The Continuous Instalment Policy....

Issued by The Prudential has some distinct advantages which will appeal to many men who wonder what will become of the proceeds of their Life Insurance.

1. It assures to your family a yearly income without any worry or risk of loss.
2. Provision is made for the continued payment to the beneficiary, of the annual income as long as he or she may live.
3. In case he or she should not survive the Instalment period selected, the Company pays the remainder of the Instalments, as they become due, to the executors, administrators and assigns, or the sum may be commuted and paid in one single amount if desired.
4. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

SCHOOL NEWS.

EXETER.

The Winter term at Exeter opened on January 10th with a total registration of two hundred and eighty-six students.

In order to lighten the work of the Principal, Professor Amen, the trustees have arranged to have a new instructor in Latin and History. The Academy has been fortunate in securing the services of George A. Williams, A.B., A.M., Ph.D. Mr. Williams graduated from Colgate University in 1880. Since then he has taken post graduate courses at Brown University; taught Greek and History in Cook Academy; Greek at Brown University, and been Principal of the Vermont Academy. Mr. Williams has published a book on "Topics and References in American History," which has been spoken of very highly. He has just finished a term's work at Brown as substitute for Mr. Manatt, Professor of Greek.

A regular course of lectures has been arranged for the Academy. Those which have already taken place are: Gen. Curtis Guild, Jr., on "Good Citizenship," and Col. Henry G. Prout, on "The Life of Charles Gordon."

The track squad has begun training under the direction of Capt. E. M. Sawyer and Coach Delaney. There are more than fifty candidates for the team, and as Coach Delaney has a faculty of developing good teams out of raw material, the prospects for the coming season are very bright.

Thirty men have begun baseball practice in the cage under Capt. W. H. Clay.

The Mask and Wig Dramatic Club have an entertainment, which will probably take place in the latter part of February.

The P. E. A. Glee Club intends to present "The Mikado" sometime in March.

MILWAUKEE ACADEMY.

The twenty-first annual Prize Declamation will take place at Plymouth Church April 27th. A reception and dance at the Athenaeum will follow the exercises.

The West and South Division High Schools were the winners in the Milwaukee Interscholastic Basketball League games Friday, January 19. The West Division defeated the East D. H. S. in a one-sided contest by the score of 20 to 13. The game between the Academy and South Division was fast and snappy, South Division winning, 18 to 15, although the Academy led the scoring most of the time.

NORTHWESTERN MILITARY ACADEMY.

The Indoor Baseball team received the first defeat of the season on Saturday, January 20, in the game with Waukegan Y. M. C. A. The score was 25 to 14.

The swimming tank continues to retain its popularity. Classes for instruction in swimming have been formed.

One of the requisites for graduation is that the cadet must know how to swim. Five new cadets have entered the Academy since Christmas.

DUMMER ACADEMY.

The debating society, the Dummer Forum, has been superseded this term by a system of rhetorical. Each pupil is to speak twice during the term. The three upper classes are required to write the essay which they are to speak, while the lowest class is allowed to select from some author. Each instructor is assigned, by lot, two or three pupils a week to drill.

Apparatus for basket ball has been placed in the gymnasium, and there is much enthusiasm over the game.

CUSHING ACADEMY.

Cushing defeated Brattleboro (Vt.) Y. M. C. A. Basketball team in the home gymnasium January 15, by a score of 7 to 6. The game was hotly contested throughout. Great excitement was manifested in the last half, when Cushing won out by one point.

It has been decided to organize a track team. Mr. Warren Elliott has been elected manager by the Association.

Cushing met her old rivals, Vermont Academy, in basketball in the home gymnasium, January 23, and defeated them by a score of 26 to 4.

ANDOVER.

Andover followed up her victory over the Harvard Freshmen in the relay race at the B. A. A. Games at Boston, Saturday, January 27, by winning the relay race with Exeter at the same association's meet on Saturday night, February 3. Andover had the pole. W. A. Schick, '02, won the first relay from Dean of Exeter by 5 yards, D. H. Botchford, '03, the second from Knibbs of Exeter by 10 yards; D. G. Crawford, 1900, the third from Jones of Exeter by 15 yards, and J. M. Cates, '03, the last from Frye of Exeter by 15 yards. Time 3 minutes 17 $\frac{1}{2}$ seconds.

G. S. Hasbrouck, '01, (6 feet) took first place in the 45-yard hurdles. J. K. Esser, '02, (8 feet) qualified for the finals, but failed to make a place.

W. A. Schick (4 feet) qualified for the finals in the 40-yards dash, but failed to make a place.
