

Yale 1903, 44; Waterbury, 0.

The Freshman Eleven won their first victory of the season from the Waterbury Y. M. C. A. at the Field on Saturday, October 28. While the score, 44 to 0, can hardly be taken to stand for very much on account of the weakness of the opposing team, the individual work of the team showed very marked improvement over that in the previous games and the general play was much faster. The Freshmen made gains whenever they were needed and the game was characterized by long end runs. The Yale goal was threatened at no time in the game. The touchdowns were made by Clark, McClintock, Barnwell, Peckham, VanderPoel and Donohoe.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

FRESHMEN.	POSITION.	WATERBURY.
