

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Please report concerning yourself, facts which should be recorded in this column. Make report, also, about Yale men you know, and on matters, proper for record here, concerning which you have definite record. This will make the page of the greatest possible value. On request the Alumni Weekly will be glad to send postals to those who are in the way of getting, more or less often, Yale news and Yale personals.

'56—Frederick S. Hoppin of Providence has been staying in town for a few days as the guest of Prof. Hoppin, his uncle.

'56—Justice Brewer of the Supreme Court has spent his entire Summer in Paris, where he has served on the Venezuelan Commission.

'56—Charles T. Catlin of Brooklyn opened his season in the new hall at Passaic, N. J., by taking part in the presentation of "The Ticket-of-Leave Man" and "David Garrick."

'56—Rev. Dr. W. J. Harris continues to issue The Mountain Echo at Rutland, Vt., while ministering to a parish at Barre in the same State. Here he is in intimate relations with Dr. Lewis of Fifty-Two, the pastor of the Church at Montpelier, where the famous Dewey family are attendants.

'61—Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, President of the American Social Science Association, read a paper at the annual meeting of the Association, Sept. 4th, on "The Natural Right to a Natural Death." The paper has excited wide discussion.

'64—David B. Lyman is traveling in Europe for his health.

'65—The New England Magazine published in its September issue an article on Ezekiah Rogers, which was written by the Rev. Prof. John L. Ewell of Howard University, Washington, D. C.

'68—Frank Cramer has been spending the Summer in Europe.

'70—A book on "The Indians of Today," by George Bird Grinnell, will shortly come from the press of Herbert S. Stone & Co., Chicago.

'71—Henry Baldwin, 237 East 17th St., New York City, class secretary, desires the addresses of the following non-graduate members of the Class of Seventy-One: John C. Benton, C. L. Bodurtha, Joseph DeForest, James F. Littlefield, Frank Richardson, Frank Sanborn, Edwin Pulsifer, Henry T. West. The address is also desired of John S. Sanborn, graduate.

'71—The Commencement records of different institutions last June showed that the children of Seventy-One acquitted themselves well. E. F. Sweet's son took the DeForest at Yale; A. W. Cooper's elder son divided a Greek prize at Wesleyan; A. W. Curtis's daughters were valedictorian and salutatorian of their class at the Spencer (Mass.) High School; Charles Lyman's daughter, although the youngest in her class at school, led it and had the highest percentage of any young lady in the school. In seven studies out of ten in which the class was examined she stood first, Mr. Beemer's son led his class in one of the New York High Schools and R. E. Williams' son graduated with honor at the Institute of Technology, Boston.

Ex-'71—Mr. Farrington is a licensed preacher of the Baptist denomination, but continues to practice medicine.

'72—James Oakey has a daughter in the Junior class at Carleton College, Northfield, Minn.

'72—A Allerton Murch, rector Christ Church, Salmon Falls, N. H., has recently published a small volume of 154 pages, "The Story of the Prayer Book." George W. Jacobs & Co., Philadelphia.

'72—E. W. Cady has charge of the Washington (D. C.) office of Steuart & Steuart, attorneys at law, of 25 Pine St., New York, and Washington Loan & Trust Co. Building, Washington, Counselors in Patent and Trade Mark Causes. Mr. Cady was an examiner in the U. S. Patent Office from 1875 to 1887, and has been in practice outside ever since.

'76—Charles L. Bartlett and Frederick Sprague, '87, are respectively President and Secretary of the new Orangeine Chemical Company of Chicago.

'77—Arthur Reed Kimball of Waterbury read a paper before the American Social Science Association at Saratoga this month on "The Invasion of the Newspaper of Various Fields,—How it Educates People without their Knowing it."

'78—James M. Lamberton has resigned his position as Master in St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and has reopened his law office at his former address, No. 216 Market St., Harrisburg, Pa.

'79—In the absence of Brigadier-General Russell Frost, '77, Colonel L. B. Burpee is acting as Brigadier-General of the troops in Connecticut.

'79—Rev. Edward M. Noyes assisted at the recent installation of Rev. Alexander Milne as pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of Duluth.

