, Md.

John B. Talcott is in manufacturing business at New Britain.

Charles H. Frank has retired from business and is residing at Concord, Mass.

Charles B. Trask has retired from tising in his profession and resides in Philadelphia, Pa.

Daniel M. Webb, M.D., still practising his profession in Madison, Conn.

'54—Prof. L. S. Potwin of Adelbert College is the author of a recent book entitled "Here and There in the Greek New Testament, With an Introduction on New Testament Exegesis."

'60—Mr. William H. Hurlbut has been obliged, on account of ill health, to resign his position in the Class. Mr. Hurlbut was a most zealous and efficient Class Secretary and carried through everything so thoroughly, himself attending to all details of Class organization, that his absence is most severely felt. Up to the present, no action has been taken by the Class towards securing his successor.

'61—A volume of prose by Edward R. Sill is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It includes various essays on educational subjects and in literary criticism.

'72—Edward H. Jenkins, Ph.D., was appointed a member of the Connecticut Sewage Commission in July, and at the first meeting of the Commission was elected Chairman.

'72—Leonard E. Curtis, who was obliged to give up business in New York on account of his health, has completely recovered and is now engaged in law practice in Colorado Springs.

'72—Edward W. Cady has lately become associated with Stewart & Stewart, Washington Loan and Trust Co. Building, Washington, D. C., being in charge of their Washington office and having his own patent law practice besides.

'73—The present address of ex-Gov. Albert W. McIntire is 1428 Cedar Ave., Cleveland, O.

'73—The address is wanted by the Class Secretary of Frank H. Wright, who left Denver in the Spring of 1898.

ex-'73—Wilbur W. Flagg has made his home of recent years at Salt Lake, Utah, on account of his health and is likely to remain there indefinitely. He is interested in mining industries.

'75 S.—H. S. Whipple was elected Secretary of the Library Board of Rockford, Ill., last July.

'78—Tudor Jenks had a poem entitled "A Prayer" in the Outlook of August 5.

'78—An article by Rev. Charles F. Carter, on "Arthur Twining Hadley, President of Yale, appeared in The Congregationalist of August 10.

'82—Frank R. Gallaher has recently been appointed by Governor Lounsbury a member of the Connecticut State Sewage Commission.

'82—Charles E. Richards has been appointed Secretary of the California section of the National Irrigation Association, with his office in the Douglas Building, Los Angeles.

'82 S.—The birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Willcox is announced.

'83—George Cromwell is a member of the Board of Public Improvements of New York. In the vote on the Ramapo Water contract Mr. Cromwell was recorded against the plan to buy from the Ramapo Company at $5,000,000 a year for forty years.

'83—Prof. Eliakim H. Moore of the staff of the University of Chicago, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the hands of the University of Göttingen in connection with the ceremonies attending the unveiling in June, 1899, of the statue erected on memory of Gauss and Weber by the contribution of scientific people throughout the world. Seven honorary degrees of Doctor of Philosophy were given and one only come to this country.

'83—Frank Herbert Beede began this Fall his work as principal of the Hillhouse High School of New Haven. After graduation Mr. Beede has taught at the High School at Weymouth, Mass., and was later principal of the Willimantic (Connecticut) High School for seven years. Later he became sub-master of the large English High School at Somerville, Mass. Later he went to Watertown, Mass., where he was principal of a high school. For the past two years he has been principal of the High School at Melrose, Mass. Mr. Beede succeeds Mr. Myron T. Scudder, who resigned the principalship to accept a position elsewhere.

'83 S.—Mr. James Lyman has just removed to Chicago, where his business address is care General Electric Co., Monadnock Building.

'84—Henry W. Prouty, formerly of the firm of Hawley & Prouty, has dissolved partnership and opened his law office at 526 Reaper Block, 95 Clark st., Chicago.

'85 S.—C. R. Britton has been obliged to give up business for several months on account of ill health and has been spending the Summer at Paul Smith's.

'87—Samuel Knight became a member of the law firm of Page, McCutcheon, Harding & Knight, with offices in Mills Building, San Francisco, on August 1, 1899.

'88 S.—Charles E. Curtis had an article on "Taxation of Street Railways for Purposes of Revenue and Control" in the August number of the Yale Review.

'90—John D. Jackson has recently been appointed to the Board of Education of New Haven by Mayor Driscoll. Mr. Jackson was, before this appointment, a member of the Police Board by Mayor Driscoll's appointment. He has resigned the position on the Police Board and has accepted the appointment to the Board of Education.

