

with typhoid fever in the Hospital at Hartford.

'97—H. M. Keator is studying at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City.

'97 S.—Daniel D. Schenck is with the firm of S. C. Schenck & Co., Toledo, O.

'97 S.—W. B. Wood has been appointed Assistant Engineer Maintenance of Way of the Cleveland & Pittsburg R. R., with headquarters at Wellsville.

'98—Morris U. Ely has entered the Columbia Law School.

'98—W. H. Thompson, Jr., is teaching at the Torrington (Conn.) High School.

'98 S.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stout of Fort Scott, Kansas, July 29.

'98—Herbert D. Gallaudet has entered the Union Theological Seminary of New York City.

'98—M. W. Gaines is employed with The International Paper Co. of New York City.

'98 S.—William B. Slocovitch is playing end on the football team of Columbia University.

'98—The engagement of Miss Galbraith of New York, to E. O. Emerson, Jr., has been announced.

'99—W. D. Cushman is in business in Buffalo, N. Y.

'99—L. E. Stoddard is studying at the Harvard Law School.

'99—E. B. Boise is studying at the Harvard Law School.

'99—R. L. Dunn is connected with the Eastman Kodak Co. Rochester, N. Y.

'99—Jamot Brown has entered his father's real estate business in Chicago.

'99—R. G. Van Name is studying in the Graduate School of the University.

'99—W. J. Torrey is studying law in the office of Welles & Torrey, Scranton, Pa.

'99—P. S. Potter has entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York.

'99—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Julin a short time ago.

'99—C. R. Swift, Jr., is teaching in the West Jersey Academy of Bridgeton, N. J.

'99—Francis Parks, who has been traveling abroad, sailed for home Saturday, Oct. 6.

'99—George S. Chappell is studying architecture at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris.

'99—W. T. Stern is employed with the Montana Coal and Coke Company of Horr, Mont.

'99—The engagement is announced of Miss Tuke of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., to Arthur S. Gale.

'99—The engagement is announced of Miss Ethel Brierly of Worcester, Mass., to George W. Field. A reporter's careless reading of his notes so confused this note with the one preceding it that an error was made in the announcement in the last issue.

'99—Roger Capen has changed his address from Cincinnati to 6544 Washington Ave., Chicago.

'99—Thomas Kearny, C. W. Abbott and T. D. Hewitt have entered the New York Law School.

'99—Oswald Lockett, Jr., has a position with the hardware firm of Oswald Lockett of Chicago.

'99—George Dautel has been engaged to coach the Kenyon College football team at Gambier, Ohio.

'99—E. S. Parmlee is employed in the Lincoln National Bank on East 42d Street, New York City.

'99—J. M. Magee and C. A. Belin are studying at the Pennsylvania Law School in Scranton, Pa.

'99—William G. Wallace expects to spend the Winter in Italy and at Nice. Address: Care Cadone & Co., Nice, France.

'99—H. R. Shipman is traveling abroad. His address is, Care of J. S. Morgan Company, London, England.

'99 S.—Philip R. Brand is studying at Heidelberg, Germany.

'99 S.—W. Walker is studying law at the New York Law School.

'99 S.—E. S. Lewis is taking a course at the Yale Medical School.

'99 S.—David H. Gaines is connected with Huyler's in New York City.

'99 S.—Gilbert C. Summerfield is studying law at Columbia Law School.

YALE OBITUARIES.

CHARLES PEIRCE STETSON, '55.

Charles Pierce Stetson, died at his home in Bangor, Maine, September 29, of heart disease, after a few days illness.

Charles Peirce Stetson was a son of the late Charles Stetson, '23, and was born in Bangor, May 24, 1835. He prepared for College in the Bangor schools and after graduating from Yale with the Class of Fifty-Five, took up the study of law in Bangor with Messrs. Rowe & Bartlett, where he remained until 1856. The following year was spent in the Harvard Law School and in July, 1857, he was admitted to the bar of Maine. He then formed a partnership with Joseph Carr, of Bangor, and immediately began to practice. His ability soon won recognition in both professional and political circles and in the Fall of 1861 he was elected County Attorney for Penobscot County, to which position he was elected for twelve successive years. The growth of his private clientele then forced him to refuse another election.

Mr. Stetson's business sagacity and sound judgment were fully recognized by the leading corporations of the locality, so that at the time of his death he was President of the European and North American Railroad, Vice-President of the Merchant's National Bank, and a Director in the First National Bank, Union Insurance Company, Bangor Gas Light Company and the Bangor Bridge Company.

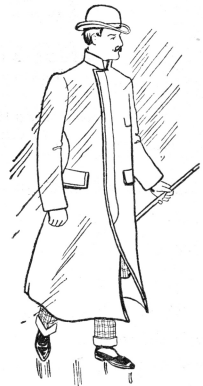

He was married to Miss Annie S. Sawyer, May 24, 1875, who survives him. His only son, Charles Stetson, is a member of the Senior class of Yale University.