'83—Dr. Samuel B. Childs, who went to Denver, Colorado, for his health, has located there permanently.

'84 S.—A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sargent of New Haven.

'86—The September number of Harper's Magazine contains a poem entitled "Israfil," by Charlton M. Lewis.

'86—George E. Eliot, Jr., has been appointed to succeed Dr. Dwight Holbrook as principal of the Morgan School at Clinton, Conn.

'87—George G. Haven, Jr., returned from an extended trip in Europe, September 27, arriving in New York on board the Teutonic.

'88—William D. Washburn has just returned to Minneapolis from an extended trip abroad.

'88—Bernard C. Steiner has formed a partnership for the practice of law in Baltimore City with George C. Morrison and Charles B. Penrose, under the firm name of Morrison, Steiner & Penrose.

'88 S.—R. M. Wilcox, Jr., who for ten years has been an instructor in Civil Engineering at Lehigh University, has opened an office in Middletown, Conn.

'91—Dr. Vertner Kenerson has returned from his service in the United States army and has resumed his medical practice at Buffalo, N. Y.

'91—Norman McClintock, who was formerly engaged in the gas engine business in Canton, Ohio, is now with an automobile firm at his home in Pittsburgh, Pa.

'91 S.—Thomas C. B. Snell has been appointed First Lieutenant and Commanding Officer of the First Section, Signal Corps, C. N. G.

'92—I. W. Riley began work this year at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.

'92—A daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Franklin at Lancaster, Penn.

'92—William B. Wright, Jr., is in the Buffalo Hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

'92 M.A.—Dr. James H. Breasted, Professor of Egyptology in the University of Chicago and Secretary of the Chicago Society for Egyptian Research, will spend the next year in study abroad. He goes for further study of the literature and language of the ancient peoples of the Nile Valley and to assist a body of German scholars in compiling a new lexicon of the Egyptian language. His study of Egyptology was begun as a graduate student of Yale in 1891.

ex-'92—Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Synnott of Little Falls, New Jersey, are on a vacation trip to Saratoga, Hotel Champlain, Montreal and Quebec.

'93—Miss Mary C. Lewis of Woodbridge and Joseph Anderson, Jr., of Waterbury, were married at Bridgeport, September 12.

'93—J. D. Warnock has resigned his position at Cheshire Academy, Cheshire, Conn., and has accepted one at the Hill School, Pottstown, Pa.

'93—Charles D. Jones has returned from a trip around the world for his health with John M. Ferguson, '94, and has renewed his practice of law in Cincinnati, Ohio.

'94—A. W. Elting has entered upon the practice of medicine in Albany, N. Y.

'94—W. R. Clarke will study at Harvard this year in the Divinity School and also in the Graduate School.

'94—The marriage of Miss Anne Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jared Beebe, to Warwick James Price, will take place Wednesday evening, Oct. 11, at Springfield, Mass.

'94 S.—Frederick Z. Brown has recently received a position in the office of the Gerard Life Insurance Company in Philadelphia, Pa.

'93 S.—Louis W. Hill has been elected Superintendent of the Easton Minnesota Railroad, left vacant by the retirement of J. N. Hill, '93, from this office.

'94 S.—Jerome S. Chaffee, who entered the Volunteer Navy on July 21st, 1898, and who during service was on board the Monadnock and Boston, has resigned his position as Assistant Surgeon in the Navy.

'95—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., September 25.

'95—Philip S. Evans has become Intercollegiate Secretary of the Baltimore Y. M. C. A.

'95—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. White, Sept. 7, at Babylon, L. I.

'95—The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Corwin of Hartford, to Emerson G. Taylor.

'95 and '97 L.S.—The engagement of Miss Mildred L. Stoughton, daughter of Mrs. A. R. Stoughton of New Haven, to Benjamin I. Spock, has been announced.

'95—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lester Woodbridge announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Charles Gould Morris, Wednesday, Sept. 27, at 50 Strong Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

'95—F. R. Galacar has accepted the appointment as Supervising Agent and Loss Adjuster for New England of the Union Fire Assurance Society of London. His address is 35 Kilby St., Boston, Mass.

