THE JUNIOR PROM.

Plans for the Event—Class Teas—Germans and "Sheff." Teas.

As the WEEKLY goes to press most of the plans for the Junior Prom of the Class of 1901 have been completed. The Prom will be held Tuesday night, January 23, at the Second Regiment Armory, where a corps of workmen have already begun to put the building in shape. Koster of New York will decorate, the colors chosen for draping being yellow and white. Lander's orchestra and band will furnish the music, and Mazetti will cater. The Prom Committee this year is: P. L. Mitchell, Chairman; Henry Stiles Curtiss, Floor Manager; S. L. Coy, L. M. Thomas, R. L. Atkinson, J. H. Wear, D. S. Blossom, J. A. Keppelman and Harold Chappell.

The first events of the week will be the class teas on Monday afternoon, Jan. 22. Mrs. H. L. Hotchkiss will give the Junior tea at her home, 55 Hillhouse avenue, between 4 and 6 o'clock, and Mrs. Bernadotte Perrin will give the Sophomore tea between the same hours, at her house No. 463 Whitney avenue. At this writing it looks as though there would be no Senior tea, although an effort is being made to have it.

At 8 o'clock Monday evening the annual Prom concert of the Glee Club will be sung in the Hyperion theater, the program being similar to the one sung on the Christmas trip. Immediately after the concert the Junior and Sophomore germans will be held, the former in Alumni Hall and the latter in Warner Hall.

On Tuesday afternoon the "Sheff." teas, which have grown to occupy an important place in the entertainments of Prom week, will be held, the Colony tea between 4 and 7 o'clock at its house on Hillhouse avenue; the Cloister tea between 4 and 7, corner Hillhouse avenue and Grove street; St. Anthony's Hall tea, between 4 and 6, corner College and Wall streets; the York Hall tea, between 4 and 7, corner College and Wall streets, and the St. Elmo tea at 111 Grove street, between 4 and 6 o'clock.
