

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Please report concerning yourself, facts which should be recorded in this column. Make report, also, about Yale men you know, and on matters proper for record here, concerning which you have definite record. This will make the page of the greatest possible value. On request the Alumni Weekly will be glad to send postals to those who are in the way of getting, more or less often, Yale news and Yale personals.

'37—John Hooker has written a volume of sketches entitled Reminiscences.

'46—John B. Talcott is President of the American Hosiery Co., New Britain, Conn., and his son, George S. Talcott, '91, is now Treasurer of the same company.

'53—E. C. Stedman has been elected Vice-President of the New England Society of New York.

'56—Charles T. Catlin has removed to the St. George Hotel, Brooklyn, in consequence of a fire which a few days ago damaged his residence at No. 48 First Place, where he has resided for over thirty years. He does not intend to return to his old home.

'57—Professor Robert Brown of the Yale Observatory was knocked down by a car on Forty-Second Street, New York, February 15. He is now at the St. Luke's Hospital, and is getting along as well as could be expected. His injuries, though not dangerous, will probably prove severe enough to prevent his returning to New Haven for some weeks.

'62—Daniel H. Chamberlain read a paper before the Quabog Historical Society, at New Braintree, Mass., September 12, 1899, and before The Worcester Society of Antiquity, at Worcester, Mass., November 14, 1899, on "Wheeler's Surprise, 1675: Where?" This paper is an examination and discussion of a much mooted historical point in the early settlement of the original town of Brookfield, Mass., the site or location of Captain Wheeler's Surprise and Defeat by the Indians in the Quabog district in 1675, during the progress of King Philip's War.

'65—Professor Charles H. Smith read a paper entitled "Stephen Decatur, the Dewey of the Old Navy," at the regular monthly meeting of the New Haven Colony Historical Society, held Monday evening, February 19.

'72—George P. Sawyer sailed for Europe, February 16.

'72—Dr. Edmund W. Holmes, Demonstrator of Anatomy at University of Pennsylvania, delivered an address February 17, before the Philadelphia Alumni Society of the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania. His subject was "The Briton and The Boer, Reminiscences of South Africa," with lantern slide illustrations.

'74—Rev. Hollis B. Frissell addressed the students of Phillips Andover Academy, February 20.

'74—Dr. George W. Benedict has recently given up his position as Postmaster of South Norwalk and has resumed the practice of medicine.

'75 S.—Prof. Russell H. Chittenden, Director of the Sheffield Scientific School, who is sick with typhoid fever, is improving, and the crisis is now believed to be past.

'76—William L. Hodgman has been elected President of the Agawan Hunt Golf Club of Providence, Rhode Island.

'77—Arthur Reed Kimball has a biographical sketch of Judge William H. Taft, '78, in the current number of the Independent.

'78—J. W. Hill has been elected Vice-President of the Oregon Hop Growers' Association.

'80—Dr. J. W. Seaver has been confined to the house for several days with a severe attack of grippe.

'81—George E. Ide, who is traveling abroad, is now in Italy. He expects to return about the first of May.

'83—The Springfield Republican has published a new poem of William Trumbull, called "The Invincible Armada."

'85—D. A. A. Crane of Waterbury, Conn., is to take a three months' trip abroad in the near future. The greater part of his stay is to be devoted to the study of medicine in Berlin.

'87 Hon.—Rev. John Brown, D.D., LL.D., has published, under the title "Puritan Preaching in New England," the lectures delivered by him in the Lyman Beecher course during October, 1899.

'88—Bernard C. Steiner has an article in the January number of the Presbyterian and Reformed Review entitled "Unpublished Letters of Dr. Philip Schaff."
