

GOOD YALE HOCKEY.

Vacation Trip Shows the Team to be a Strong One.

The five practice games arranged for the Yale Hockey Team by Captain Shiras Campbell, 1900, resulted very satisfactorily, only one being lost and that he first one, to the Crescent Athletic Club, Brooklyn, whose members, under the name of the Brooklyn Skating Club, won the championship last year. The four Pittsburg games with the strongest clubs in the city were won by remarkably fast play with the small margin of one point in each game. The series showed plainly that Yale has an unusually fast hockey team this season, well balanced and at times capable of brilliant play. In the intercollegiate contests, which began last Tuesday night, Yale should make a good showing. These men were taken on the trip: Forwards, S. Campbell, 1900 (Captain); G. C. Walworth, 1900; E. S. Bronson, 1900; F. C. Inman, 1902 S., and J. B. Buckwalter, 1902 L.S.; cover points, J. P. Brock, 1900, and A. C. Coxe, Jr., 1901; points, T. Sturgis, Jr., 1903, and E. A. Strong, 1900 S.; and goal, R. E. Smith, P.G.

A brief review of each game is printed below.

Crescent A. C. 7; Yale 1.

The game with the Crescent Athletic Club, Monday night, January 1, at the Clermont Avenue Rink, Brooklyn, was the first of the vacation season games for the Yale Hockey team, and drew an audience of 1500 or more. Yale played a strong game but was not able to do better than 1 point to 7. Individually and collectively the Crescents are probably the strongest hockey team in the East, Dobby, Wall and Drakeley being three of the forwards. Inman made the only score for Yale. The line-up and summary follows:

CRESCENT.	POSITION.	YALE.
Hallock.....	Goal.....	Smith
McKenzie.....	Point.....	Sturgis
Curtis.....	Cover Point.....	Strong
Dobby.....	Forwards	Campbell
Wall.....		Inman
Harty.....		Bronson
Drakeley.....		Walworth

Goals—Drakeley 2, Dobby 2, Wall 2, Curtis 1, Inman 1. Referee—C. H. Post. Umpires—Seymour and Jarvis.

Yale 2; Bankers' A. C. 1.

The Yale Hockey team reached Pittsburg on Wednesday, January 3, and in the evening met the Bankers' Athletic Club at the Duquesne Ice Palace before an audience of nearly 3,000. At the end of two 15-minute halves the score stood 1 to 1 and it required 10 minutes more of play to give Yale the deciding goal, which was shot by Inman. In the first part of the game the Bankers had rather the better of the match, chiefly through poor team play on Yale's part, but in the last seven minutes, those who were present agree that never had such rapid play been seen in the rink. Inman in particular did remarkable work.

The line-up and summary:

YALE.	POSITION.	BANKERS' A. C.
Smith.....	Goal.....	Ames
Sturgis.....	Point.....	Mason
Coxe.....	Cover Point.....	Russell
Bronson.....	Forwards	Caldwell
Walworth.....		Ritchie
Inman.....		Ogden
Campbell.....		Stoebener

Goals—Mason, Bronson, Inman. Referee—Duff. Umpires—Phelaa and McDonald.

The Winter Pull.

The long term is on. These are working days. But Knox hats are good working day hats—stiff or soft, caps or derbies. Knox business or negligee hats are as good as Knox dress hats.

Yale 1; Western U. of P. O.

Yale's second game of the Pittsburg series was with the Western University of Pennsylvania in the Duquesne Garden Thursday night, and as the Yale men had, in the first game, become accustomed to the ice, they played in superior form. There was a great improvement in team work, too, every member working with his neighbor at the sacrifice of individual brilliancy. Captain Campbell and Bronson, working together, made Yale's only score. In the second half, although the play was exceedingly fast and fierce, Yale prevented her opponents from scoring, but could herself not add a single point. Over 4500 people saw the game.

The line-up and summary:

YALE.	POSITION.	W. U. P.
Smith.....	Goal.....	Houston
Sturgis.....	Point.....	Bissell
Coxe.....	Cover Point.....	Collins
Bronson.....	Forwards	Kress
Inman.....		Haverty
Walworth.....		H. Bright
.....		G. Bright

Goal—Bronson. Referee—Duff. Umpires—Coombs and Strong.

Yale 3; D. C. and A. C. 2.

Yale scored her third victory at the Duquesne Rink over the Duquesne Country and Athletic Club Friday night. At the end of the first half Duquesne had made two goals and Yale none, and it looked like an easy victory, but in the second half Yale began like a whirlwind and carried their opponents off their feet with fast and aggressive play. Inman again distinguished himself by splendid driving, and with Campbell, was responsible for the winning goals. More than 3,000 people were present.