'91—C. C. Bushnell has been engaged for a year as Assistant in Latin at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.

'91—The law firm of Elliott, Jones & Dater has been dissolved and Henry M. Dater now practices alone at 68 Broad street, New York City.

'92—A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Knight Dexter Cheney, Jr.

'92—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Waldo Marvin, June 13, 1899.

'92—Matthew A. Reynolds has been appointed Secretary to Mayor C. T. Driscoll, '69, of New Haven.

'92—A. C. Williams received an appointment as Assistant Surgeon of the Second Massachusetts Militia, in July.

'92—F. A. Keller is a medical missionary in Yangshi Valley, China. His address is care China Inland Mission, Shanghai, China.

'92—Wilbur P. Fish won the Thousand Island Club Tennis Tournament at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., on August 12, defeating Fuller of Bethlehem by the score of 6-3, 5-7, 6-0, 1-6, 6-4.

'92 and '95 S.—James E. Wheeler and Harrison G. Wagner have formed a partnership for the general practice of law, with offices in the First National Bank Building (Rooms 705 and 706), 42 Church street, New Haven.

'92—The marriage of Miss Anna Eleonora Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Robinson of West Union, Iowa, to E. J. Ridgway, took place June 28, 1899. Mr. and Mrs. Ridgway will live at 27 Washington Square, North, New York City.

'92—Andrew Balliet is, according to a late report from the Yukon, working his own claim at a place near Rampart, which is on the Yukon, several hundred miles below Dawson City. The claim is said to be an excellent one, and to have already made a good return. Mr. Erastus Brainard, Harvard '73, brought home recently, among other pictures, the photograph of Mr. Balliet, which is here reproduced, and which was furnished to the WEEKLY through the kindness of Mr. Donaldson, Secretary and Registrar of the General Alumni Society of the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Brainard makes the statement that the dog in the photograph is one of many in Rampart, but is the only one in town which can give a civilized bark. The other

Derbies and Derbies

They can be of several different styles this year and still be in good style. Between the Henry Heath and the Victor Jay & Company's hats of London and our own makes, we have some variety and much quality.

CHASE & CO.,

NEW HAVEN HOUSE BLOCK.

Any furnishing goods can go by mail wherever the Alumni Weekly goes.

Missouri, and entered upon his duties September 1.

'94 S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Frances K. Crane of Dalton, Mass., to Samuel Gilbert Colt.

'95—J. E. Good is interested in the Deimel Linen-Mesh Underwear Co. of 491 Broadway, New York City. He is advertising manager of the company.

'95—The marriage of Miss May Tillinghast of Natick, R. I., and Charles Howard Remington took place Thursday, Sept. 7, at Brooklyn, N. Y.

'95—In August, Cornelius Vanderbilt tested a locomotive which he had designed as head draughtsman in the De-dogs are "singers," but never bark. After rehearsals, lasting several days, Messrs. Brainard and Balliet brought civilization into the gold-fields by teaching this particular dog to bark.

A. J. BALLIET'S KLONDIKE HOME.

'93 L. S.—Richard E. Jeffery, attorney and counsellor at law, has removed his law offices from 1123 Tremont Building to 643 Tremont Building, cor. of Tremont and Beacon streets, Boston.

'94—The engagement is announced of Miss Frances Bolton Lord of New York, to Origen Storrs Seymour.

'94 and '97 Ph.D.—Dr. Harry W. Dunning has returned from Europe and will enter business in New York City.

'94—A series of papers by Frederick Lynch on "Naturalness of Religion, as seen in Jesus," has been published in recent issues of The Church Union.

'94—The marriage of Miss Helen Elvira Brainard, of Enfield, Conn., to Edward H. Lay of Fulton, Ill., took place August 17. Mr. Lay was elected President of Buchanan College, Troy, part of Motive Power and Rolling Stock of the New York Central R. R. His invention was a new fire box, which has distinct advantages over the old system, both for service and for rapidity of change. Mr. Vanderbilt conceived the idea of this change while he was working in the Sheffield Scientific School, where he took a graduate course in Mechanical Engineering, receiving his degree last Commencement.

'95 S.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Dater, Sept. 10, 1899.

'95 S.—The invitations are out for the wedding of Norman Leeds and Miss Frances Kellogg Fuller, which will take place in Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14.

'96—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Vennum, August 27.

'96—George L. Buist, who has been in Germany during the past Summer, studying and traveling, has returned to New Haven and will begin the work of the Senior year in the Yale Medical School.

Have you your FALL KNOX yet?