EDWIN HOLT ENGLISH, EX-'75.

Edwin Holt English, ex-'75, died of lung trouble at his home, 390 Prospect Street, New Haven, Friday, October 6.

Mr. English prepared for Yale at French's private school in New Haven, and entered the University with the Class of Seventy-Five, but owing to ill health he was forced to withdraw before completing his course. He entered business life in the office of his father, the late ex-Lieutenant-Governor, Charles L. English, lumber merchant, and on the death of the latter, took his interest in the business, the old firm name of English & Holt being continued. Mr. English is survived by a wife and seven children.

Men's English "Cravenette" Tailor-made Rain Coats.

Porous to air. No rubber. No odor. No perspiration. Hygienic.

SHED RAIN PERFECTLY.

Coats have Silk Label

"Cravenette"

Trade mark stamped on back of cloth.

Price, from $25 up.

Made of... "Priestley"

West of England Cloths.

For sale in New Haven by CHASE & CO.

and by leading Haberdashers throughout the country.

Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s

IMPORTANT NEW BOOKS.

The Dutch and Quaker Colonies in America

By JOHN FISKE. With 8 maps. 2 vols. crown 8vo, gilt top, $4.00.

This is a work of first-rate importance, probably the most distinctive contribution of this year to American historical literature. It comes next in order to Mr. Fiske's "Beginnings of New England." It traces the causes which led to the colonizing of New York by the Dutch, and Pennsylvania by the Quakers; it describes the small beginnings, the formidable obstacles, the tenacious purpose, and the gradual growth of these colonies to great power. The very interesting story is told with the remarkable clearness and charm which make Mr. Fiske's volumes of American history as delightful as they are important.

Letters and Recollections of John Murray Forbes . . . . .

Edited by his daughter, SARAH F. HUGHES. With portraits. 2 vols. 8vo, gilt top, $5.00.

This work is one of the most notable which the year will bring in the department of biography. Mr. Forbes was a man of remarkable force and quality of character, a sagacious leader among business men, of an ideal public spirit, and a prince among philanthropists. Mr. Emerson, who knew him intimately, held Mr. Forbes to be an American of the noblest type.

HORACE BUSHNELL

By THEODORE T. MUNGER, D.D. With two portraits. 12mo, $2.00.

Both the writer and the subject of this book strongly commend it to public attention. Dr. Bushnell was for years one of the brightest and clearest lights of the American pulpit, illustrious for strength of mind, beauty of character, and intrepid devotion to truth. Dr. Munger is peculiarly fitted to interpret him to this generation and to build an enduring memorial to him.

THE END OF AN ERA

By JOHN S. WISE. 12mo, $2.00.

The era here described is that which for the Southern States came to an end with the surrender of General Johnston to General Sherman in 1865. The author is the son of Gov. Henry A. Wise of Virginia, and he describes antebellum life in Virginia, its social charm and its peculiar characteristics, the excitement of the John Brown invasion, and his observations and experience during the Civil War. His book gives a remarkably vivid and accurate inside view of the Confederate States, and is at once very valuable and interesting.

Sold by all Booksellers. Sent, postpaid, by

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO., Boston.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY

AUTUMN 1899.

Early fall numbers of the ATLANTIC will contain the following articles of peculiar interest to Yale men:

Progress in English Instruction.

A review of the progress made in English instruction in the present generation, both in colleges and secondary schools, and a forecast of the lines of advance to be followed in successful English instruction in the future.

Albert S. Cook of Yale University.

A Philistine's View of a Browning Play.

This well-known scholar and critic discusses the question of the success of Browning's "Blot in the Scutcheon" as an acting play, and points out some of the violations of dramatic propriety which he finds in it.

T. R. Lounsbury of Yale University.

Is there a Democracy of Studies?

An article showing the increase in the number of pupils studying Latin in American public schools, and the renewed interest in Latin as a subject of college instruction, and the reason for it.

Andrew F. West of Princeton University.

The American College in the Twentieth Century.

Clemant L. Smith of Harvard University.

The American Historical Association.

A timely paper to be published just previous to the meeting of the Association in Boston during the month of December.

Frederick J. Turner of the University of Wisconsin.

MISS MAY JOHNSTON'S GREAT COLONIAL NOVEL TO HAVE AND TO HOLD

is now appearing as a serial in

The Atlantic Monthly

and will be continued through several more issues.

No serial publication in the Atlantic since the "Autocrat at the Breakfast-Table" has created such widespread interest and enthusiasm.

SPECIAL OFFER.—In order to introduce the Atlantic to a large circle of new readers, the publishers announce that a trial subscription for three months will be sent, on receipt of 50 cents, to any person whose name does not now appear upon the Atlantic subscription list.

35 Cents a Copy, $4.00 a Year.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN AND COMPANY 4 Park Street, Boston.