

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Please report concerning yourself, facts which should be recorded in this column. Make report, also, about Yale men you know, and on matters, proper for record here, concerning which you have definite record. This will make the page of the greatest possible value. On request the Alumni Weekly will be glad to send postals to those who are in the way of getting, more or less often, Yale news and Yale personals.

'41—D. G. Mitchell has just published a second volume of "American Lands and Letters."

'53—Rev. Theodore J. Holmes is supplying the pulpit of the First Congregational Church, Baltimore.

'53—Theodore Bacon arrived in New York, October 11, on board the North German Lloyd steamship "Ems," after an extended trip abroad.

'61—John D. Tucker has been elected Vice-President of the Veteran Corps of the First Company, Governor's Foot Guard of Connecticut.

'66—Dr. S. Hartwell Chapman, who has been spending the Summer in Europe, returned to New Haven recently.

'66—George C. Holt has been nominated for one of the two Justices of the Supreme Court of New York on the Republican ticket.

'67—Wallace Bruce has a poem entitled "Old Ironsides to Olympia," in Harper's Weekly of October 10.

'68—Hon. James M. Varnum has been nominated on the Republican ticket as Surrogate of New York City.

'69—Rev. Dr. Charles F. Canedy has been elected President of the Board of Education of New Rochelle, N. Y.

'69—Eli Whitney and Thomas Hooker have just returned to New Haven from a four weeks hunting trip in the Mooseland region of Maine.

'74—Daniel R. Howe has returned to Hartford, Conn., from a trip abroad.

'73 L.S.—Hon. Hobart L. Hotchkiss has just returned from a hunting trip in the Maine woods.

'73—Gardiner Greene has been appointed by Gov. Lounsbury a member on a committee of six to revise the statutes of the State of Connecticut.

'74—The marriage of Miss Lucy P. Trowbridge to Francis G. Ingersoll took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William P. Trowbridge, in New Haven, October 10.

'74 L.S. and '79 T.S.—Rev. F. Stanley Root has written a book entitled "Tousled Hair," which has recently come from the press of F. Tennyson Neeley, publisher, London, New York and Chicago.

ex-'74 S.—Louis E. A. de Goll will be married to Miss Nannie Archer of Hartford County, Md., October 28.

ex-'75 S.—George H. Beckwith has formed a law partnership with A. L. Smith. Address, 52 Produce Exchange Building, Toledo, Ohio.

'76—President A. T. Hadley attended the inauguration of Rev. Dr. George Harris as President of Amherst College, October 11.

'77 and '79 L.S.—James P. Andrews has been appointed by Gov. Lounsbury a member on a committee of six to revise the statutes of the State of Connecticut.

ANYWHERE!

That's where you can buy a Knox

Hat. For if by any chance the hat store at your home is not a

Knox store, a line to the main office, Fifth Avenue Hotel Building, New York City, will start a sample your way.

'77 S.—John A. Weekes, Jr., has been nominated on the Republican ticket for Assemblyman from the XXVth District for the New York Assembly.

'80—William D. Murray will address the Baptist Young People's Union of Boston, November 6, on "The Student Work of the Y. M. C. A."

'81 and '83 L.S.—Henry C. White has been appointed by Gov. Lounsbury a member on a committee of six to revise the statutes of the State of Connecticut.

'83—Professor E. G. Bourne has an article in the North American Review for October, entitled "A Trained Colonial Civil Service."

'83—Cleveland L. Moffett has been traveling in the Holy Land during the Summer months collecting material for a lecture on the "Life of Christ," which he will deliver this Winter under the management of the S. S. McClure Lecture Bureau. The lecture will be illustrated with colored photographs of the famous Tissot paintings.

'87—Hon. Thomas H. Penney has been nominated by the Republicans for District Attorney of Erie County. He is the present incumbent, having been appointed by Gov. Roosevelt to fill an unexpired term.

'87—Dr. George Woodward is candidate for member of the Common Council of Philadelphia from the 22d ward. At the caucus on August 22, for nomination, he received the votes of thirty-eight out of thirty-nine delegates. The election will be held next month.

