

Week of Prayer.

Every year it has been the custom of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the country to observe a week of prayer for the stimulation of religious life. The week of prayer commenced at Yale, Monday morning, November 13. The meetings, which are held from 7:20 to 7:40 A. M., in the library of Dwight, will continue until Saturday morning, November 18. The needs of the Student Christian world have been chosen as objects of prayer.

The subjects of the meetings, which are led by undergraduates, are as follows: Monday, Nov. 13—Purity; Leader, F. H. Sincerbeaux, 1902. Tuesday, Nov. 14—Courage; Leader, P. D. Moody, 1901. Wednesday, Nov. 15—Power to Sympathize; Leader, R. H. Edwards, 1901. Thursday, Nov. 16—Knowledge of Christ as a Real Friend; Leader, U. S. Coffin, 1900. Friday, Nov. 17—Willingness to Obey; Leader, H. C. Heinz, 1900. Saturday, Nov. 18—Entire Consecration; Leader, Matthew Mills, 1900.

Chicago Club Organizes.

A meeting of the Chicago Club was held, Tuesday, November 7, to organize and to elect officers. The following were elected: President, Robert Stevenson, Jr., 1900; Vice-President, Frederic William Renshaw, 1900 S.; Secretary and Treasurer, James Leonard Boyce, 1901, and Matthew Mills, 1900, third member of the Executive Committee.

At the suggestion of J. M. McCormick, 1900, who presided, it was decided that the Executive Committee endeavor to have the annual alumni dinner in Chicago held during the Christmas vacation; and that arrangements be made to have the undergraduates attend. Besides this it was voted to hold a smoker and banquet after Christmas, during the next term.

Lit. Contents.

The list of contents of the November number of the Yale Literary Magazine, which appears to-day, is as follows:

Essays—"The Minor Art of Human Relations," J. P. Lombard, 1900; "Poetry and Science," W. E. Meyer, 1901; "The Decadency of the Ghost," W. G. D. Morgan, 1901; "My Uncle's Treasury," P. T. Gilbert, 1901. Stories—"A Chronicle of Wisby," Ray Morris, 1901; "A Serious Affair," Roy M. Mason, 1902; "The Masterpiece of Aahmes," A. M. Cressler, 1902. Poems—"Cain," D. B. McLane, 1903; "The Moose Horn's Call," H. A. Plummer, 1903; "The Ballad of Bauld Carlisle," A. C. Ludington, 1902; "Regret," W. G. Morgan, 1901; "After Bohemia's Seas," E. L. Fox, 1902; "Thyself Thy Judge," B. A. Welch, 1902; "Before the Fire," W. S. Johnson, 1900; "Repose," W. L. Dix, 1902. Portfolio—"The Chevalier's Mirror," H. A. Plummer, 1903; "A Modern Instance," C. B. Thompson, 1900.

Glee Club Christmas Trip.

The Christmas trip of the University Glee and Banjo Club Association has already been arranged for this year, and the cities named in which concerts will be given are as follows: Buffalo, December 21; Rochester, December 22; Detroit, December 23; Chicago, December 24; Minneapolis, December 26; St. Paul, December 27; St. Louis, December 29; Cincinnati, December 30; Columbus, January 1; Harrisburg, January 3; Washington, January 4; Philadelphia, January 5; Brooklyn, January 6. In Chicago and Cincinnati the Clubs will be given a day's rest on Christmas day, and December 31 respectively.

Chamber Concerts.

The Chamber Concert Course for the present year has been definitely arranged and as last year the programs will be given by the Kneisel and Adamowski quartets. The dates of these recitals are as follows:

November 14—The Kneisel Quartet.
December 15—The Adamowski Trio.
January 23—The Adamowski Quartet and Professor Horatio W. Parker.
February 27—The Kneisel Quartet.

On account of ill health, Mr. Otto Roth, who played second violin in the Kneisel Quartet last year, has been forced to give up his position, and his place has been taken by Mr. Ondricek, one of the first violins of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. It is said the change rather benefits than injures the ensemble of the quartet.

Bequest to Yale.

By the death of F. T. Jarman, of the Class of 1848, the sum of $6,000 comes to Yale University. This amount consists of two bequests, which were held under life tenure by the late Mr. Jarman, according to the will of his mother, Catharine W. Jarman, who died in 1887. Both gifts go to the Theological Seminary, one of $5,000, to be used for indigent students, and the other of $1,000, to be used to establish a scholarship for indigent students.

Visit of Governor Roosevelt.

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt of New York will visit informally his friends at Yale next Monday, stopping over on his way back from Cambridge, where he will see the Yale-Harvard game on Saturday. Governor Roosevelt reaches here Monday noon and will meet a few friends at lunch at the Graduates Club on his arrival. In the afternoon he will look about Yale.

In the evening he will be the guest for dinner of President Hadley. At dinner President Hadley will entertain Governor Roosevelt and Mr. John C. Greenway, who accompanies him. It will not be a formal affair and there will be only a few personal friends present. At 8.30 Governor Roosevelt will talk to the students at College Street Hall. After this talk there will be a reception at the Graduates Club for members of the Club. Governor Roosevelt will spend the night at President Hadley's and will proceed to New York in the morning.

International Chess Trophy.

The Chess Trophy, which has been given by Mr. Isaac Rice, as a prize to be played for annually by the chess clubs of Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Columbia, and the Oxford and Cambridge Clubs, has been completed, and is now on exhibition at the store of the makers, Theodore B. Starr, New York City. Its value is $1,200. The provisions made by the previously mentioned clubs, and accepted by the donor, are that the control of the trophy shall rest with a board of trustees consisting of eight members, one each from the alumni of Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Columbia, and two each from the graduates of Oxford and Cambridge. This board will be elected biennially, in October.

Contesting Marsh Will.

The legitimacy of the bequest of the late Professor O. C. Marsh, by which his estate, valued at about $100,000, was given to Yale University, has been attacked by Robert H. Waters, the only surviving heir.

Suit has been brought against the University by Mr. Waters, to recover the estate on the grounds that undue influence was brought to bear upon Professor Marsh and that his mind was unsound when the bequest was made. It is thought by all competent to judge, that these claims are ridiculous, and will not be granted when the case comes up in court.

From one end of the land to the other, wherever men who demand the best are found, Fownes' Gloves are the recognized standard of merit and fashion. They are best for dress, for the street, for riding, driving, or golfing—for all occasions and all purposes. To wear them is to be correctly gloved. All leading haberdashers sell them.

Debating Conference.

A conference of the Yale Debating Association, which is composed of all the debating organizations of the University, will be held this evening, Wednesday, at 7 o'clock. A. D. Leavitt, 1900, will preside. The meeting is called for the purpose of discussing the question of coaching the intercollegiate debating teams, the schedule of inter-club debates, and financial questions.