'95 S.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Coburn, July 23.

'95 S.—Walter L. Mitchell, who was engaged at the Agricultural Experiment Station in New Haven last year, has accepted the position of head chemist in the Scovill Manufacturing Company of Waterbury, Conn.

'95 L.S.—Benedict M. Holden, who has been practicing law in the vicinity of Hartford since graduation, has entered the United States Infantry and is stationed at Houston, Texas. Mr. Holden was a Corporal in Company E, First Regiment C. N. G., during the Spanish-American War.

'95 T.S.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George S. Godard, Wednesday, August 9.

'96—Charles L. Fincke, Jr., has been appointed resident physician of the Brooklyn City Hospital.

'96—George S. Buck has opened an office at 496 Ellicott Square Building, Buffalo, N. Y., for the general practice of law.

'96—Richard J. Goodman has opened an office for the general practice of law at 73 First National Bank Building, 50 State St., Hartford, Conn.

'96—Mrs. Edgar S. Auchincloss, mother of Edgar S. Auchincloss, '96, and H. S. Auchincloss, 1901, died September 3, at her home in New York City.

'96—Thomas A. Tracy, who has been local Editor and Manager of the Bristol Herald for the past six months, has accepted a position as a proof reader on the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

'96—At the recent primaries in New York, Henry S. Johnston and E. Hawes were candidates on one of the Republican tickets, in the XXVIIth Assembly District, as delegates to the Assembly District Convention.

Derbies and Derbies

They can be of several different styles this year and still be in good style. Between the Henry Heath and the Victor Jay & Company's hats of London and our own makes, we have some variety and much quality.

CHASE & CO.,

NEW HAVEN HOUSE BLOCK.

Any furnishing goods can go by mail wherever the Alumni Weekly goes.

ex-'96 S.—C. A. Worrall has accepted a position as electrical engineer in Havana, Cuba.

'96 S.—Lee DeForest is with the Western Electric Co. of Chicago.

'96 S.—Otto H. Miller has accepted a position as traveling man for Lamprecht Bros., bankers, of Cleveland, O.

'97—Lucius G. Fisher, Jr., is now with Wheeler, Fisher & Co., Fisher Building, Chicago, Ill.

'97—The engagement is announced of Miss Palmer, of Omaha, Neb., to Herman D. Kountze.

'97—Albert E. Kent spent the Summer studying in Germany and traveling on the continent.

'97—Wendell P. Keeler sailed for Europe, September 30th, and will spend the year in study at Oxford University.

'97—C. S. Leavenworth is under five years contract with the Chinese Government as Professor of History in Nangang College, Shanghai. Mr. Leavenworth sailed from San Francisco, July 26.

'97—At the recent primaries in New York, Frank Brookfield was one of the candidates on the regular Republican ticket, in the XXVIIth Assembly District, for delegates to the Assembly District Convention.

'97—The wedding of Miss Lily Duncan Voorhies, of Lexington, Ky., and Arthur Joy Draper, was celebrated at Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington, on Thursday, September 7. Clare H. Draper, 1900, a brother of the groom, acted as best man, and among the ushers were R. S. Brewster, G. P. Day, L. G. Fisher, Jr., Henry Ledyard, and F. T. Murphy, all of Ninety-Seven. Mr. and Mrs. Draper will take a house at Cambridge, Mass., for the coming Winter, Mr. Draper having one year more of study in the Harvard Law School.

'97 S.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Rose, Sept. 21, at their home in Newburgh, N. Y.

'97 S.—Winsor P. French was admitted to the bar, July 6, and is practicing law under the firm name of Winsor B. French & Son, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

'97 S.—Hugh M. North, Jr., Chairman of the Lancaster County delegation, was the Secretary of the Democratic State Convention held at Harrisburg, Penn., this year.

'98 S.—M. B. Yung is a Sophomore in the Columbia School of Mines.

'98—E. F. Bell will study at the Hartford Theological Seminary this year.

'98—Job E. Johnson has received the degree of M.A. from Harvard for work in the Classics.

'98—The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Curtis of Hartford to Howard S. Borden.

Have you your FALL KNOX yet?