'88—Dr. Brownlee R. Ward, U. S. N., is traveling in Europe.

'89—Frederick A. Scott, clerk of the Connecticut Senate, is recovering from his recent illness. He is at his home in Plymouth.

'89 T.S.—Rev. C. B. F. Pease has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Congregational Church at Plattsville, Conn., and will enter upon his duties on the last Sunday of October.

'89 T.S.—Rev. Dr. Harlan Creelman, who resigned from Yale last year to take the chair of Old Testament Language and Literature in the Montreal (Can.) Congregational College, delivered his introductory address in his new position Monday, Oct. 2.

'90—A. G. McClintock has gone to Canada for a month's shooting trip.

'90—Elihu M. Griswold has been appointed Manager of the Griswold Mfg. Co. of Erie, Pa.

'90—Herbert Parsons is the Republican and Citizens Union candidate for the New York Board of Alderman, in the 25th Assembly District.

'91 M.S.—The marriage of Miss Margaret McKiernan, daughter of Mrs. R. McKiernan of No. 16 Park Street, New Haven, to Dr. Harry A. Elcock, will take place quietly, Tuesday, October 26.

'90—John D. Jackson, Business Manager of the New Haven Register, has acquired a controlling interest in the Worcester Gazette, and will handle the affairs of that paper as well as of the Register.

'90—George D. Yeomans is Democratic candidate for District Attorney of Erie County (Buffalo) N. Y. His nomination was opposed by the regular organization and he carried the convention by a close vote after a hard fight.

'91 S.—H. W. Gregory has been elected Judge of the Probate Court of Norwalk, Conn.

'92—Frank J. Price has been nominated for the Legislature in a Republican district of Brooklyn.

'93—H. B. Barnes, Jr., has opened a law office at 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

'93—Miss A. Louise Rogers of Springfield, Mass., and W. E. Breckenridge were married July 12.

'93—W. E. Breckenridge is instructor in mathematics in the Mixed High School, New York City.

'93—A. P. Lord has returned to Paris for the Winter. His address is 11 Villa Dupont, Rue Pergolese.

'93—Charles J. Fay has entered the law office of Seward, Guthrie & Steele, 40 Wall Street, New York City.

'93—The wedding of Miss Lucy Bowen of Springfield, Illinois, to Logan Hay, will take place in November.

'93—William H. Murphy is the trainer of the athletic teams of Leland Stanford University, California, this year.

'93—Lemuel A. Welles has been nominated for Alderman of the XXVth As-

"What Yale Wants"

That is the way lots of sentences begin nowadays, when wise dogs meet and creation is analyzed. We really think we know what Yale wants—in certain important directions. Come and see if we dont.

CHASE &amp; CO.,

Outfitters,

New Haven House Block.

sembly District of New York City, on the Republican ticket.

'93 S.—Mark Ewing has removed his law office from 411 Olive Street to Room 724 Rialto Building, S. E. cor. 4th and Olive Sts., St. Louis, Mo.

'93—George B. Spalding, Jr., is a member of the Senior class at Auburn Theological Seminary. His address is 93 North Street, Auburn, N. Y.

'93—Dr. Adrian V. S. Lambert will spend this year in studying medicine in Vienna. His address is care of J. S. Morgan & Co., London, England.

'93—George G. Martin has been appointed Superintendent of the Arkansas and Texas District of the Long Distance Telephone Company, and is located at Little Rock, Ark.

'93—The wedding of Miss Florence Lavina Brown, daughter of Joseph Espes Brown, Esq., of Brooklyn, N. Y., to William L. Newton, will take place at the Church of the Pilgrims in Brooklyn, Thursday evening, October 19, at 8 o'clock.

'93 S.—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hill at Elberon, N. J., August 27.

'93 S.—Harry P. Ritchie returned to St. Paul, Minn., October 11, with the Thirteenth Regiment, Minnesota Volunteers, which has just come back from Manila.

'93 L.S.—David T. McNamara has been appointed Examiner of Records of New Haven, to succeed W. S. Thompson.

