It is desired to have the largest number possible present to welcome our Classmate Col. H. L. Williams, who is to be the guest of the evening. Application and checks ($3 each) may be sent to either of the undersigned.

H. H. Knapp, H. B. Platt, E. L. Dillingham, W. H. Parsons, Jr., 246 West 76th street.

Ninety-Two Reunion.

There will be a reunion dinner of the Class of Ninety-Two at the Yale Club, 17 East 26th Street, New York, Friday, Feb. 23, at 7.30 o'clock. The total cost to each man will be $2.50. The committee in charge is: A. H. Swayne, W. C. Iverson and H. A. Bayne. They request the attendance of every man who can possibly come and ask that those who see this spread the notice of the dinner.

Washington Dinner.

The annual banquet of the Washington Yale Alumni Association will be held March 9. The Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, '56, is President of the Association and the Hon. John Addison Porter, '78, is first Vice-President. President Hadley will attend the banquet.

President Schurman's Lecture.

President J. G. Schurman of Cornell, Chairman of the United States Philippine Commission, spoke before the students of the University on "The Philippine Question," at College Street Hall, Thursday night, Feb. 15. The lecture was one of the Phi Beta Kappa course. President Schurman said there was no Philippine nation, nothing but an assemblage of three distinct races, composed of 84 known tribes, which though far removed from savagery, were entirely unable to govern themselves. He thought a suitable form of government could be devised which would give the Philipinos what they wanted, which was not independence, but religious liberty, and political franchise.

News Elections.

As a result of the competition for the Yale Daily News, which closed Feb. 16, these men were elected: From the Sophomore Class, George Boone Carpenter, Chicago; Norman Howell Mason, Chicago; from the Freshman class, Louis Garfield Coleman, Springfield, Ill.

CUSHING.

Prof. David S. Blanpied, who has had charge of instrumental music at Cushing Academy for the past two years, is obliged to resign on account of additional duties in the New England Conservatory of Music. Miss Mary D. Sawyer of Gardner has been selected to fill the position. Miss Sawyer was one of the advanced pupils of the late Milo B. Cummings, a former music teacher at the Academy.

ST. MARK'S.

The Sixth Form dance was held February 16, and was in every way a great success, being the largest and in many ways the most enjoyable yet given at the School. The dining room was artistically decorated with flags, bunting, and evergreens. The cotillion, led by Bacon, '00, lasted until nearly morning.

On February 21, Dr. John Fiske delivered the fifth and last lecture of the series which he has been giving before the School. His subject was "Campaigns of the Revolutionary War." In addition to those by Dr. Fiske the School has this term enjoyed lectures on "Mont Blanc and the Matterhorn," by Mr. Service and "The War in the Transvaal," by Mr. Rees. On March 14, Prof. Wheeler of Yale will lecture on "Napoleon."

ANDOVER.

Seventy-five men responded to the call for candidates for the baseball team Monday, Feb. 12. There is no lack of good material. Burnside Winslow of Philadelphia is captain. Winslow caught on last year's nine. He came to Andover from the Episcopal School, Philadelphia, where he caught for three years on the baseball team, and was captain for one year. Athletic Director A. E. Stearns will coach the team this year.

The dramatic club is preparing to give the Latin play "The Flight of Aeneas" some time during the last part of the term.

At a meeting of the Class of 1901, Tuesday, February 13, John C. Angus was elected captain of the class baseball team, Egbert E. Weeks, manager, and Joseph I. Simmons, second manager.

Wednesday, February 14, the Class of 1902 held a meeting and elected Frederick J. Parker captain of the baseball team, Cyril Sumner manager, and Howard M. Bartlett, second manager.

Saturday, February 10, the P. A. hockey team went to Wakefield and defeated the local athletic association team 8 to 0.

The senior dinner will take place March 3 at Young's Hotel, Boston.

For a long time, about the only thing that has kept Andover athletics from being all that they ought to be is the lack of a gymnasium; and it looks now as if this want is to be supplied in the near future. Fifty thousand dollars has been pledged and paid in,—the amount necessary for the building itself. An additional amount will be necessary for equipment; and the faculty is still looking for contributions for this purpose. Some necessary changes in the plans are being made and it is hoped to begin the construction of the new building as soon as the frost is out of the ground.
