With well equipped gymnasium, new athletic field, running track, and five courts, St. Marks has every reason to be proud of her facilities for athletics. In order that the Trophy Room may be more in keeping with the rest of the School great improvements have been made in it. Through the generosity of Corning, '99 (Yale 1903), quartered oak tablets have been placed on the walls, on which are the names of the members of the baseball and football teams since the founding of the school.

Owing to the difficulty of obtaining early records these have not all been put in place, but the lists are complete from 1887. It is planned also to replace the old painted record boards by new ones of oak, of the same design as the team tablets.

During the vacation the school was wired for electric lights and will in future be lighted in this way entirely. The power is derived from the Marlboro Electric Co.

Extemporaneous speaking for the sixth and fifth forms has been commenced. A slight change of plan has been adopted this year, and the subjects to be spoken upon on any given evening are announced at noon that day. The Fourth Form Debating Club has also

THE SIGLAR SCHOOL

For Twenty-five Boys.

Boys are received younger here than at any other preparatory school, and hence the number is limited; there is also more time for a thorough preparation. Boys need companionship. Development of character largely depends upon their having the right sort of companions; there is danger in having too many.

If interested, write for my pamphlet.