The line-up and summary:

YALE.	POSITION.	D. C. AND A. C.
Smith.....	Goal.....	Bauersmith
Sturgis.....	Point.....	Sammons
Coxe.....	Cover Point.....	Steen
Bronson.....	Forwards	Phelan
Walworth.....		Hall, Preston
Inman.....		L. Bright
Cambell.....		Rowe

Goals—Bright, Hall, Inman 3. Referee—Duff. Umpires—McDonald and Strong.

Yale 5; P. A. C. 4.

By defeating the Pittsburg Athletic Club's strong team, Saturday night, the Yale men made the series four straight victories. Every point of the match was fiercely contested for and rough play was indulged in on both sides. The score was tied at the end of the first half—1 to 1, and again at the end of the second half—3 to 3. In the extra 10 minutes agreed on to reach a winning score, the superior physical condition of Yale's men backed by fine individual work by Walworth, Inman and Bronson gave her two goals to Pittsburg's one and won the game. The line-up and summary:

YALE.	POSITION.	P. A. C.
Smith.....	Goal.....	H. Edwards
Sturgis.....	Point.....	O'Neil
Coxe.....	Cover Point.....	Diebold
Bronson.....	Forwards	Coulson
Inman.....		Reynor
Walworth.....		F. Edwards
Campbell.....		Stoebener

Goals—Inman 2, Walworth 2, Bronson 1; Reynor 4. Umpires—McDonald and Strong. Referee—Duff.

A Harvard Forecast.

[Harvard Crimson.]

Just how long it will be before critics will say that money matters have been eliminated from Harvard athletics, is a matter of conjecture. Certain it is, however, that we are already beginning to look forward to the time when Harvard and Yale will no longer cater to outsiders, and when admission to the annual game will be open only for graduates and undergraduates of these universities. We may then have an athletic association comprising all teams, membership in which will be obtained upon payment of a nominal fee, less than the amount now demanded to secure season tickets and entrance to the big games. The days of persuasive managers will then be past, and by joining one great association the undergraduate will support the teams and have the privilege of attending all their games. Not the least important feature of such a system will be the field that it will offer for a greater University spirit, and a keener and more vigorous spirit of rivalry, engendered by intimate relationship between Harvard and Yale men.

THE MUSICAL CLUBS.

A Very Successful Christmas Trip—Good Singing and Good Houses.

The thirty-fourth annual Christmas trip of the University Glee and Banjo Clubs, which ended with the concert in the Academy of Music in Brooklyn, last Saturday evening, proved to be one of the most successful the Clubs have ever undertaken. Good houses faced the musicians at every performance and the general opinion is that the quality of the singing has rarely been excelled. The soloists were: R. H. Schneeloch, M.S.; G. W. Simmons, 1900; R. A. McGee, 1900 S. and T. B. Clarke, Jr., 1900. At every performance the Mandolin Club drew a great deal of applause for its well-played selections, particularly the "Venetian Love Song," which they were often obliged to repeat several times.

The trip of 3,300 miles was considerably shorter than the one taken Christmas a year ago, but the receipts were larger, more than 10,000 people attending the 13 concerts. The largest houses were in Chicago and St. Louis.

The Clubs were royally entertained everywhere. Besides the luncheons, teas and dances given to the men, by the Yale graduates and their families, many undergraduates of Yale in the cities visited, gave luncheons and dinners to friends on the Clubs, adding much to the pleasure of the trip. The men found their two special Wagner cars "Riva" and "Iroquois," with the baggage car, ready for them at Springfield, Mass., Wednesday, December 20. Leaving there at 8.45 that evening, they reached Buffalo on the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. at nine the next morning, Dec. 21. At one o'clock, Mr. George Urban gave a stag luncheon at the Buffalo Club and from there the men went to Mrs. Harry Hamlin's tea at her residence on Delaware avenue. The concert given in Concert Hall was attended by an enthusiastic audience of about 600 people. After the concert the alumni gave a smoker at the University Club.

Leaving Buffalo at 8.05 Friday morning, December 22, the cars were taken to Rochester, where Mrs. W. H. Averill gave a tea in the afternoon, and the graduates gave a dance in Powers Hall after the concert. The concert was given at Lyceum Theatre, attended by about 850 people. The privileges of the Genesee Club were extended.