'94—Dr. Letchworth Smith sailed for Ireland July 15, for two months' practice in the Rotunda Hospital of Dublin.

'94—James A. Hawes was the candidate of the Republicans of the 27th New York District, opposed to the Citizens' Union, in the caucus for nomination for Alderman. In the final ballot, he received 18½ votes to 66½ for Alderman Oatman, who was thus renominated.

'94—The marriage of Miss Anne Glover Beebe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Beebe, to Warwick James Price, took place at the bride's home in Springfield, Mass., October 11. Among the ushers were W. R. Calender, '94, and R. W. Holmes, '94. Mr. and Mrs. Price will live in New York.

'94 S.—F. H. Lee is Superintendent of the W. L. Scott Coal Co., Erie, Pa.

'95 S.—A daughter was born August 20, to Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Waite of Columbus, O.

ex-'94—The engagement is announced of Miss Lulu M. Kimberly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kimberly of Neenah, Wis., and Clinton J. Curtis of Redlands, Cal.

'95—Percy W. Crane has become a member of the Association of the Bar of New York City.

'95—Edward C. Baldwin has resigned his position in the Duluth High School to accept an appointment as instructor in English in Adelbert College of Medicine.

'95—The engagement is announced of Miss Ethel Hill, daughter of Warren E. Hill of Brooklyn, N. Y., to Tracy Peck, Jr. The marriage is to take place October 25.

'95—Henry G. Miller, Jr., is practicing law in Chicago, with the firm of Dupee, Judah, Williard & Wolf, whose offices are in the Adams Exchange Building.

'95—Charles A. Kimball has given up his position in Fitchburg, Mass., because of ill health and is now in Littleton, Mass. This will be his address for the present.

'95 S.—George W. Shaw is in business with his father in the firm of Shaw, Sassaman & Company, of Toledo, O.

'95 S.—The New York Electrical World and Engineer of September 16 has the following: "Mr. George Harvey Seward, in charge of the Publication Bureau of the Crocker-Wheeler Company, at Ampere, N. J., has gone to Rochester, N. Y., to accept a position with the Bausch & Lomb Optical Company, in the same line of work. In making this engagement, he re-enters the optical and photographic field. Mr. Seward is a graduate from the Sheffield Scientific School. This and his practical experience has eminently fitted him for his special work. He was in the employ of the Short Electrical Company, on street railway construction; with the Sargent Manufacturing Company, New Haven, Conn., and the Mergenthaler Linotype Company, of Brooklyn, N. Y., as draughtsman, and with J. B. Colt & Co., lantern manufacturers, and the F. A. Ringler Company, of this city, on advertising, engraving and photographic work. Mr. Seward has now engaged to work up the Bausch-Lomb catalogues, which are necessarily highly technical and deal with every branch of optics and many physical lines. He will be associated with Mr. L. B. Elliott, editor of the Journal of Applied Microscopy, issued from the publication department of the firm."

'96—W. J. Starkweather, Jr., will leave Cleveland, Ohio, in October and spend the Winter in California.

'96—J. Frederick Eagle has taken up the practice of law with the firm of Harmon & Mathewson, 40 Wall Street, New York City.

'96—The marriage of Miss Irene M. Gillette of New Haven to Dr. John L. Burnham, took place October 4, in New Haven. Dr. and Mrs. Burnham are living in Old Lyme, where Dr. Burnham has a large practice.

'96 S.—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Have-meyer, who were married on October 5, will live at 251 West Eighty-First St., New York City.

ex-'96 S.—C. A. Worrall is engaged in Havana, Cuba, as an electrical engineer.

'97—Frank M. Cobb is now practicing law in the office of Dickey, Brewer & McGowan, Cleveland, O.

'97—Carl H. Shultz is pursuing graduate studies in Chemistry at Johns Hopkins.

'97—Arthur W. Ewell is pursuing graduate studies in Physics at the Johns Hopkins.

'97 S.—Harry B. Snell, Civil Engineer of the Hartford Street R. R., is very ill