At 1.35 A. M., Dec. 23, the Clubs left Rochester for Detroit, where they arrived at 8.30 the same morning. Mrs. W. A. Butler, Jr., gave a breakfast at one o'clock, which was followed by an afternoon cotillion at the home of Mrs. C. D. Waterman at three o'clock. The concert was in Empire Theatre and afterwards the alumni gave a smoker at the Detroit Club, the privileges of which had been extended to the visitors. Detroit was left at 6.50 A. M., Dec. 24, and Chicago reached at 3 P. M. the same day. Here the clubs spent Sunday and Christmas day, the majority of the men being entertained at the homes of friends or at the Chicago Athletic Club, which extended its privileges to the Clubs. The concert in Central Music Hall Christmas night proved a society event and was attended by 2,100 people, the largest house of the trip. After the concert Mrs. F. S. Winston gave a dance at her home on North State street.

Leaving Chicago on their Burlington special train at 3 A. M., Dec. 26, the Clubs reached Minneapolis at 2 P. M. the same day and attended the tea given by Mrs. McKnight at her home on Para avenue. The concert at Lyceum Theatre was one of the best of the trip, and enthusiastically received by about 700 people. Afterwards Mrs. G. H. Partridge gave a very enjoyable cotillion at her residence on Linsdale avenue. During the night the cars were moved to St. Paul, where a stag luncheon was given at the Minnesota Club, whose privileges were extended. Mrs. D. M. Robbins gave a tea at three o'clock and Mrs. J. J. Hill gave a dance at her residence after the concert. The concert took place in Peoples Church and the attendance was about 600.

Thursday, Dec. 28, was spent on the train, leaving St. Paul at 8.15 A. M., and reaching St. Louis at 6.40 A. M. of the 29th.

In St. Louis, Mrs. D. R. Francis gave a tea at her residence on Maryland ave., and after the concert, Mrs. E. C. Sim-

NOT AT THE

Eleventh Hour,

But with plenty of time, prepare for the social engagements of January and February. You may be coming to the Prom. It is really quite time to get ready. We can equip you, wherever you are.

CHASE & CO.,

New Haven House Block.

HENRY HEATH HATS.

mons gave a dance. The concert was one of the best on the trip and was given before 1,600 people in the Odeon, which is a new theatre, being the most attractive and having the best acoustic properties of all the halls of the trip.

The Clubs left St. Louis at 2.40 Saturday morning and reached Cincinnati at 1.30 the same day. Here a reception was given by Mrs. F. J. Jones; after the concert a smoker was given by the Literary Club. The attendance at the concert in the Odeon was 650. Sunday was spent in Cincinnati and on New Year's day the Clubs went to Columbus, where Mrs. Otto Lindenberg gave a tea. The concert given at the Board of Trade Auditorium was attended by 450 people. Afterwards the alumni gave a dance at the Chittenden Hotel.

Leaving Columbus Tuesday morning, the day was spent en route and in the evening the usual Christmas tree celebration was held and went off exceedingly well, F. D. Cheney, 1900, acting as Santa Claus.

Harrisburg was reached Jan. 3, at 2 P. M. Mrs. Haldeman gave a tea, and the graduates a dance. The concert was given in Grand Opera House and was attended by an audience of 500 people. Privileges of Harrisburg Club were extended.

Leaving Harrisburg at 3 A. M., Jan. 4, the Clubs reached Washington at noon and attended a tea given by Mrs. S. B. Elkins. The concert at National Rifles Armory was attended by a very enthusiastic audience of 600. After the concert Mrs. J. B. Foraker gave a dance at her home. The cars were moved to Philadelphia during the night and on Jan. 5 the concert was given at Wither- spoon Hall in that city to an audience of 600. Afterwards a smoker was held at the University Club. January 6 the cars reached Jersey City, where the men left them to go to Brooklyn, where the last concert was given at the Academy of Music to a small audience. The men all returned to New Haven by Tuesday morning, Jan. 9, when the regular College exercises for the second term began.

The President at Louisville.

Fifteen members of the Louisville (Ky.) Yale Alumni Association held a meeting in the Board of Trade Building, Saturday afternoon, January 6, and completed plans for the entertainment of President Hadley, who is expected in Louisville January 16. A committee was appointed to escort the President and Mrs. Hadley to the home of Col. M. B. Belknap, Yale '77 S., where a reception will be given in their honor. After the reception the Yale Alumni Association will entertain President Hadley at a dinner to be held at the Galt House. During the forenoon of the next day it has been arranged that the President shall visit the principal schools in the city. He will leave for Cincinnati in the afternoon.

Of the 4,093 students at Harvard, 2,292 are from Massachusetts. New York furnishes the next largest number, 394, and Pennsylvania comes next with 146.